Ex-Marinites Hunted In $300,000 Diamond Swindle

Two ex-Marin County men are subjects of a worldwide search involving what a Rio de Janeiro man claims is a swindle of $300,000 in diamonds.

A number of Bay Area firms also are seeking the two men, one of whom, Bernard E. deSenan, was promoter of a Polynesian restaurant which never opened in the Jack Tar Hotel in San Francisco.

San Francisco detective Frank Baroni said today his office is familiar with both deSenan and Percy Herman, who was once manager of Sally Stanford's Valhalla Inn in Sausalito.

Herman was once convicted by the federal government of the $318,000 swindle of a Georgia widow who was his bride for one day.

San Francisco police, district attorney's office and the Federal Bureau of Investigation have all been quietly looking into the matter for about a month, largely because the gems were bought with a pair of $125,000 checks on an account in a San Francisco bank.

But no criminal complaint has been filed, with local authorities claiming Brazilian police officials will have to act.

Jules R. Sauer of Brazil reported the two men arranged to purchase the gems from him in Rio, but that he did not have the cut of diamonds required, and had to send to Amsterdam for them.

The men arranged to pick up the jewels in Hong Kong. There, two $125,000 checks were given to a courier, Sauer said, but payment was stopped before the checks arrived at the First Western Bank's Fillmore branch in San Francisco.

Private Detective Harold Lipset, who has been handling the case for Sauer from San Francisco, claims there was only $48 in the account when the checks were written.

Sauer claimed he phoned the bank from Rio de Janeiro to check on the account of the two men before going through with the deal, and was told the account could cover the checks.

Bank Manager Frank Macchia has since claimed that he said only that he knew of the

Road Deaths Double Those Of Last Year

Charles Adolph Quagelli Jr. of 360 Oak Avenue was dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital at 11:30 p.m.

His death raised the toll of traffic deaths in Marin County this year to 14, double last year's count at this time.

Quagelli, according to Corte Madera police, was on the wrong side of Paradise Drive near the Madera Pet Hospital east of Highway 101 when his car collided with one driven by Charles Frederick Mack, 18, of 51 Lomita Drive, Mill Valley, at 11:10 p.m.

Mack, a student at Tamalpais High School, was treated for forehead and knee bruises at Marin General Hospital. Police said he was returning from a baseball game.

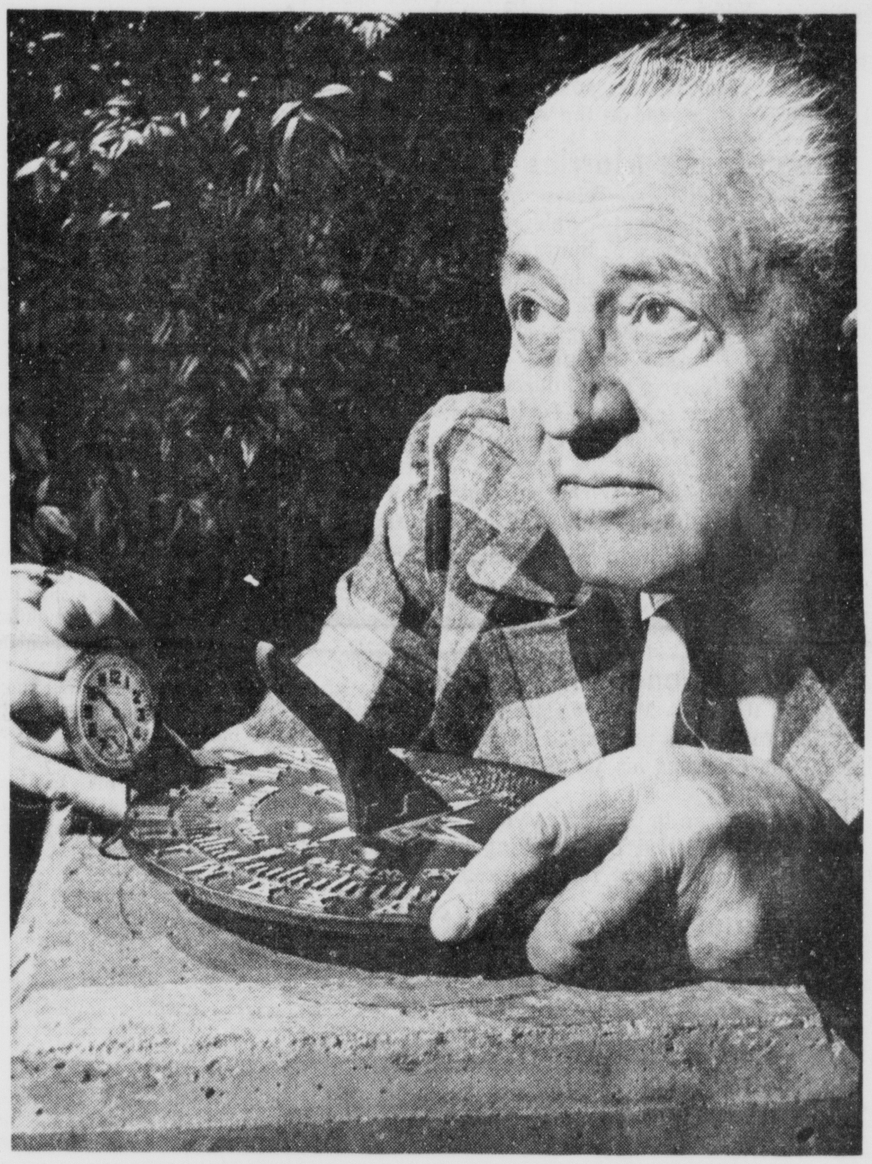
Quagelli died of internal injuries, according to William Bradley, assistant county coroner. His abdomen was pierced by the steering wheel, which broke in the crash.

Police Officer Charles Rester noted that Quagelli probably would not have died if he had been wearing a seat belt.

Quagelli was an investigator for the Retail Credit Co. of San Francisco.

Besides his step-sister, he is known to be survived only by an uncle in San Francisco.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo.



AT LAST HE CAN SET THE SUNDIAL

All last week, Melvin H. Klyce tried daily to set the new sundial in front of the Greyhound Bus station in Mill Valley's Lytton Square, which was installed by the Rotary Club. You have to have sunshine to set a sundial. All week, no luck. Today, with the sun out, Klyce was prompt on hand to start the sundial working (on daylight saving time.) (Independent-Journal photo)

Hemorrhage Weakens Pope; Kennedy's Visit Is Canceled

A Vatican source said plans for President John F. Kennedy to see the 81-year-old Roman Catholic pontiff had been suspended. Kennedy was due here about June 22.

Belgian-born Bishop Pierre van Lierde, the Pope's sacristan and vicar-general for Vatican City, canceled several engagements in Rome. He was reported remaining in or near the Pope's apartment constantly to be ready to administer extreme unction.

The Vatican switchboard received hundreds of phone calls about the Pope. Operators replied: "A little better."

At the Vatican press office there was no statement on his condition.

Informants said the Pope had a restful night.

Another papal doctor, Piero Mazzoni, kept vigil near the Pope's bedside throughout the night. It was the sixth successive night Mazzoni had spent in the apostolic palace.

All through the night, the lights were off in the Pope's third floor apartment overlooking St. Peter's Square. This indicated he did not need attention.

Mazzoni left the palace shortly after dawn and Gasbarrini did not call until noon. This was taken to mean that at the least there was no worsening in the pontiff's condition.

L'Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper, said the Pope's condition last night "showed general improvement —above all subjective," meaning that the Pope felt better.

The Pope's doctor found further improvement in his condition this morning, the paper added.

The daily also reported Pope John saw his secretary of state, Amleto Cardinal Cicognani last night and again today.

Apparently Cardinal Cicognani and Bishop Van Lierde were among the few prelates allowed in the Pope's apartment. The bishop would be the prelate to administer sacraments to the Pope.

Cardinal Cicognani is the Pope's closest collaborator in Church affairs. Today was the third successive morning that the Pope had received him, despite strict orders from his doctors that he must have absolute rest.

This precaution was taken following another hemorrhage yesterday, perhaps the worst setback the Pope has had since he was stricken in November with a stomach disorder said to be an ulcer or cancer. He also had suffered a hemorrhage Saturday.

The doctors told the Pope he must not get out of bed, or he would risk further hemorrhages.

He sat up in an arm chair yesterday for his 45-minute talk with his secretary of state and there were reports that this had provoked the Pope's most recent hemorrhage.

Merchants Rip Mill Valley's License Plan

More than 100 Mill Valley merchants today voiced opposition to a proposed increase in city business license fees, in a signed petition which is to be given to the city council.

"We are unalterably opposed," the petition reads, "to an increase in the business license fees on the premise that it would be inequitable and impose an undue hardship on many small Mill Valley firms."

The president of the chamber of commerce also spoke out against any across-the-board raise. Said Leonard Blakely: "The chamber is against a straight across-the-board raise. We have checked with various chambers in the county and find most licenses are on a graduated scale according to volume of business generated. We are going to advocate some type of sliding scale for license fees."

Chamber directors were to meet this noon with councilmen Michael Wornum and George D. Monardo to discuss the fee hike. Saturday at a

Bordenave Dies At 72; Marin Baker

Frank Bordenave, 72, owner of Bordenave's San Rafael French Bakery a 1553 Fourth Street, died today in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

Bordenave started in the bakery business in his native France at the age of 10. He came to Marin County in 1910, bringing with him the formula for French bread which has been used ever since by his bakery.

He first worked for the old Parisian Bakery on B Street, then opened his own bakery at Second and D streets in 1917. The present bakery was opened in 1924.

Bordenave had not been active in the bakery business for the last two years. The bakery has 12 employees and is the largest French bakery in the county.

Bordenave was a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge of San Rafael and the San Rafael Volunteer Fire Department.

He is survived by his wife, Honorine; one daughter, Mrs. Gabrielle Gillette of San Rafael, one granddaughter and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. The bakery will be closed for retail trade the day of the funeral.

Death Of Ex-Marinite Is Probed In Alaska

An inquest was slated today in Juneau, Alaska, in the shotgun death of Lawrence Tabor, 35, a former San Rafael resident, aboard a commercial fishing boat there last Monday.

Tabor's death was reported by his partner, Jack Pederson, as an accident.

But, said Mrs. William Currie of 145 Woodside Drive, San Rafael, the victim's sister, Tabor and Pederson had quarreled aboard the boat, which was anchored near an island off Juneau. She said a third man also was aboard.

Tabor and Pederson purchased the boat, Sitka, from Clarence Cain of San Rafael, had it outfitted in Sausalito, and sailed for Alaska early this year, Mrs. Currie said. Tabor had made his home with his sister for two years in about 1958-59.

Tabor, a native of Eureka, had been a commercial fisherman most of his adult life.

The body is being brought to San Rafael for funeral services Wednesday at 11 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

Besides his sister, Tabor leaves a brother and half-brother, Charles Tabor, with the U. S. Army in Germany, and Norman J. Gorden of Oakland, and his mother, Mrs. Martha F. Tabor of Wyoming.

Four Navy Fliers Lost In Crash

HONOLULU (AP) — A twin-engine Navy plane flying a search mission for the aircraft carrier Kearsarge crashed in the Pacific south of Hawaii yesterday and the four men aboard are presumed lost.

A Pearl Harbor spokesman said the S2-F plane went down while searching for a crashed helicopter whose crew later was rescued.

Revenue Move

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Assembly today approved, over Republican protests, a bill to decrease the state's gift tax exemption from $4,000 to $3,000 —and raise $500,000 a year in new revenue.

Bill Outlawing Lie Detector Test Gains

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill making it illegal for a private business to require its employees or applicants for jobs to submit to a lie detector test was approved today by a Senate committee.

The labor committee sent the measure to the upper house floor for final legislative consideration. The bill was passed by the assembly earlier this month.

Assemblyman John T. Knox (D-Richmond), the author of the plan, said there was "serious doubt as to the reliability of this test."

He said that unless the bill becomes law "a man, as a result of a mechanical test, could be blacklisted for the rest of his life."

But opponents of the bill claimed that lie detector, or polygraph, tests were more reliable than aptitude tests or personal interviews as grounds for hiring or refusing to hire an employee.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Arlene Francis Injured In Accident

NEW YORK (AP)—Actress Arlene Francis, a panelist on the television program "What's My Line?", was reported in satisfactory condition today after an automobile collision in which she was injured and another woman was killed.

Francis

The Boston-born actress was replaced on "What's My Line?" last night by singer Kitty Carlisle.

Miss Francis, 55, was en route to Manhattan to appear on the show, when her auto skidded on wet pavement and collided head on with another auto. Police said she apparently had tried to stop her car because of a minor accident ahead of her.

Killed in the collision with the actress' car was Rose Arcos, 34, of Brooklyn. Her husband, Joseph, also 34, who was driving, and three other passengers in his car were injured, two of them critically.

Africa Nations Unite

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (UPI)—Thirty African nations, united for the first time in the Organization of African Unity, promised yesterday to fight to end white rule in colonies but stay out of U.S. racial troubles.

President Sekou Toure of Guinea outlined OAU policy in a news conference following the signature of the organization's charter. He said Africa condemns discrimination against Negroes in Alabama, but he praised President John F. Kennedy's efforts at protecting civil rights.

"We are backing this government in its struggle but we cannot intervene in the struggle," he said.

Dinah Shore Marries Contractor

REDLANDS (UPI) — Television star Dinah Shore was married yesterday to Palm Springs contractor Maurice F. Smith—only two days after the blonde singer picked up the final divorce from her first marriage to George Montgomery.

Shore

The wedding, attended by Miss Shore's two children was a surprise to her friends in Hollywood.

The quiet civil ceremony was performed at the home of Superior Judge Joseph Ciano here. Besides Miss Shore's children, Melissa Ann, 15, and John David, 10, others attending were Smith's two sons, Dexter, 12, and Dana, 5.

Korea Strongman Nominated

SEOUL (UPI) — Military strongman Gen. Park Chung Hee today was nominated as a presidential candidate in the elections his junta has promised to hold this year.

Park, who came to power two years ago this month in a military coup, said he is willing to run but will withhold formal candidacy for the present.

Mountaineers Are Brought Down

KATMANDU, Nepal (UPI)—Two American mountaineers were brought down off Mount Everest by helicopter today for emergency treatment of frostbitten toes.

They told of breathtaking brushes with death in their conquest of the world's highest mountain.

William Unsoeld, 36, of Corvallis, Ore., and Barry C. Bishop, 30, of Washington, D.C., were set down gently on a pad near the hospital and were welcomed by their anxious wives.

Meredith's View

WASHINGTON (UPI) — James Meredith, the first Negro to enroll in the University of Mississippi, today urged Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy to press for stronger civil rights legislation.

Meredith met with the attorney general for about 10 minutes today and said "we discussed the Mississippi situation in general."

Meredith said the meeting was arranged by Kennedy after the Negro student appeared on television's meet the press last night.

Miles Of Freeways

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California now has 2,584 miles of multi-lane highways, State Highway Engineer J. C. Womack reports. He said in a study released Saturday that 214 more miles of freeways opened last year, and another 400 are under construction. The freeway system saves 100 lives a day, he estimated.

Congress Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate faces a three-day flurry of activity before closing down late Wednesday for an extended Memorial Day weekend. The pace in the House will be more leisurely.

An 840-million-dollar program dealing with the problems of mental illnesses and mental retardation heads the Senate's list today.

The House has a light schedule for the week. Its only announced business is a bill to extend the Mexican farm labor program for two years.

Ballots Place Sen. Goldwater Way Out Front

Ballots were mailed in mid-April to 1,331 delegates and 707 replies were received.

The poll by the Phoenix afternoon daily asked the delegates to list the candidates they would support in the next election. The results showed:

Goldwater 339 votes for 48 per cent.

Michigan Gov. George Romney 24, 3.4 per cent.

Sen. Thruston B. Morton (R-Ky.), 5, .9 per cent.

Oregon Gov. Mark Hatfield, 4, .6 per cent.

Those receiving one vote each were former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Henry Ford II, Robert Hutchins and former Sen. William Knowland of California.

Forty-four delegates indicated no preference and 27 marked the "don't know" box.

The ballots were distributed a few weeks before Rockefeller's remarriage. About 100 of the ballots were returned, however, well after the event.

Siamese Twin Rodney Brodie Dies At 11

FERRIS, Ill. (AP) — Rodney D. Brodie, who was separated from his Siamese twin brother in a historic operation more than a decade ago, died yesterday at his home at the age of 11.

His grandmother, Mrs. Will Brodie of Burnside, Ill., said the boy had been in a slow decline for about eight months.

Dr. J. D. Trotter of Carthage, Ill., who treated the boy, said death was due to an abnormal condition existing at birth, but inability to swallow food was the immediate cause.

Rodney and his brother, Roger Lee Brodie, were joined at the head when they were born Sept. 16, 1961, at Rock Island, Ill.

They were separated in an operation at Chicago Research Hospital when they were 15 months old.

Consumer Measure

Brown issued the plea yesterday for support of a bill to set up a state natural gas coordinator who would represent the public before the Federal Power Commission and State Public Utilities Commission.

Birmingham Schools Ruling Due Amidst Racial Unrest

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A federal court ruling is due today or tomorrow on Negro efforts to desegregate schools in Birmingham, largest city in Alabama and focal point of racial unrest for weeks.

U.S. Dist. Judge Seybourne H. Lynne said yesterday he will announce his decision by tomorrow. It will be the fifth court ruling within a week on Birmingham issues.

It will come just three weeks before two Negroes, backed by orders of another federal judge, plan to present themselves for admission into white units of the University of Alabama system—one at the main university campus at Tuscaloosa, the other at a branch at Huntsville.

Gov. George C. Wallace has vowed a stand-in-the-door policy to maintain segregation in Alabama's schools. He has said he will be on hand personally to block admission of a Negro at the university for the term beginning June 10.

Two suits are involved in the public school litigation before Lynne. The first, filed in 1960, attacks Alabama's pupil placement law, which has been upheld on its face by the U.S. Supreme Court. The law gives local school boards broad authority in assigning pupils to schools.

The second, filed last year, seeks an injunction wiping out the entire segregation system in Birmingham schools. Both are class actions, which means they seek relief on behalf of all Negroes.

About 500 riot-trained federal soldiers have been pulled out of a Montgomery base, 90 miles south of Birmingham, but 2,500 federal troops remain at Anniston, 60 miles east.

In developments elsewhere:

An estimated 35,000 persons packed Wrigley Field at Los Angeles for a three-hour rally for civil rights. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Southern integration leader, shared the stage with several Hollywood stars. King urged that President John F. Kennedy personally escort the two Negro students to the white university units.

Ku Klux Klan Wizard Robert Shelton of Tuscaloosa, Ala., said at an Atlanta rally of the robed order that the KKK will join Gov. Wallace in standing in the door to prevent integration of the university.

The Louisiana Legislature gave final approval to a vote of censure for what it called a federal threat of "government by bayonet" in Alabama.

A parade of about 12,000 persons, most of them Negroes, was staged Sunday along San Francisco's Market Street in a demonstration demanding an end to Birmingham's troubles, and calling for an end to racial bias in the California city.

Attorney Paul Zuber, a Negro who has been active in integration moves, said in New York he was withdrawing from such efforts and called for a merger of all Negro action groups, except the Black Muslims.

A Negro spokesman in Greensboro, N.C., said integration leaders are trying to be "as open minded as we possibly can" in that city's racial troubles. He said a 48-hour no-demonstrations truce might be extended past its deadline of 4 p.m. today.

In Albany, Ga., a major integration target last year, 16 persons jailed for demonstrations have pledged a hunger strike.

Senators Offer Test-Ban Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) teamed up in a surprise move today in suggesting the United States offer the Soviet Union an agreement to ban atmospheric and underwater nuclear tests.

The two Democrats, who differ sharply over the adequacy of Kennedy administration proposals for a comprehensive treaty banning all nuclear weapons testing, found common ground on a first-step proposal.

They proposed a resolution asking Washington to offer Moscow an agreement to halt tests that "contaminate the atmosphere or the oceans." Twenty-two other Democrats and six Republican senators signed the resolution with them for introduction in the Senate.

Humphrey and Dodd emphasized the resolution would impose no restrictions on underground testing or on testing in outer space which would not contaminate the atmosphere.

Dodd, in a speech prepared for Senate delivery, paid high tribute to Humphrey, assistant Senate Democratic leader, as "a champion of peace and disarmament." He called the Minnesotan "the logical candidate" for the next Nobel Peace Prize.

The resolution stipulates that if the Soviet Union refuses to sign the first-step agreement, "we commit ourselves before the world to conduct no nuclear tests in the atmosphere or underwater so long as the Soviet Union abstains from them."

But it specifies that in committing the United States to such a moratorium this government should bear in mind the Soviet record of "deceit and bad faith" and maintain its testing facilities in a state of constant readiness so it will not be caught napping if the Soviets should "suddenly resume nuclear testing in the atmosphere or underwater."

Emmy For Shirley Booth

Even the President John F. got one.

CBS' courtroom drama, "The Defenders," was top winner with five awards. Its star, E. G. Marshall, encored as outstanding actor in a dramatic series. The show also picked up Emmies for dramatic writing, directing and film editing.

It was the second time around for Shirley Booth's bossy maid, "Hazel," the best series actress, and Don Knott's bumbling deputy Barney Fife in "The Andy Griffith Show," best actor in a supporting role.

"The Tunnel," NBC's controversial documentary showing East Berliners digging their way to freedom beneath the Berlin wall, was named program of the year. It also took honors as best documentary and for its narrator, NBC Berlin correspondent Piers Anderton, for international reporting.

Actress June Allyson dissolved in tears when the Television Academy presented a posthumous Television Academy Trustee Award to her late husband actor-producer Dick Powell for his contributions to the industry. Powell died last year of cancer. The award was accepted by his former partners in Four-Star Productions, actor David Niven and Charles Boyer.

The trustees also presented an award to President Kennedy for "his willingness to expose his thoughts and feelings to his fellow countrymen" in his regular news conferences. Mrs. Kennedy won an Emmy last year for her "Tour of the White House."

Another special award was presented to American Telephone and Telegraph Co. which launched the Telestar communications satellite last year.

Newlywed comedienne Carol Burnett got a wedding present in a golden Emmy for the outstanding performance in a variety show, "Julie and Carol at Carnegie Hall." She also won the award last year. The program, in which Miss Burnett co-starred with singer Julie Andrews, was named the year's outstanding musical program.

"The Dick Van Dyke Show" nosed out the favored "Beverly Hillbillies" as the year's funniest series. Its writer, Carl Reiner, and director, John Rich, also won Emmies. It was the fifth Emmy for Reiner, onetime second banana on the Sid Caesar show.

Two of the winners haven't been renewed—"David Brinkley's Journal," which won, as it did last year, the prize as outstanding public affairs program, and "The Andy Williams Show," named best variety program.

A Ben Casey segment, "A Cardinal Act of Mercy," picked up awards for its star, Kim Stanley, for the best single performances by an actress, and for veteran Glenda Farrell, as best supporting actress. Miss Stanley played a woman lawyer addicted to narcotics, and Miss Farrell, a nurse.

British actor Trevor Howard's portrayal as "The Invincible Mr. Disraeli" won laurels for the outstanding single performance by an actor. The show, produced by Hallmark Hall of Fame, also won a prize for its camera work.

NBC swept the news and special events divisions. For the fifth year in a row, the team of Chet Huntley and David Brinkley was cited the best news show.

A Daly City man plunged 150 feet from a Point Reyes Peninsula cliff Saturday while searching for hawk's eggs, but escaped only with a possible cracked pelvis, bruised arm, and scratches.

Kenneth Gammon, 31, was in satisfactory condition today at Marin General Hospital where he was taken after the 2:30 p.m. accident.

Gammon was hunting eggs near Kehoe Beach, halfway out on Pierce Point, with a rope tied to one wrist. According to sheriff's deputies, he peered over the edge of the cliff into a hawk's nest and slipped.

He was held by the rope for 10 minutes, while dangling over the rocky beach. The rope parted and he fell.

Gammon lay on the beach while County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom and firemen Howard Lee and Lloyd Mery worked their way down to him. He was brought back up by stretcher.

A friend of Gammon's, Ed Ng of San Francisco, ran to the Kehoe ranch to summon help when Gammon fell.

San Anselmo Council To Name New City Fire Chief Tomorrow

San Anselmo City Council will appoint a new fire chief tomorrow night to succeed retiring Chief Nello Marcucci.

Tomorrow's regular meeting of the city council is set for 8 p.m. in the city hall.

Of the three men who are eligible for the chief's job, Asst. Fire Chief Francis Sousa appears to be the likeliest to be picked for the top post. The other two are Capt. William Rawlins and Capt. Richard McLaran.

A public hearing will be held on Robert Ryan's request for rezoning of 10 acres at the end of Sonoma Avenue from multiple residential to planned development zone. Thirty apartment units are planned there. The city planning commission has recommended approval of the rezoning.

The council will consider a petition that open understructure of a new home at 14 Island Drive be enclosed.

Migrants From Mountains Aided

BEREA, Ky. (AP)—The Council of the Southern Mountains is establishing an office in Chicago to help migrants from mountain communities adjust to city life.

The office is part of a multipurpose program the council is developing for people of economically depressed mountain regions.

The council will encourage mountain people to develop skills and job opportunities that will enable them to make a contribution to their new community and will offer them advice on their move to the city.

Another part of the program will encourage creation of employment facilities in the Appalachian South to make good use of natural and personal resources of the region.

Graduating Youth To Be Commissioned

Robert M. Weber, son of Patricia Weber of 2421 Fifth Avenue and the late Lt. Com. Robert L. Weber, USNR, will graduate Friday from Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, and will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Force after his training in the school's Reserve Officers Training Corps unit.

He will be based at Francis E. Warren Air Force Base, Cheyenne, Wyo.

Larkspur Meeting

The Larkspur City Council, Planning Commission and Park and Recreation Commission will discuss a general plan program and zoning ordinance procedures at the city hall June 4 at 8 p.m.

Library Money Raised At Sale

The San Rafael City Library raised "close to $700" during its book sale Friday and Saturday, Mrs. Vivian Smith, chief librarian, reported today.

The money will go toward starting a library record collection that will be available for circulation this fall, Mrs. Smith said.

The library also added about 100 books to its shelves from among the books donated for the sale. About 1,500 books were sold.

Girl To Graduate

Paula Jane Merret, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Russell Merret, 75 Rock Road, Kentfield, will receive a bachelor of science degree in health and physical education Sunday at commencement exercises at Lewis and Clark College, Portland, Ore.

To Language Institute

Erwin Peterson of San Francisco, a teacher of French at Tamalpais High School, Mill Valley, will attend a language institute at the College of St. Teresa, Winona, Minn., June 17-Aug. 2. under the National Defense Education Act.

Two Sent To Hospital After Woodacre Brawl

Deputy Sheriff Robert Bertrand said the fight started at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bohman on Railroad Avenue in Woodacre, but the exact cause of the flare-up was not learned.

Two young boys, who watched the melee from the patio, told Deputy Bertrand "everybody was fighting," and one person was hit with a portable phonograph and another with a wash tub with ice in it.

Silva, who is in his 40s, said he did not know what the fight was about, but all of a sudden he was knocked to the ground and a mass of young men beat him up. Silva is a heavy equipment operator.

Mrs. Helen Clare Bohman told the officer she and her husband, Roy, were giving a party for their son, John, who got married a few weeks ago. Everyone was having a good time. Mrs. Bohman said Mrs. Silva began using nasty language, and slaped Mrs. Robert B. Moore of Lagunitas several times.

All of a sudden, Robert Moore hit Joe Silva, Mrs. Bohman recalled, and the fight was on. Mrs. Bohman said Mrs. Silva jumped into the middle of the fighting.

Mrs. Silva was hospitalized at Marin General Hospital with a deep cut in the left arm. The extent of injury to Silva was not known.

Woman Dies Swallowing Vegetables

A 55-year-old Sausalito woman died Saturday night after a piece of lettuce and tomato, which she swallowed while preparing dinner on a boat, stuck in her throat.

Mrs. Lucretya Smith Henry, 55, of 86 Bulkley Avenue was pronounced dead by a doctor at 7:45 p.m. shortly after she swallowed the lettuce and tomato.

Mrs. Henry, a bookkeeper, was preparing dinner for herself and her husband when she collapsed on a bunk in their boat, tied to a berth at the Sausalito Yacht Harbor.

William Bradley, assistant county coroner, said the food blocked Mrs. Henry's respiratory system.

Mrs. Henry, a resident of Marin for six years, is survived by her husband, Theodore, sales representative for a law book distributor, and a son and daughter, Richard Gurley and Mrs. James Thornhill of Phoenix, Ariz.

"We will set up an emergency meeting at which all chamber members will be invited to attend," Blakely said.

The council has proposed hiking business licenses one-third, which means that the majority of merchants would pay $48 instead of $36 per year. Those outside the city would pay $54. The increases would mean about $9,000 more in the city's coffers.

"Why does a small business like mine or a shoe store have to pay the same as one such as Safeway?" asked Harriet Wilton, owner of Wilton's pet supplies, today. "A lot of truck drivers come into town and don't even have a license. They should check on those.

"The city should have parking meters in the Locust district, too," Mrs. Wilton added.

De Anza Sarcophagus Marble Flown Out

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two Army planes took off today for Arizpe, Sonora, Mexico, with carved marble slabs which will become the sarcophagus of Juan Bautista de Anza, founder of San Francisco.

As a Spanish captain, de Anza led the first exploration party into Northern California and camped March 27, 1776, on a site overlooking the Golden Gate. He named the site Presidio de San Francisco.

men and that the account was at the bank.

Lipset said he could not understand why the bank manager would not say more about a $48 account if a phone check was made all the way from Brazil.

Since the check was stopped, and therefore did not bounce, San Francisco authorities have filed no complaint.

Sauer is now on his way to Paris to contact Interpol, the international police organization, to try to track down the pair, last reported heading from Rome to Venezuela or Mexico.

Meanwhile, locally, several creditors are considering what they can do about deSenan's promotion, the Tar Island Corp., which was supposd to open a restaurant

DeSenan reportedly moved from Kentfield about two years ago.

Sauer said he recovered $11,000 worth of jewels from another associate of deSenan's, who claims he was also taken for $15,000 in the operation.

According to Sauer, the pair arrived in Brazil, passing out $2 cigars and appearing to be generally well to do, and purchased $42,800 worth of gems, which they paid for with a postdated check, also stopped before it reached the bank.

Four Cars Stolen During 11 Days In Mill Valley

Four cars, three of them reportedly locked and one with keys left in it, were stolen in Mill Valley over the past 11 days, police said today.

Ina Sashsa of 390 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley, reported her 1956 Chevrolet taken Saturday from the Jolly stores parking lot. Elmer J. Basey, 490 Edgewood Avenue, reported his 1959 blue Rambler taken Friday from 127 Throckmorton Avenue, and Robert E. Peterson of 30 Magee Avenue said his 1960 gray Morris Minor was taken Tuesday from in front of his home.

Carol Newton of 105 La Pasado, San Rafael, reported her 1954 Ford two-door sedan stolen May 16 from the Purity Store lot in Mill Valley. Miss Newton said the keys had been left in the car.

1,500 Attend Terra Linda World Fair

More than 1,500 people turned out Saturday for the second annual Terra Linda High School fair to assure at least a dozen $100 scholarships for Terra Linda seniors next year.

"We collected at least as much money this year as we did for the first fair," said Vince La Porte of the high school Parent-Teacher Assn. which sponsored the fair. "The weather was good, and we had a great crowd."

Proceeds from the fair will be shared by school service clubs and the P-TA scholarship fund. This year, a dozen $100 scholarships were given to outstanding seniors from money collected last year.

Nancy Palacio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matias D. Palacio of 100 Garden Avenue, Santa Venetia, was crowned "My Fair Lady," queen of the fair Saturday afternoon. She was one of five queen contestants. She reigned during the afternoon and at the aquacade in the evening.

One of the most popular games at the fair, according to La Porte, was a "dunking" game in which Terra High principal Webster Wilson volunteered as a target.

Bill Schallock President At Tam High

Junior officers will be Sandy Norush, vice president; Laurie Lacey, secretary and Joyce Williams, treasurer.

The Man Behind Machine Blamed

Data-processing equipment is being used more and more widely by the public schools to make class assignments, keep grade records and the like. But sometimes the machines slip up, as they did at Myers Park High School in Charlotte, N.C.

The result, according to the National Education Assn. publication, "Education U.S.A.":

One girl received a monotonous schedule with several lunch periods; another had only one lunch period, but it was at 8:45 a.m.; a student who had flunked French I three times found himself promoted to French IV; and another student almost got away with a restful semester—three study halls.

Some 15 per cent of the 92 million persons counted in the 1910 census were foreign-born as against only 5 per cent of the 179.3 million counted in 1960.

Salk Institute Gets Land At San Diego

By WALTER GRAY

SAN DIEGO (AP)—The Salk Institute for Biological Studies is under construction on a cliffside overlooking a stretch of chalk beach where the blue and emerald waters of the Pacific came to rest and roll back out to sea.

Situated atop Torrey Pines Mesa, the institute will tower above a grove of gnarled dwarf pines which cling to the face of a crumbling, yellowish sandstone cliff.

The spot has attracted others, notably a group of millionaires who vied with Dr. Jonas Salk for it.

They offered to pay 2.5 million dollars for a 50-year lease of the property and intended to convert it into an executive golf course. A spokesman for the group told the San Diego City Council: "Top pros have said it would make it one of the finest golf courses in the world."

Typically, Dr. Salk took no part in public discussion of contending proposals for use of the one million dollar plot of land and eventually it was awarded to his sponsor —the National Foundation.

Dr. Salk, who developed the antipolio vaccine 10 years ago, has been quoted as having called the site "Utopia." But in an interview he said he hadn't.

The institute will be a 15-million-dollar plant with two deluxe laboratories where a body of bio-chemists will begin their research not later than July 1964. One of Dr. Salk's aides said some of the scientists will start to work in a temporary laboratory at the institute within three months.

Later on, philosophers, historians of science and others will join the staff.

Research at the institute will be unhampered by pressure. There will be no crash projects undertaken to lick a single, devastating disease, for instance, cancer, or to develop a particular thing, such as an atom bomb.

Dr. Salk at present is experimenting with viruses and predicts that it will one day be possible to control as many as 100 diseases with a single, over-all antivirus vaccine.

"The way to fight cancer is to immunize man from all viruses that affect him," he said. "It may be a shotgun approach but it may be the only way."

On the road to such a discovery, however, it is possible that the very roots of nature will be tapped—with far-reaching effects.

For instance, scientists probing the biological nature of man could turn up a method of altering personality patterns, potentially a contribution to the mental and spiritual well-being of man.

But such a discovery, if it falls into the laps of evil-doers or even well-intentioned bunglers, could sound the death knell for some of the most cherished values of Western civilization: uniqueness of character and individual freedom.

How could such a discovery be controlled?

Seated in a black swivel chair behind a neat, modern desk, Dr. Salk said in carefully measured words that there is a difference between the workings of the minds of scientists and laymen, such as newsmen.

"Your focus is prospective, you are looking ahead to discover what might happen—what might be news," he said. "Mine is perspective—looking at what has gone before."

OBITUARIES

Charles J. Pedroli Dies At 84

Charles J. Pedroli, 84, a retired carpenter of 123 Union Street, San Rafael, died at his home yesterday after a six-month illness.

Pedroli had worked for the Northwestern Pacific Railroad for 40 years before he retired 19 years ago.

A native of Italy, he had lived in Marin County 50 years.

He is survived by a daughter, Mary Pedroli, with whom he mad his home; a brother, Pasqualino Pedroli of Italy, and a granddaughter.

Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Keaton's Mortuary Chapel, San Rafael. A Requiem Mass will be celebrated at St. Raphael's church at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

MARTHA GREEN

Funeral for Martha Domrowe Green, San Anselmo, 32-year resident of Marin County who died Saturday in a local hospital after a short illness, will be held Wednesday at 11 a.m. at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

Burial will be in Cypress Lawn Memorial Park, Colma.

Mrs. Green, 70, was the widow of Stanley Green, retired superintendent of inspection for the California Inspection Rating Bureau. She lived at 11 Sturdivant Avenue.

She was a native of San Francisco.

MARIE RICKETS

A Requiem Mass for Mrs. Marie A. Rickets of 321 Greenfield Avenue, San Anselmo, will be said tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at St. Anselm's Church, San Anselmo.

Mrs. Rickets, 53, a resident of Marin County for 14 years, died in her home Saturday after a short illness. She had complained of being tired and was taking diet pills, according to William Bradley, assistant county coroner.

An autopsy was performed yesterday. Pathologist's reports will be available in about a week, Bradley said.

Mrs. Rickets, a native of San Jose, was a member of the Auxiliary to San Rafael Aerie 256, Fraternal Order of Eagles.

She is survived by her husband, William, an electrician; two sons and two daughters, William E. Rickets Jr. of Fairfax, Donald F. Rickets and Linda Rickets of San Anselmo and Mrs. Rose Marie Kilpatrick of San Rafael; her mother, Mrs. Emma Schaefer, and a brother, Carl Schaefer, both of San Jose, and one grandchild.

Eagle Auxiliary memorial services will be held at 7:30 p.m. today. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Interment will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

College War Memorial Tomorrow

Memorial services for College of Marin students who died in World War II and the Korean War will be held on the campus lawn by the flag pole at 12:15 p.m. tomorrow.

Rear Adm. John I. Kinert retired, of San Francisco, commander of a South Pacific submarine task force, will give the opening address. He will be flanked by an honor guard from the Marin Marines.

Three awards will be presented.

College Vice President Paul Clymer will present the Bud Sullivan award, a gold medal, to the most inspirational athlete, in memory of a student killed in World War II.

Dean of students Irwin P. Diamond will present the Dick Signorelli award, the student's name inscribed in a trophy, to the most talented baseball player, in memory of a 1952 baseball team member killed in a accident en route to a game.

Diamond will present a second Signorelli award, a $100 scholarship, to the student with the most outstanding citizenship and scholastic record.

If farmers today used 1940 equipment and methods, it would add more than $5 a week to each U.S. family's bill for farm products.

Marinite Elected To Players Board

4-H CLUB FAIR DRAWS BIG CROWD AT NICASIO

An old-style country fair, complete with noisy livestock, baked goods, prancing horses, and an outdoor barbecue, drew throngs Saturday to Rancho Nicasio.

The Nicasio 4-H Club Fair included home dressmaking, woodworking and forestry exhibits, showmanship and breed hibits; showmanship and breed cattle; a tractor driving contest, booths selling everything from homemade "white elephants" to feathers and "warpaint" for would-be Indian braves, and a horse show. Lunch was an outdoor chicken barbecue.

Trophy winners were:

Three Sleepy Hollow Boys Capture Rattler

Steve Hale, 9, of 35 Garden Rock Road, Sleepy Hollow, has five rattles from a snake's tail to prove he killed a two-foot rattler yesterday afternoon in his back yard.

Steve had help from two buddies, Randy Fitch of 25 Garden Rock Road and Peter Van Arnum of 101 Van Winkle Drive, also 9 years old.

The boys stoned the rattler into submission about 3 p.m. yesterday in an open hill above the Garden Rock Road cul-de-sac. Peter first spotted the snake, which dashed into a crevice.

"A little while later, I saw a head bobbing up and down," said Steve. "Then the full body was almost out. I threw a rock and missed. Randy then hit him in the tail."

"I took a rock and hit him right in the middle," Steve continued. "It hid its head under a rock. I lifted the rock and hit his head with a stick until he'd had it."

Steve said the snake was still twitching when he picked it up by the tail and delivered it to Randy's father, Charles Fitch, who cut off the head.

"I kept the tail; it has five rattles," Steve announced proudly.

Steve's mother, Mrs. H. F. Hale, was able to laugh about the incident this morning, but she said she was horrified at the time.

Police and sheriff's deputies have warned that there are rattlers in the county, and children should be advised of the danger.

They're Studying History Of Russia At Tamalpais High

By BRUCE COLEMAN

"Ten years ago you wouldn't have found kids talking this way. Things were so negative concerning the Soviet Union. Now I think it's more reasonable."

C. E. (Si) Beattie was speaking of his students in Russian history which he teaches at Tamalpais High School. In one semester, the students go from prehistoric Russia through Ivan the Terrible and to the present day.

Students Friday discussed an article "The Failure of Communism—and What it Portends" written by Oscar Handlin, Harvard history professor, for the Atlantic Monthly.

Beattie first asked a panel of four, headed by Bill Nelson, each a question on the article, then it was thrown open to class discussion. For the last five minutes Beattie summed up. A test will follow.

The panel, in the main, agreed that the 1961 party draft, as the 1936 new constitution, was to cover up economic failures in the Soviet Union. Students were candid in their opinions.

"I dislike this article," commented Vagadu Varda, "because it tries to compare modern day Russia with the West . . . I don't like his (Handlin's) use of words. They are too dramatic. The failure of Communism . . . it sounds as though they were on the rocks completely."

"I feel Communism has failed regardless of how the factory worker has gained," said Ken Robin. "The communists have to compromise to achieve these gains and compromise, according to Marx, is an impossibility."

Said Guy Howard: "The Russian government gives an excuse for whatever it does. They have compromised. The Chinese consider themselves pure Marxists."

"Failure is a pretty strong word," claimed one student. "If you say Communism has failed because they have deviated from some of their basic premises you can say the same for Democracy. I don't think either has completely failed."

"They (Russians) have failed to do what they say should be done," said Robin.

"This is a trivial argument," commented Carole Kitchens. "Obviously they have in some ways compromised but I don't think that's the essence of the issue. The main thing right now is economic.

"It doesn't seem," she continued, "that there is anyone (in Russia) with any real initiative. It's so mechanical. They are not thinking this thing out. They wouldn't build a hotel in Burma that really looks like it would fit in Moscow. There doesn't seem to be anybody steering."

Allison Hood suggested Russia is number one in space power but doesn't care much about consumer goods. "You can't say the Soviet Union has failed on the world scene . . . they live for working. They live for their country. They don't care how they dress as long as they are first in everything."

"I don't think there is such a vast difference between the U.S. and Russia," commented Howard. Chuck Collins concurred saying "the two societies are leaning toward each other. I doubt if their society would be able to survive at all if their average living standard comes up to us."

"It will be interesting to see what occurs as Russia's standard of living rises," Beattie said.

TAIL TWISTER FOR CHAMARITA

Tony Brazil of Muir Beach, littlest cowboy in Sausalito Saturday, was in training for his own version of "bull-dogging" as he helped keep order among the livestock at IDESST auction to raise funds for the Chamarita, Portuguese festival of the Holy Ghost which will be held next Saturday and Sunday. One calf was auctioned over and over again at the event, with some cattle donated to be butchered for the dinner that will be a part of the festival. A parade at 9:30 a.m. Sunday from IDESST Hall will highlight the celebration, followed by 10:30 a.m. Mass at Star of the Sea Church. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

Large Crowd At Holy Ghost Fete In Novato

The largest crowd in the history of the Novato Holy Ghost celebration attended the festival yesterday, said Manuel Brazil, president of the Portuguese Society in Novato. More than 1,000 meals were served.

People came from all over Marin, Sonoma and Contra Costa counties, and some from as far away as Santa Clara, Brazil said.

The parade formed at the IDESI Hall on Sweetzer Avenue at 9:30 a.m. and marched up to Our Lady of Loretto church on Novato Boulevard, where the queens were crowned. Refreshments and dancing were held all day at the IDESI Hall.

"I want to thank all the people who assisted in making this the bigegst celebration yet," Brazil said.

Wrong-way Car: 3 Hurt

A 17-year old motorist was cited for driving on the wrong side of the road after a head-on auto crash yesterday on Highway 101 south of the San Rafael Overhead which sent three persons to hospitals.

Cited in the San Rafael accident was Louis Joseph Boss of 1228 Grand Avenue, San Rafael. He suffered forehead cuts, received emergency treatment at San Rafael General Hospital and was released from Kaiser Foundation Hospital in San Francisco after further treatment there.

Also injured were Joseph C. Granville, 64, and Elizabeth Lupp, 76, both of 15 Maple Avenue, Kentfield. She was reported in fair to good condition today at San Rafael General Hospital, with face cuts and other injuries. Granville was sent home after examination.

The California Highway Patrol reported Boss, southbound in a pickup truck, crossed the center line and slammed into Granville's northbound car, sending it slithering onto the island between the highway and the San Rafael turnoff, where it slammed into a light standard.

A chain-reaction three-car accident on highway 101 about one-half mile south of the blackpoint cutoff injured three persons about 7:25 p.m. yesterday.

A southbound car driven by Phyllis Ehrlich, 35, of Daly City hit the stopped car of Marley E. Tavenner, 53, of 157 Tumboldt Street, San Rafael. It in turn, hit a stopped car driven by Leandro J. Molinari, 60, of San Francisco.

Three in the Ehrlich car were to be treated by a private physician: Jules, 11, with mouth injuries, and Marla, 7, with a forehead bump, children of Mrs. Ehrlich, and Isaac Pritikin, 69, of San Francisco, with an injured right elbow.

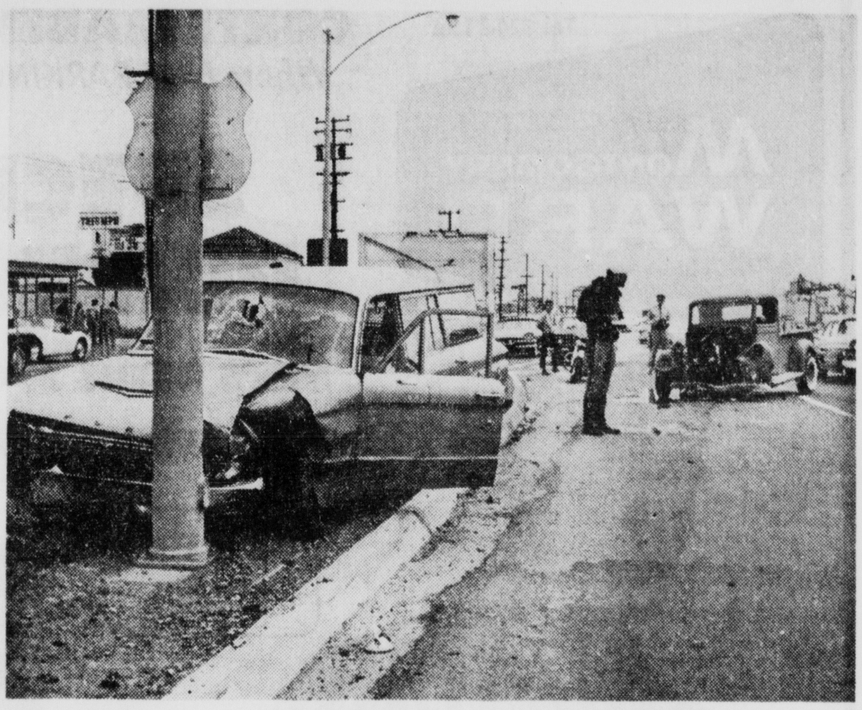
A San Rafael woman was dragged by the car her husband was driving for at least 65 feet Saturday before he could stop the vehicle, according to San Rafael police.

Mrs. Earlene Chupco of the Wilkins Hotel was taken to San Rafael General Hospital but then refused treatment for skin burns and bruises, according to hospital officials.

James Leroy Chupco told police he was driving out of the city parking lot at Third and A streets at 1:20 p.m. when his wife ran in front of his car to attempt to stop him. He said they had just argued in their hotel room.

His wife's dress caught in the front chrome strip of the car, he said. Police estimated that he drove from 65 to 100 feet before stopping.

John Mollett Gallagher, 42, of 412 Jewell Street, San Rafael, was treated for a cut chin at San Rafael General Hospital last night after an automobile accident on the Miracle Mile and then booked in county jail by San Rafael police on a charge of drunken driving.



WRONG-WAY — The pickup truck facing north (right) was southbound when it crossed into the wrong lane of Highway 101 yesterday and slammed into the northbound car seen against light standard (left) according to California Highway Patrolman Richard Topham, making out his on-the-scene report.

Gallagher, was driving west on Fourth Street when he hit the parked car of Willard Roswell Cox Jr., in front of Cox's home at 2036 Fourth Street at 9:22 p.m., police reported.

A 16-year-old San Rafael girl was injured yesterday at 11:55 a.m. when the car she was driving hit a power pole on Grand Avenue between Locust and Mountain View avenues.

Belinda Fries of 1654 Grand Avenue told police that she lost control of her car when she leaned down to pick something up off the floor.

She was in "satisfactory" condition today at San Rafael General Hospital with a cut face, scraped knee and bruised jaw and chest.

Vernon Allen Friend III, 11, of 12 Charlotte Drive, San Rafael, was treated for a broken collar bone Saturday at San Rafael General Hospital after the bicycle he was riding collided with a car at Canal and Sonoma streets in San Rafael at 2:43 p.m.

San Rafael police said the boy had trouble shifting gears on his new bicycle and headed into the intersection where a car driven by Daniel Basaric of 28 Gomez Way, Mill Valley, struck him.

Lois Mae Fisherbaugh, 25, of 78 Novato Street, San Rafael, was treated for a cut right knee yesterday at San Rafael General Hospital after the car she was driving hit an air compressor at Canal and Medway Road, San Rafael, at 3:47 a.m.

Mrs. Fisherbaugh told police she fell asleep at the wheel. She was cited for driving on the wrong side of the road and for not having her driver's license in her possession.

James Reynolds, 18, of 2111 Centro East Street, Tiburon, suffered a cut knee about 6:24 p.m. Saturday in the head-on collision of his motorcycle with a car in Corte Madera.

Lloyd Christie, 59, of 21 Morningside Drive, San Anselmo, suffered face cuts early today when his car hit a parked car on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, causing it to damage two other parked cars.

Christie was treated at Marin General Hospital after the crash about 4:15 a.m.

He was eastbound when he drove into the parked car of Arthur Erman of 1033 Sir Francis Drake, Kentfield, said California highway patrolmen Vincent Weimer and Richard Treadwell. The Erman car hit the car of Lawrence Wilson, 116 Jordan Avenue, San Anselmo, and it hit the car of Barbara Hofmann, 1031 Sir Francis Drake, Kentfield.

Sergeant Hurt In Auto Accident

S/Sgt. Jack M. White, 22, of the 78th Supply Squadron, was unconscious in Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital this morning from injuries received in an accident about 5 a.m. in Petaluma.

White, who lives in Petaluma, was driving south on Petaluma Boulevard about 290 feet south of Petaluma Creek when his car rolled for 250 feet, the California Highway Patrol reported.

White was taken to Petaluma General Hospital and transferred to Hamilton Air Force Base hospital. The CHP said details of why White's car overturned and left the road were lacking.

Hub Mother To Hospital

Mrs. Katherine Baylis, 22, of San Anselmo, mother of two, was taken to Napa State Hospital for 72-hour observation yesterday.

Deputy Sheriff Arthur V. Menjou said she suffered minor wrist slashes, apparently self-inflicted.

Mrs. Baylis, who lives with her husband and children at 404 San Francisco Boulevard, called San Anselmo police, who in turn notified the sheriff because the home is outside the city limits.

Radio System Is Cut From Novato Budget

A two-way radio system for the city of Novato was cut from the proposed 1963-64 budget last night by the Novato City Council.

City Administrator J. Julien Baget asked $3,225 to set up a radio system for the city. The council cut the request to $1,000.

Baget afterward said the city may be able to tie in with the North Marin County Water District's two-way radio.

The council cut the estimate of cost of heat and lights for new city buildings from $3,500 to $3,000.

Although former Mayor Wayne Womack, now president of the chamber of commerce, had asked for an increase to $7,500 in the city's budget for the chamber, it was left at $4,550. The garden club was allotted $360 a year to water the trees on Grant Avenue.

The Monte Maria Community Services District budget was tentatively approved as submitted last week by E. D. King, president of the Monte Maria Improvement Assn. It calls for a cut from $1840 to $1,630. This will make a reduction in the tax rate for that district from 45 to 35 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The building inspection department budget was cut from $37,050 requested to $33,965. Biggest single cut here came in eliminating one car. The council approved an assistant building inspector at $7,170 per year.

The council adjourned to its regular meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Ex-Rail Agent Found Dead

Edward Elijah Bower, 74, a retired passenger agent for Canadian National Railways, was found dead this morning in bed at his Kentfield home.

A bachelor, Bower was a resident of Marin County for 25 years and made his home at 4 Acacia Avenue.

Coroner Frank J. Keaton said Bower had complained of severe abdominal pains for the past two days but refused to see a doctor. He may have been suffering from cancer of the intestine, the coroner reported. An autopsy was to be performed today at Chapel of the Hills in San Anselmo, where the body was taken.

A neighbor, Louis Cheesewright, of 6 Acacia Avenue called the sheriff at 7 a.m. today. Sgt. Joseph E. Mooney and Deputy Raymond Tschirgi found Bower in bed with a magazine on the bed as if the victim had been reading. The light next to the bed was still burning.

Cheesewright told officers he saw Bower alive about 11:30 last night.

Showman Presides Over The Pumps

Coburn packs a pistol most of the time while at work. He explains that it's a hobby with him. A former professional marksman, Coburn keeps pistols handy at his station so he can practice shooting during idle moments.

"Too many people fail in business because they don't mix showmanship with it," he adds.

SUPERVISORS TO TAKE UP FAIR HOUSING PROPOSAL

Fair housing, a transportation study and completion of the Civic Center are among recommended programs which will be proposed tomorrow to the Marin County Board of Supervisors by members of the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Development of Marin County.

The committee was created in 1957, under fereral regulations for eligibility for redevlopment funds, with the purpose of reporting to the board on "matters which may affect Marin County, with particular attention to prevention of blight."

Since its last report in 1962, only two meetings have been held.

"This inadequate performance is due to repeated failure of the majority of the membership to participate actively," members Ernest Schallinger and Helen R. Anderson stated in a letter to the board.

Although deploring the committee's inability to make an official report, Schallinger and Mrs. Anderson said these matters need "serious" attention:

Fair housing opportunities for all Marin Citizens, with the suggested reactivation of the Marin County committee on Racial Discrimination.

Adoption as soon as possible of a time-table for completion of all phases of the Civic Center.

The board, which meets at 9 a.m. in the Civic Center, will also hear reports from the county medical department on responsibilities involving hospital and nursing home patients and from administrator Alan Bruce on current county costs for mental health programs.

A report on regional planning will be heard at 11 a.m. from the Assn. of Bay Area Governments.

The supervisors will meet again Wednesday to interview applicants for the job of chief county building inspector.

They will discuss the 1962 grand jury report Wednesday afternoon.

Five Due Interviews For Inspection Post

Five applicants, all out-of-county residents, will be interviewed Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. by the Marin County Board of Supervisors for the job of chief county building inspector.

The top five men were selected last Thursday by a personnel interview board. They were among 11 applicants semi-finalists of a total 45 who applied for the job.

Applicants who will be interviewed by the Board of Supervisors are Hans Berge of Oakland, C. Robert Bowman of Hayward, John Atkins of Merced, and William Hess and Robert Krueger of Fresno.

They will be competing for the job vacated by Otto H. Meyer, who resigned two months ago. Salary range for the new position will be from $871 to $955 a month.

The finalists were selected by a board including Norman B. Campbell, business representative of the Marin Council of Carpenters; E. Douglas Roberts of the Marin Builders Exchange; Ernest Friberg of the Associated Home Builders of Marin; Michael Scimens, chief of building services for Sacramento County, and R. J. Kraintz, Contra Costa County building inspector.

Wisconsin Plans For Big Cheese

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — The Wisconsin Cheesemakers Assn. has asked the legislature to spend $35,000 to help pay for a 24,000-pound cheddar cheese for display at the World's Fair in New York next year.

The cheese—nine and one-half feet in diameter and seven feet high—would be billed as the world's largest.

It would be made in Denmark—Wisconsin, that is.

Good Customers

CHICAGO (UPI) — In 1961, railroads used 3,382,000,000 gallons of diesel oil, 93,570,000 gallons of fuel oil, and 1,625,000,000 kilowatt hours of electricity to power their locomotives, reports the Assn. of Western Railways.

Marinites Becoming School Teachers

Albert D. Mahood, 104 Garden Avenue, and Claude P. Joyce Jr., 2160 Elderberry Lane, both of San Rafael, will be among 69 new public school teachers and administrators taking the state oath of allegiance tomorrow evening at the University of San Francisco.

Watch Your Money

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Secret Service reports the public lost more than a half million dollars because of counterfeit money in fiscal 1962. The T-men say $20 bills are currently the most frequently counterfeited.

Subdivision Maps On Tap In Novato

Subdivision maps will be the main items before the Novato Planning Commission when it meets at 8 p.m. today in the community house.

A tentative map for Seabreeze Hills Unit 3, submitted by Seabreeze Construction Co., asks for a division of 46 acres in Loma Verde into 62 lots.

A tentative map of Jade Gardens of six lots on two acres north of Vallejo Avenue has been submitted by McGillicuddy, Inc. Gus Ravetz is asking approval for a tentative map of Redwood Gardens of four lots on five acres between Cerro Vista Unit 3 and Highway 101. A tentative map for Holiday Park Unit 1 of 37 lots on 14 acres has been submitted for the area adjacent to Forest Park Unit 3, by Sequoia Savings and Loan Assn.

L. J. Peterson is asking approval to divide three acres at 752 McClay Road into three lots. Harte Construction Co. is submitting a preliminary map of two lots on 22,000 square feet on Hayden Avenue.

Edgar J. Garavatti seeks rezoning from limited agricultural to multiple family of one and one-half acres on Dusel Court across from Hamilton Air Force Base. George Schilling seeks rezoning from administrative-professional to general commercial of one acre at Court Road and George Avenue.

Youths Hit Sheriff's Car With Bottles

Between 10 and 15 Marin City youths pelted a sheriff's office car Saturday at 11:30 p.m. with bottles and rocks when it pulled up at Drake Avenue and Cole Drive to disperse a crowd.

Occupants of the car, Deputy James L. Current and Reserve Deputy David Salkeld, said the car was not damaged. They were unable to catch the youths.

Memphis Told To Desegregate Parks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court today ordered the city of Memphis to immediately begin desegregating its parks, libraries and museums. It also said in strong language that Southern communities are moving too slowly in integrating their schools.

The unanimous decision rejected a Memphis proposal for gradually opening its park and recreation facilities to white and Negroes alike. The city had claimed this was permissible under the "all deliberate speed" doctrine set out by the court in its keystone 1955 school edict.

Speaking for the court, Justice Arthur J. Goldberg held that Constitutional rights of Negroes were being violated by the delay and that desegregation should be started "promptly."

Goldberg then used the Memphis case as a springboard to prod states which maintain segregated schools on the theory that integration can be achieved gradually under the "deliberate speed" policy.

He said the high court in using those words in its 1955 decision "never contemplated" that they would allow "indefinite delay in elimination of racial barriers in schools."

In other major actions today, the court:

Rejected a claim by Gov. George C. Wallace that President John F. Kennedy had acted illegally by sending federal troops into Alabama during the recent racial violence in Birmingham. The court issued a one-paragraph opinion dismissing the governor's complaint that Kennedy had violated the federal and Alabama state constitutions.

Granted a hearing to Dion T. Diamond, who was convicted of disturbing the peace when he encouraged students at Southern University at East Baton Rouge, La., to boycott their classes in 1962.

Let stand a lower court ruling that allows Negroes suing for integrated schools in Clarendon County, S.C., to act as a group rather than individually.

Denied a hearing to Carlos Marcello, New Orleans racketeer, who has been fighting deportation for more than 10 years.

Agreed to decide next term whether acquisition of Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corp. by El Paso Natural Gas Co. is permissible under the antitrust laws.

In rejecting the Wallace suit, the court said the governor's complaint showed "no more than that the President has made ready to exercise the authority conferred on him by (federal law) by alerting and stationing military personnel in the Birmingham area."

"Such purely preparatory measures . . . afford no basis for the granting of any relief," the court said.

In the Memphis case, Goldberg flatly turned down the city's argument that the "deliberate speed" doctrine for schools could be extended to other desegregation areas.

Man Suspected Of Beating Wife

Howard Smith, 25, of 240 Liberty Road, Petaluma, was booked in Marin County Jail last night on suspicion of beating his wife at the Spaletta Ranch in North Marin.

Mrs. Helen Margaret Smith told sheriff's deputies they had a spat last Friday. Yesterday she took her two children and went to the home of her mother, Edith Spaletta, at 6701 Redhill Road.

She said Smith came to the ranch and beat her. Her brother, John Paul Spaletta, 19, ran out with an unloaded rifle in an effort to stop the fight, then called the sheriff at 9:15 last night.

Smith was freed on $472 bail.

Road Foggy But 'Tamalpa' In Sun

Playgoers used their car lights to find their way through fog to attend yesterday's 50th Mountain Play, "Tamalpa," at Sidney Cushing Memorial Theater on Mount Tamalpais. Then, walking down over the razor back, they found themselves in bright sunshine to picnic and view the play.

There were 4,600 people attending, according to David Ohman, publicity chairman, or 600 above that of the previous Sunday's production.

Only oddity that Ohman witnessed, he said, was that during the intermission names of 18 people were called out who had left their car lights on at the foggy mountain parking space.

Boy, 11, Treated For Burned Hands

Lee Shepherd, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Shepherd of 229 Clorinda Avenue, San Rafael, was treated for second and third degree burns on his hands yesterday at San Rafael General Hospital.

Mrs. Shepherd said her son fell from a tall tree he was climbing in their yard shortly after 11 a.m. and grabbed an electric wire on his way down.

Will CTA Turn Sanctions Into Just Election Gimmick?

In the May 10 issue of "CTA Action," publication of the California Teachers Association, an editorial hails the "ousting" of two trustees in the Little Lake Elementary School District of Southern California as a "victory for teachers everywhere."

Perhaps it was; we don't know. But we do recall that Little Lake is where the CTA has invoked a year or so ago its new sanctions policy in which it blackballs a school district with all teacher-hiring agencies and thus, so the claim goes, forces a district to improve the teaching situation in the schools.

The editorial said this:

"The Little Lake vote proved that when teachers have a legitimate grievance and effectively explain it to the community, they can win their battle.

"It proved that parents knew top education could not be offered in a strife-ridden system and that they would listen to teachers (and courageous principals, too, in Little Lake), who were willing to put jobs and future on the line to spotlight their problem.

"It proved that CTA's sanction policy can be a powerful instrument in calling national attention to a shameful situation and in rallying local forces to solve it.

"It proved that sanctions will be effective only when the local teachers association and community join forces to alleviate the problem. Despite charges from the defeated trustees, CTA's stand was always one of pointing out the need for better conditions, but letting the community take action.

"It proved that teachers now have a potent method of drawing attention to intolerable conditions while continuing to meet their prime responsibilities in the classrooms, not disrupting children's education."

But what it proved most of all, in our estimation, is that the democratic method of solving a problem is to go to the voters with it, not to cut off the supply of teachers.

From the tone of the editorial, the CTA seems to be turning to sanctions, which they call more "professional" than the strike, as an election gimmick, a device to call attention to a situation rather than to cure it.

If so, that is all to the good. A short-lived sanctions, used only to call attention to a situation for political purposes, is one thing. A lengthy sanctions, designed to deplete the teaching staff to a point where poor education will bring a demand for a change, is something else again.

Now that the CTA has won in Little Lake, we wonder how many years it will take to counteract all the bad publicity the sanctions have brought on that school district?

And, incidentally, have the sanctions been lifted?

'YOU MEAN YOU GIVE UP ALL THIS SECURITY?'

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Novato Council Hotly Criticized

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I seem to recall having read that people deserve the type of government they get. After what has happened in Novato I am sure of the truth of this statement. The City Council of Novato refused in the aftermath of a small child almost drowning to exercise the police powers available. There was no action taken against those responsible for permitting the hazardous conditions to exist and nothing to indicate that future conditions of this type would be acted upon in a manner to protect the public.

Like many of my neighbors I had no knowledge of those persons running for City Council nor did I attempt to find out who or what they stood for. I just voted for those names that seemed most familiar and were incumbents on the Council. I had no problems and the city appeared to be running smoothly.

Now it appears that we have no representation in the operation of the city of Novato. Repeated attempts to have city employees responsible for the protection and safety of the residents to take action failed to have any result in correcting the hazards to the health and safety of the children in St. Francis Heights left by the construction work of John Novak. The fact that in a matter of half an hour these conditions were corrected to remove the immediate hazard shows that our complaints were not unreasonable and only what was absolutely necessary was asked.

After attending my first (but definitely not my last) City Council meeting I was appalled at the "do nothing" attitude encountered. I urge every person in Novato who does not know exactly "who or what" is representing him to attend the Novato City Council meeting on May 28 and find out. From the experience of the residents of our tract you may learn that you also are not being represented in the City and that your protection under the police powers would be as nonexistent as ours proved to be. Any condition such as has existed and continues to exist in our tract can likewise suddenly appear in your own back yard. This is what has aroused the anger of residents in St. Francis Heights and what is needed in Novato is several thousand additional angry people in order to secure the protection and action of our elected officials. Be the city's guests on May 28 and get angry.

Tam Student Vote Is Not Forced

Independent-Journal:

Recently there have been two articles in the Independent-Journal which stipulated that voting in student government elections at Tamalpais High School has been compulsory or "forced." I think that this illusion should be corrected.

The first article to appear was on Friday, May 10 and used excerpts and quotations from the article submitted to the Independent-Journal by the high school. The student who originally wrote the article used the word "forced" in quotation marks. It is unfortunate that one of our students who was fully familiar with our voting system would imply that voting was "forced," but it should be noted that the true semantics of the word are not to be taken for granted.

The second article to appear in the Independent-Journal used the word "compulsory," and I seriously doubt that one of our students used that word.

To clarify the whole matter, never has any student been forced to vote; i.e., no one has ever stood over any other student and made him fill out a ballot and submit said ballot to be counted. In the past, everyone has been given a ballot and those individuals who wish to vote have been given an opportunity during class time to do so.

This semester's polling system was altered to the extent that the poll was not taken during regular class time and only those students who wished to vote were given a ballot. It was found that this new system worked much better with the tally being taken and the results published within an hour and a half. Over 87 per cent of the student body voted.

To reiterate what I have already said, never has any Tamalpais High School student been forced to vote in any election. The choice to vote or not has always been left up to the student.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

BETTER MENUS FOR PETS

Pet food sales have zoomed to a present 580 million dollars a year as against 160 million dollars in 1960.

This extraordinary rise has taken place even though the dog and cat population of 51 million has increased less than 5 per cent over the same period.

Manufacturers are actively competing for the ever-growing market with a variety of new products. The pet foods they feature are made from horse meat, beef and pork trimmings, fish, vitamins, grains and many other ingredients.

Never before in history have so many animals been so well fed. And few would begrudge them this advantage.

God expects us to make an even greater effort to provide the necessities of life for countless hungry people here and over the world.

Most of them have no one to plead their cause. You can do it for them.

"I was hungry and you gave Me to eat."
(Matthew 25:35)

Teach us, O Lord, to show a practical concern for those who suffer from chronic hunger.

Careful Preparations Safely Carried Astronaut Cooper To Second Floor

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)—In addition to having the astronauts to cheer about, we also can be proud of the dedicated young men who operate the elevators in the U.S. Capitol.

If such statistics were available, I believe they would show that your chances of getting where you want to go in a Capitol elevator are almost as good as they are in a space capsule.

When astronaut L. Gordon Cooper visited the Capitol to address a joint meeting of Congress, elaborate precautions were taken to make certain the elevator he rode in was functioning properly.

You can imagine the embarrassment it would have caused if his spectacular 22-orbit mission into space had been climaxed by Cooper getting stalled in an elevator.

The Russians would never have let us forget it.

The elevator countdown began several hours before Cooper was scheduled to arrive. Technicians carefully checked over the engine room equipment and then stood by in case trouble developed. Approximately T-minus-20, an inspector from the elevator company rode up and down several times to make certain that everything was shipshape in the capsule.

The mission of lifting Cooper from the street level to the second floor, a vertical distance of some 15 feet, was carried out by David Muchow, 18, of Winter Haven, Fla.

DAVID RUNS an elevator to help pay his expenses at Georgetown University here. He has only been in training since last August, but it is generally agreed that he is one of the most skilled and reliable operators at the Capitol.

"I wanted to take him up," Muchow told me in an exclusive interview, "so Gene let me substitute for him."

Eugene Buccelli, who normally runs the elevator at that hour, handed over the controls to Muchow and assumed the role of back-up operator.

AT ABOUT T-minus-5, a Secret Service man told Muchow to "freeze" the elevator on the street level and cut off the buzzer and signal lights. When the lift-up finally came, Muchow was ready.

"It was a real smooth ride," he said. "There wasn't a hitch at all."

"Were your nervous?" I asked.

"Not really," he said. "The Secret Service had thoroughly briefed me on the procedure. I never had any doubts that the mission would be a success."

It was the great Jewish humorist, Sholom Aleichem, who observed, "The only chance a poor man has for rejoicing is when he loses one of his pitiful possessions — then finds it again." He tells of one such character who recounted to a group of sympathizers how his wife and children were pursued by wolves over an icy lake, how the ice cracked, and sleigh and passengers sank without a trace. "Thanks to the Lord," concluded the narrator with a sigh, "there is one good feature to the story. It's a lie from beginning to end!"

The Missouri Bureau of Health has been looking into the death certificates filed by some of its registered doctors in the past year, and has come up with some weird notations therein. One doctor, for instance, solemnly gave as "cause of death," "The deceased went to bed feeling fine, but woke up dead." Another explained a patient's demise even more tersely. "He died suddenly; nothing serious." A third doctor had this to report: "Death induced by blow on the head with an axe. Contributory cause: another man's wife."

It's Tiburon Incorporation Time Again; Less Chance Than Usual

Last year, Tiburon's incorporation effort lacked the vitality to get to the point of an election—as it had been similarly lacking in previous attempts.

This year, it may get no chance. A "secret weapon" that was held in abeyance last time has already been brought out: the threat of annexation of the heart of Tiburon's future business district to the City of Belvedere.

WHEN BELVEDERE'S annexation proposal came before the county boundary commission, County Planning Director B. D. Dobbs objected. The effect of such annexations should be carefully studied before boundaries are approved, he contended. Annexations to cities are interfering with proper county planning, he claimed.

It would appear entirely possible that incorporation of Tiburon might be objectionable to Dobbs on the same grounds.

EITHER ANNEXATION or incorporation might have its benefits to the county, however.

Biggest headache in local government in California is created by its multiplicity of special districts serving unincorporated areas. In few other states, if any, will one find so many communities with populations in the thousands trying to govern themselves through their county boards plus a hodge-podge of special districts.

National City, a new publication of the National Municipal League, has some figures on this in its first issue. Within the last five years, it reports, 42 municipalities have incorporated in California, to bring the state's total to 373 cities. But during the same period, 312 special districts have been added, to hike the number of them to 1,962. (And this despite a statewide effort to reduce the number of school districts!)

IT WOULD BE interesting if the figures went farther to show the number of special districts eliminated by the 42 new cities. It might not be many. Only a county lighting district vanished when Novato incorporated, sanitary, water and fire districts remaining intact.

Only through either incorporation or annexation, however, would it appear possible to get rid of many of the special districts which now burden taxpayers with a species of government inefficiency by its very character.

THERE ARE THOSE who would do away with special districts and cities all at one fell swoop, creating "super" combined city-county governments.

Strangely, this idea is quite popular in Marin, despite the example across the Bay. The one such setup in the United States is the City and County of San Francisco. Its efficiency may be gauged from the fact that, although its assessed valuation per capita exceeds that to be found anywhere in Marin, its tax rate is nevertheless higher than the average total in this county.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Senate Is Obstacle To Test Ban Accord

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev are much closer to a nuclear test ban agreement than their public statements indicate.

In fact, they probably could reach an understanding without undue difficulty but for one towering obstacle — the certainty that such a treaty would encounter prolonged and bitter opposition in the Senate.

At present it is extremely doubtful whether the President could muster the two-thirds majority necessary to ratify a treaty along the lines of the draft under consideration in the White House for submission to the Soviet at the Geneva conference, that is now in recess.

Prominent in this critical group are Senator Richard Russell (D-Ga.), chairman of the Armed Services Committee; Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) and Sen. Henry Jackson (D-Wash.), chairman of the Interior Affairs Committee.

In a recent exchange of letters, the President indicated willingness to meet Khrushchev this summer on condition that a nuclear test ban agreement would be concluded.

While Khrushchev's reply left the door open for a summit conference, he raised the question of whether any pact that could be reached could gain the acquiescence of "your Congress." The Kremlin ruler made it clear he had strong misgivings on that.

This challenge explains the speeches that lately have suddenly erupted in the Senate vigorously urging a test agreement with the Soviet, and defending the administration's efforts and proposals to reach one.

Kennedy and Khrushchev have conducted an extended correspondence on the test ban issue. Revealing details are contained in a memorandum prepared by Ambassador Charles Stelle, chief U.S. negotiator at the Geneva conference. This backstage paper is circulating among senators favoring an accord with Russia.

Among the most significant disclosures is the assertion that as a result of the exchange of letters between the President and Khrushchev, "There now exists a new basis for agreement."

The memorandum gives no hint as to the contents of these letters—none of which has been made public. But Stelle spells out in some detail the complicated inspection formulas the U.S. is prepared to offer the Soviet.

The memorandum says:

"Each nuclear side would place reliance on its national detection station for the collection of seismic data, supplemented by the use of automatic seismic stations (blackboxes) . . . Under certain conditions related to the conduct of inspection, we would accept an annual quota (the number to be negotiated) of on-site inspections in the territory of each nuclear power."

A country would have up to 60 days from the time a seismic event occurred to designate it as an event "which it may later wish to inspect." The country whose territory would be inspected would have a week to volunteer any data on the suspected seismic event.

The government asking for the inspection could, during the same week, receive and examine data collected in the sealed boxes of automatic seismic stations on the territory of the country to be inspected. The U.S. wants eight such automatic seismic stations; Russia so far has held adamantly to not more than three.

Chorus Brings Out An Exalted Mood

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

A program of predominantly sacred music made up Saturday night's spring concert of the Marin Community Chorus directed by Dr. S. Drummond Wolff.

Despite its length and unvarying exalted mood, it seemed to hold the large audience at Marin Catholic High School enthralled from the opening coronation anthems by Handel through Mozart's Mass No. 1 in C and Vivaldi's "Gloria" to Wolff's own "Festival Te Deum Laudamus."

The explanation may have been partly the colorful sonority composed of a 90-voice chorus backed by percussion, trumpets, and organ played by Wolff, plus a superb quartet.

Especially in Wolff's concluding "Festival Te Deum Laudamus" — an inspiring work—did the whole chorus come alive. Possibly this was a psychological rising to the honor of presenting the American premier of the composition.

A successful blend was achieved in the quartet by the four voices of solo stature—no mean feat—but soprano Carole Bogard was outstanding because of her lovely vocal quality and consummate musicianship. The others singing well in duet combinations as well as quartet or solo were contralto Alice Taylor, tenor Kenneth Rowland and bass Byron Jones.

Soprano and altos were well balanced, but with 21 basses against 12 tenors, it was surprising that in the first half of the concert the bass part did not hold its own at times. In the last half this situation was improved.

Though Wolff is both a master organist and skilled choral director and his playing enhances the sonorous texture, his effectiveness as a director was doubled when he served this function. This was most noticeable in the heightened sensitivity of the chorus's response to his direction in the unaccompanied portions of Vivaldi's "Gloria" and his own work.

The trumpets added to the tonal color, but performance was of an uneven level.

Six Die As 14 Vehicles Hit On Turnpike

ELIZABETH, N.J. (AP) — Six persons perished early today when 14 vehicles piled up in dense fog on the New Jersey Turnpike.

Five of the victims were dead at the scene. A sixth died three hours later at St. James Hospital in Newark.

About 10 persons were injured, one of them critically.

Police would not speculate on the cause of the accidents beyond blaming the fog.

Gauthier, driving a truckload of fish from Detroit to New York, said he never saw the wreckage in front of him.

He told newsmen he drove into a fog bank and the last thing he saw was the brake lights of another truck just before plowing into the pile. He suffered minor head and hand cuts and was released after treatment.

The pileup occurred about 3:15 a.m. in the northbound lanes. Traffic was tied up for several hours.

Twelve trucks and two cars were involved in the smashups.

San Rafael firemen turned off a fire hydrant at 3:20 a.m. yesterday which police said had been turned on by vandals near 13 Deer Park Road. Water partially flooded the street.

Art, Concert Program Set In Ross On Thursday

The Marin Art and Garden Center will join with the Festival of Performing Arts in presenting an extensive program of entertainment by Marin County's many artists in dance, music and drama at the center in Ross on Memorial Day, Thursday.

For the past two years the center has sponsored an all-day "open house" starting with Memorial Day observances and including entertainment by the center's founder and affiliate groups.

This year, the Festival of Performing Arts, will be in the Art and Garden Center for the first time and its program will be combined and synchronized with that of the Center.

"The day will serve to point up the cultural purposes of the center as a community project," Mrs. Norman B. Livermore, center president said today.

The gates will open at 9:30 a.m. The entrance fee will include concerts and performances by both the center's groups and the Festival of Performing Arts.

Flag raising ceremonies, followed by the dedication of the center's dawn redwood tree, will be held at 10:30 a.m.

Continuous entertainment from 11:45 a.m. until 5 p.m. will include the Winifred Baker Boys' Choir, and the Girls' Choir; Mimi Janislawski and Gene Malin, Flamenco dancer and classical guitarist; a "dance potpourri for children" directed by Dick Ford; the Magana Baptiste Dance Troups; excerpts from "Hit the Deck" by the Ross Valley Players; the Modern Dance Club of Palo Alto; the Stuart Highlanders Bagpipe Band, a concert by William Clark, pianist; Mia Phoebus, soprano; and Eugene Ramey, pianist; and Frank Oznowicz, puppeteer.

On Wednesday at 8 p.m. The Festival of Performing Arts will present a concert in the Barn at the center. Tickets will be available at the door.

On Thursday evening, the Festival of Performing Arts will present the classic film "Potemkin."

Purse Stolen

Theft of a purse, containing $15 and a $25 pin, from a car parked at Muir Woods National Monument was reported Friday to sheriff's deputies. Mrs. Georgianna Seal Cox of South Bend, Ind., said the purse was taken between 4:30 and 5:45 p.m.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne® is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

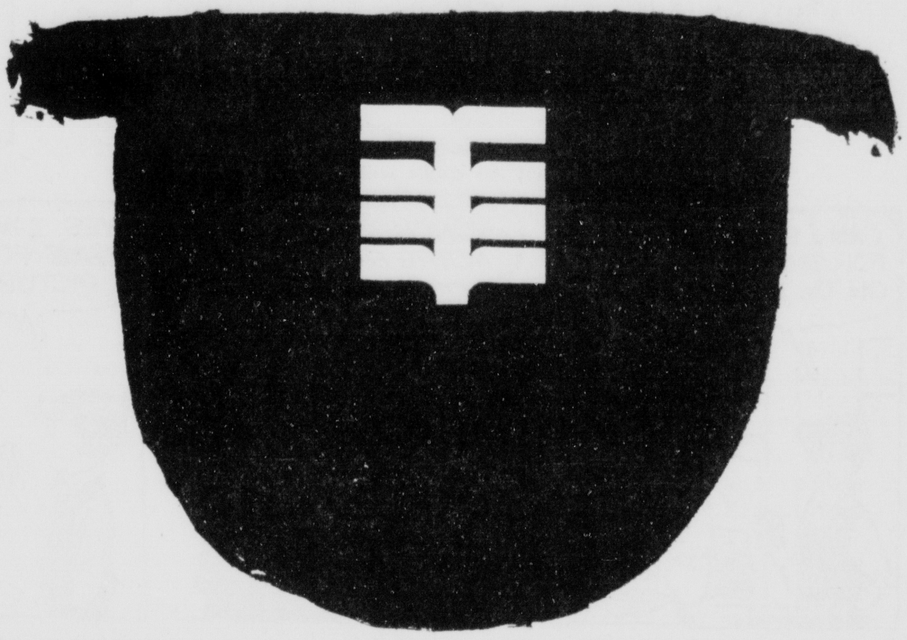
"WE'VE GOT OUR HAT IN OUR HANDS"



We're what's known in the business as a "small independent bank." That means we thrive on service, and must prove we really do care about what's going on in this community. Much like any small business you may know. Except our business is money. And people. And bringing them together. Our business is helping the county itself thrive. So we spend a lot of time thinking about how to do that best. We recently announced our newest way. Home improvement loans (to depositors) of upwards of $1500.00, at the county's lowest rate, 5%. If you are now a depositor, or are about to become one, then we can probably work out a loan that will save you at least 15% of your interest charges. (Most banks in the area are charging around 6% for home improvement loans.) It's another way we can show that we know what it's like to call for support once in a while. Our hat will always be in our hands. No matter what your financial need, stop in at Redwood for a few minutes. It's like, well, money in the bank.

Today's hand was bid to four spades at most tables of the national tournament in St. Louis a couple of months ago. West usually led a low heart, and East won.

If East returned a heart, dummy's queen became established and declarer could eventually discard a diamond on it.

If East shifted to the jack of diamonds at the second trick, South covered with the queen to force out the ace. Then East's ten of diamonds was trapped.

The best defense was found by Mrs. Toddy Ruther, of Chicago, who tips the scales at about 90 pounds and wouldn't hurt a fly unless it happened to be playing bridge against her. Mrs. Ruther returned the low diamond at the second trick.

South put up the king of diamonds, expecting the trumps to break 3-2. If so, he could afford to lose the ace of diamonds, for he could win the diamond return and draw trumps.

Then he would discard two diamonds from dummy on his extra clubs.

West won with the ace of diamonds and returned a diamond to the ten and queen. Now Mrs. Ruther's jack of diamonds was set up—exactly the reason for leading the low diamond at the second trick.

South then discovered that the trumps did not break normally. He had to lose a second diamond trick as well as the two hearts.

Yes, children, South could have played his low diamond at the second trick to force out West's ace.

But South didn't know this.

It was normal for South to put up a high diamond, and a good defender will let declarer hurt himself by his own normal play.

Giants Invade Cincy Tomorrow In Road Trip Opener

"A bad day . . . a bad day."

Thus did Jose Pagan, the San Francisco Giants' usually reliable shortstop, sum up the three errors he committed yesterday to help the Los Angeles Dodgers pull out a 4-3 victory in 10 innings.

"My arm dosn't hurt," the sturdy little Puerto Rican added. "But I wasn't picking the ball up right to make the throws."

After committing two wild heaves during the first nine frames, Pagan uncorked another in the 10th on a routine grounder hit by Jim Gilliam The latter sped to second base on the miscue then scored on Tommy Davis' single to center.

All told, Davis drove in three runs. He had batted a pair across in the fourth inning with a hard double that rolled to the left centerfield fence.

The Giants, who defeated Los Angeles 6-2 Saturday, now lead the Dodgers by two games as both teams head for the midwest. Juan Marichal of the Giants is slated to open against Jim O'Toole Tuesday night at Cincinnati while Sandy Koufax squares off against Milwaukee's Bob Hendley.

Both West Coast clubs are idle today.

Don Drysdale, now 6-4, went the route for Los Angeles yesterday while Manager Alvin Dark of the Giants used four hurlers. The final man to come on, Don Larsen, was the loser. His record dropped to 0-2 after he had taken over in the eighth inning and retired the side with the bases loaded by fanning pinchhitter Frank Howard on three pitches.

A crowd of 41,668, the largest at Candlestick Park this season, watched Jim Davenport open the Giants' first inning with a home run and then pick up three more hits, including a double before Drysdale made him ground out in the 10th to end the game.

Felipe Alou's 10th circuit smash of the year, a liner that skipped over the top of the left field fence, gave the Giants a 2-2 tie in the fourth after Davis had clubbed his two-run double.

Then a sacrifice fly by Tom Haller boosted the Giants into a 3-2 lead in the sixth but Los Angeles tied the game in the seventh when John Roseboro, who had doubled, scored on Pagan's throwing error.

The play was something of a mess. With Roseboro on second, pinchhitter Lee Walls hit back to relief pitcher Gaylord Perry who had come to the rescue of starter Jack Sanford. Perry threw the ball to second base instead of third, Pagan grabbed the toss and fired it past Davenport at third in a vain attempt to nail Roseboro who went all the way.

Drysdale gave up eight hits but didn't allow a score after the sixth frame and retired the last nine men to face him.

BATTING AROUND: Tommy Davis was thrown out trying to steal home in the fourth inning and joined coach Pete Reiser in beefing over umpire Ed Vargo's call . . . Drysdale pulled Davis away from the ump, softly explaining, "we need you, Tommy." . . . Billy Hoeft, the Giants' disabled lefthander, tried to loosen up his injured shoulder yesterday by pitching balls from the dressing room into the shower . . . "that's right," Willie Mays hollered, looking up from his reading, "break the place up . . ."

Chuck Dressen, a member of the Dodgers' brain trust, is about to scout American League games and see if there is anybody worth trading before the June 15 deadline . . . yesterday's turnout of 41,668 brought the total for the Dodgers-Giants three-game series to 122,202 . . . The two clubs have drawn a total of 266,380 this season for six games at Dodgers Stadium and Candlestick Flats . . . Second baseman Chuck Hiller, still recovering from a broken left hand, hurled batting practice for the Giants yesterday . . . Drysdale has no beefs about pitching in gusty Candlestick Park . . . "The breeze keeps me fresh," he said. "But the tough part is that you bear down to stop hitters like Mays, Cepeda and McCovey and then Davenport belts a homer off you . . . Jim is a good hitter, too."

Giants Prove They're The Best, Should Coast To Another Pennant

CONNOLLY

Wrap it up — The 1963 National League championship for the San Francisco Giants. Betwixt and between now and next October they may stammer, stumble and fumble but just as sure as little green apples they'll be on top in October.

All of the contending teams have appeared at Candlestick Park and anyone with a half an ounce of baseball intelligence has to admit the Giants are head and heels over the field.

They may not be the smartest club in the National League but in all around ability they are the best. They give away more games than they lose, but they overpower the field and makeup in sheer power for what they lack in brightness.

The Giants may not have the best balanced pitching staff but it is good enough, with the kind of hitting they get, to overcome all of their short comings in other departments.

If anybody analyzed Candlestick Park and then tried to pick out a club to fit the layout, they couldn't do a better job.

Travelling on two cylinders, lacking the help of their ace hitter, Willie Mays, the Giants, without a competent second hacker, have still been able to keep in front of the pack. With the return soon of Chuck Hiller and the fond hopes that Willie Mays will catch on fire, the team really has proved itself as a fighting, hustling and daring aggregation.

ALVIN DARK, the sometimes misunderstood skipper, has been sharp and alert in the past two weeks. He has distinguished himself in the moves he makes and the changes he insists upon as a true manager. I sometimes have disagreed with Alvin but I'm forced to shake his duke and say he has done a good job.

But to get back to fielding a team that fits Candlestick Park. Where could anybody want for a nicer outfielding layout with Felipe Alou rating as tops of all rightfielders; Willie Mays being the ace of centerfielders and Willie McCovey as the sluggingest leftfielder in the business with a study, reliable and smart backstop in Harvey Kuenn. That outfield combination belongs in windy Candlestick Park. They're tops.

McCOVEY MAY not be impressive in leftfield, especially when he has to handle ground balls, but he is ample on fly balls and his bat offsets any misgivings he might have in a fielding way.

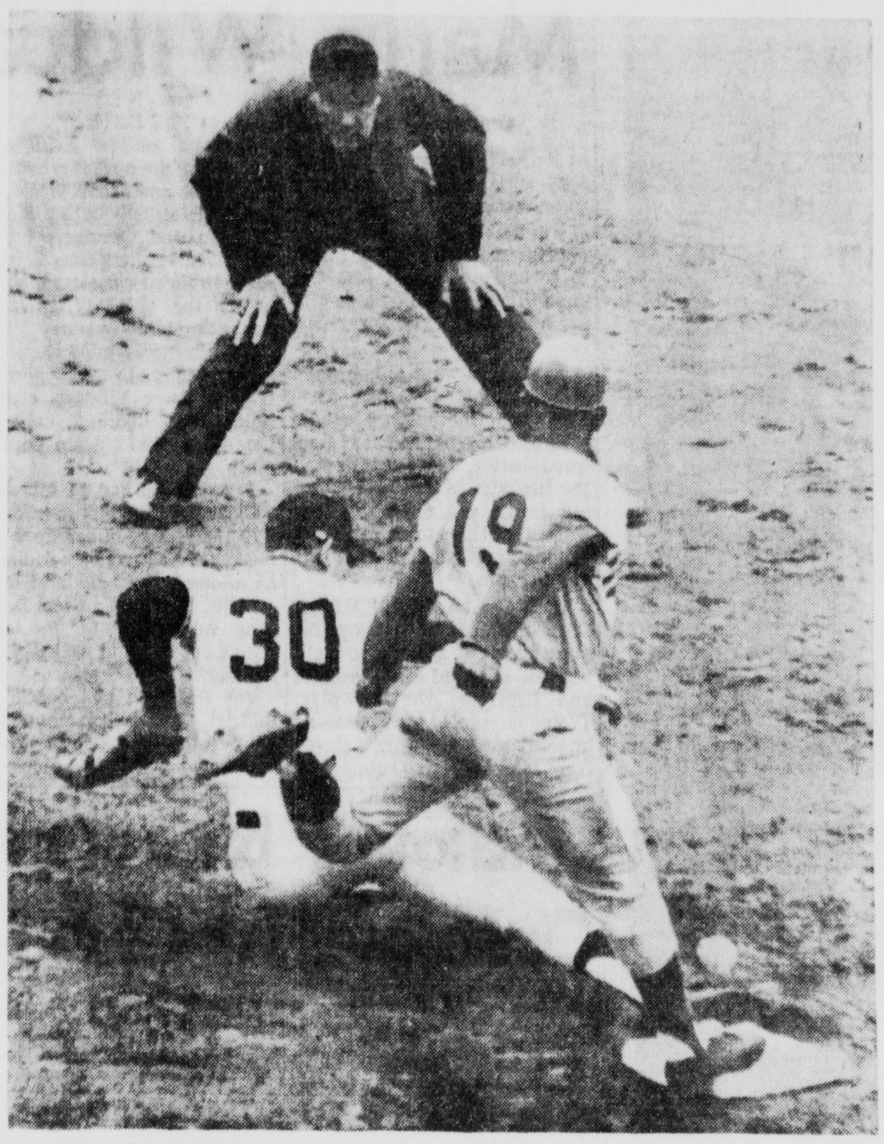
Go on down the infield from first base to third base and tuck in Chuck Hiller at second and I'm sure you'll admit there is no other setup in the league better equipped.

You have to give Willie Mays a minus batting mark as of NOW but he'll recover pretty soon. I'll admit Jose Pagan has made more errors in the first 40 games than he did all last year. Where he was strong last season—throwing—he is weak now. But they're fiddling around with that infield and it makes a big difference.

Even with two sick performers like Mays and Hiller the Giants have sparkled at times, and looked awful on occasions.

LOSING THE odd game to the Dodgers yesterday was an accident. And it just proves that you may take the boy out of the country, but you can't take the hick out of the boy. Gaylord Perry proved that in helping give the final game away to the Dodgers. He pitched brilliantly and deserved to win but he made an elementary mistake that cost the game. The Giants should have been in the barn with a 3 to 2 score but woundup losing 4 to 3. Yet they got a big break by a stupid call when Tommy Davis stole home and was called out.

Today the Giants leave for a 15-day road schedule that finds them meeting Cincy, St. Louis, Chicago, Houston and L.A. in a 15-game spread. They should come home at least five games in front and then coast the rest of the way to their second straight championship.



STRETCHES, MISSES — Giant first baseman Orlando Cepeda stretches and misses wide throw from shortstop Jose Pagan as Dodgers' Jim Gilliam races across bag in fourth inning. Three Pagan errors enabled Dodgers to score 4-3 victory yesterday. (AP Wirephoto)

Marin Catholic '9' Wins Prep Tourney Title Over Redwood

By RALPH CHATOIAN

The Marin Catholic baseball team has the Marin Athletic League Tournament championship flag safely tucked away today, but it took quite a fight to get it.

By way of a successful squeeze play in the bottom of the 11th inning Saturday night, the Wildcats nipped the Redwood High School nine 5-4 in the tourney championship

After five scoreless innings in what started out as a pitchers' duel between Marin Catholic's Dave Beswick and Redwood's Scott Murphy, the Wildcats broke the ice in the botgame at Albert Field before about 200 prep baseball fans. tom of the sixth with two runs.

Then Redwood came back in the top of the seventh with four big runs and it looked like all was over. But the Wildcats, with their backs to the door in the last inning with a runner on first and two down, cashed in on a double play by second baseman Jim Langbehn and a single by left fielder Pat Murray to knot the game at 4-4 and send it into extra innings.

In the bottom of the 11th, Beswick led off the inning with a fly ball that bounced past Redwood right fielder Steve Minutoli for a double. He was trying to stretch it into a triple and stumbled between second and third, but a high relay throw from shortstop Pat Puccinelli to the third sacker enabled Beswick to slide safely into third.

Mike Pometta was sent in to run for Beswick who had gone the entire route for the Wildcats on the mound, striking out 19 Giant batters. Then the next batter, first baseman Hank Ryan, laid down a perfect bunt and Pometta raced home for the winning run.

Marin Catholic scored its first two runs on a single by Langbehn, a sacrifice by Murray, and errors by Murphy and Puccinelli. But Redwood came back

Maury Wills To Remain Out Of Dodger Lineup

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Maury Wills, the record-breaking base burglar of last season, has come up with a nearly literal "Achilles heel" that will keep him out of the lineup for a while.

The Los Angeles Dodger shortstop who stole 104 bases last year remained here for deep X-ray therapy today as his club winged toward Milwaukee for a 12-game road trip.

Dodger physician Dr. Robert Kerlan said Wills has "a calcification of a joint in his second toe of his left foot." Kerlan said it will depend on how well the treatment takes to tell when Wills can play again.

Wills turned his left ankle on opening day this season and he slowly returned to his basestealing form after being caught stealing once. He swiped 11 consecutive sacks before being nabbed.

Kerlan said the player's recent condition didn't respond to injections, so the X-ray treatment was begun yesterday.

Fastest Field Set For 500-Mile Race

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The field is so fast for the 500-mile auto race Thursday that former winner Troy Ruttman will start in last place in the 33-car field.

Two weekends of wind-swept qualifying produced a line-up of 28 veterans and five newcomers who averaged 149.028 miles per hour in the 10-mile runs, against a record of 147.330 last year and 145.302 in '61.

Parnelli Jones' May 18 record of 151.153 never was seriously challenged.

The trials that ended yesterday brought out a seven-car challenge to the old reliable Offenhausers which have won all of the Memorial Day Classics since Maury Rose took the checkered flag in a Blue Crown Offy in 1947.

It was an Offy that powered Jones to his record, however.

Al Miller, a 39-year-old Indianapolis Motor Speedway rookie from Roseville, Mich., was the fastest of three drivers who made the line-up in the final session. He put a rear-engine Thompson-Harvey Titanium Special into the field at 149.603 and had one lap at 150.401.

Mickey Thompson of Long Beach, Calif., American land speed record holder, entered five of his tiny Chevrolet-powered cars and got two of them into the field. One was qualified by 50-year-old Duane Carter of Indianapolis early in the trials.

Masten Gregory, American living in Paris, also qualified one of Thompson's beetle-shaped cars but he was bumped from the field when the final listing of the best speeds left him 36th—three spots out of the line-up.

Ruttman joined three other former winners, Rodger Ward of Indianapolis, Jim Rathmann of Miami and A. J. Foyt of Houston, in the field.

The well-known drivers who failed to qualify included Len Sutton of Portland, Ore., who finished second to teammate Ward by only 11 seconds last year.

Paul Rosso of Indianapolis, only active driver who raced before World War II, failed to qualify in his "Spirit Of St. Louis" after 15 starts in the 500.

It seems to me . . .

by Lou Concilio

Spoon-Fed Mediocrity

In an age of scientific achievements in medicine, space exploration, and development of ever greater weapons of destruction, there exists a gnawing incongruity of mediocrity in our day-to-day pursuits. This trend toward retrogression is a concerted one, definitely not accidental or incidental. Unless awareness stems the tide, stagnation will surely force complete capitulation to the computers, which will carry on for us toward more scientific progress.

No popeyed mystic am I. Nor are my protruding optics due to goiter problems. They are, rather, a point-making manifestation of my concern over a cancerous lethargy that permits us to tolerate substandard efforts in work, entertainment, and the arts.

Too often we find a job applicant who is more concerned over hours, pay scale, and benefits than he is in impressing the prospective employer with his qualifications. And, if he is hired in desperation by the boss, tired of a monotonous sameness in interviews, he is careful to limit his efforts to preserve his strength. Coffee breaks increase, and complaints over working conditions, small pay, and greener pastures elsewhere dominate the coffee-klatch confabs.

There was a time when an entertainer was not considered unique if he labored diligently over a routine, polishing each movement, each word, each gesture, until he was "almost" completely satisfied that his effort would be well received. Even then, he suffered the torment of the damned in fear his public would yawn indifferently.

Now, too often, the buffoon or singer enters stage grandly or casually, with whiskey glass in hand, glares at his audience in obvious defiance, daring them not to be completely enthralled at the mere sight of him. His routine has a repetitious triteness about it, and yet he has the guts to wait expectantly and arrogantly for a thunderous ovation. The pitiful aspect of it is the idiots give him this adulation. Making faces in the mirror would be more entertaining.

Next comes the artist who has created something of note some time ago. His reputation is made, so why not ride the crest for awhile? After all, when the spirit moves him wondrous things will belch forth and the fountain is deep. In the meantime let's feed the peasants a liberal diet of garbage. Oops, that tube of paint spilled on the canvas. Well, let's spread it around a little. There. A little more. Call it sunset. Or, sunrise. The idiots won't know the difference. And blue ribbons are bought in gross lots in this day of bigness.

This decadent thinking can be halted only with a resurgence of a real personal self-criticism. Unless and until man cares enough to please himself before he pleases others, he will never again enjoy the exultation his father felt with that pat on the back and the word, "well done!" ringing in his ears.

I'll let you in on a little secret. I'd work harder and longer hours for Ames Ford for a bouquet than for money. But don't tell Doug Cowan.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Alvin O'Neal McBean is a man whose short but successful baseball career has had some very strange twists.

He hooked on with the Pittsburgh Pirates through a quirk of fate. He dropped from start-status to bullpen duty this season and has built up one of the best records in the National League in the unfamiliar role of reliever. And he is finding that the home run can be a pitcher's best friend.

McBean won again yesterday as the Pirates beat Milwaukee 5-2 on bonus rookie Bob Bailey's three-run homer in the 11th inning. The victory was the slender right-hander's third in as many relief decisions—and in all three home runs have been decisive factors.

Also in the N.L., the Los Angeles Dodgers nipped front-running San Francisco 4-3 in 10 innings, cashing in three high-flying Baltimore made it runs on three throwing errors by Jose Pagan; the Philadelphia Phillies swept their first doubleheader in Cincinnati since 1950, 10-4 and 3-0; the New York Mets snapped a seven-game losing string, edging St. Louis 3-2 in 11 innings after losing the opener to the Cards 7-4 on Charlie James' three-run pinch homer; and the Chicago Cubs whipped Houston 5-1.

In the American League, eight in a row by clipping Cleveland twice 10-6 and 6-1; New York and Washington split, the Yankees winning the first game 7-1, the Senators the second 7-6; Boston shaded Detroit 6-5 after being belted 12-3 by the Tigers; Minneapolis' streaking Twins downed the Chicago White Sox 5-2; and Los Angeles beat Kansas City 6-4.

McBean, now in his second full season with Pittsburgh and his sixth in pro baseball, went to cover a Pirate tryout in his native Virgin Islands as a photographer for a local newspaper and wound up with a contract. He became a member of the varsity last year, with a 15-10 record as a starter. With four straight victories he is 5-1 this season.

McBean went in against Milwaukee in the eighth inning with the Braves leading 2-1, but Bill Mazeroski's homer in the ninth tied it up. Then in the 11th, Bailey connected against Hank Fischer, Milwaukee's sixth pitcher, after a single by Roberto Clemente and a walk.

Veteran slugger Roy Sievers and rookie pitcher Jack Culp keyed the Phils' sweep over the Reds. Sievers cracked a pinch hit grand slam homer in the eighth inning that put the opener out of reach. Culp fired a three-hit shutout in the second game, striking out 12 and allowing only one runner as far as second base.

Two errors gave the Mets an 11th inning run and their victory over St. Louis. Duke Carmel, defensive replacement for Stan Musial in left field, dropped Charlie Neale's fly for a two-base error, and Neale raced in when pitcher Bob Gibson threw wildly on Chico Fernandez' sacrifice bunt.

In the opener, Ken Boyer sent in the tying run in the eighth with his fifth straight hit, a single, and James followed with his clinching three-run pinch homer. Dick Groat of the Cards took over the league batting lead at .351, going 5-for-10 in the two games.

The Cubs beat ex-teammate Dick Drott on Bob Buhl's nine-hit pitching and the batting of Ron Santo, Ken Hubbs and Lou Brock. These three had all seven Chicago hits and drove in all five Cub runs.

HAWAII SUN TAN

Woe For Bo; He's Sent To Minors

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Woe is Bo.

The minor-league bound Robert (Bo) Belinsky no longer is with the Los Angeles Angels with whom he made a flashy start last year by running off a string of victories and hurling a no-hit game.

He was told before Saturday's game that he would be sent down to the Angels' chief farm club, the Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League, after compiling a whopping 6.39 earned run average and a 1-7 record this season.

Belinsky amazed sports writers and fans with his comments in his rookie season and drew headlines during his major-league tenure by keeping late hours and night clubbing with Hollywood personalities.

During spring training this year (Bo was the last player to report) the southpaw became engaged to blonde actress Mamie Van Doren.

But the American League may not have seen the last of the 26-year-old hurler.

Angel Manager Bill Rigney said, "it isn't the end of the world to be sent to Hawaii. In a few weeks we could take another look at the situation and might make other decisions."

"Belinsky ran into a little bad luck and then started fighting himself," Rigney said. "We know he can pitch and if he would quit worrying and start throwing like he did at the start of the season he could help us."

Belinsky, who complained loudly in the spring training of his rookie year that he wasn't getting paid enough, was apparently consoled to his relegation to the minors.

GOOD SUNTAN

"I guess I'm going to get me a good suntan," he said.

His fiance, Mamie Van Doren after learning of Bo's fate, chimed in, "Hawaii is one of my favorite spots." She said she is going to be in New York City working on a play, so they would have trouble seeing much of each other even if he were still with the Angels.

Belinsky will join the Hawaii club in a few days, probably in Salt Lake City, according to Rigney.

Hawaii Manager Irv Noren figures the lefthander will be "a lot of help to the ball club."

"I'll pitch him as much as possible and use him as a starter," Noren said. "I figure Bo knows the only way to get back up on top is to prove he can pitch major league ball down here."

SAN RAFAEL STAR PITCHES ONE-HITTER

Skip Rush, ace hurler for San Rafael High, pitched a brilliant one-hitter, striking out 17, but his Bermuda Palms semi-pro baseball team had to settle for a scoreless tie with Oceania yesterday afternoon.

The game was called at the end of the 10th inning due to a time limit.

The Palms team was held to two hits—singles by Mike Gordon and Leon Center—in its opening game of the season.

The San Rafael team will compete in San Francisco League action this summer.

Stanford Has Surplus Of Quarterbacks

Ralston has too many quarterbacks, he believes, and one of them at least must play halfback.

Dick Ragsdale may have won the honor with his running performance Saturday, as the varsity defeated the alumni, 26-13.

Ragsdale twice ran punts back within the alumni 25-yard line and set up touchdowns. Fullback Pete Middlekauff scored first on a 7-yard burst and Ray Handley went over for another six points from the 4.

The other varsity touchdown came on a twisting 33-yard run by quarterback Clark Weacer, hero of the 1962 Big Game against California.

The alumni scored on Al Harrington's 1-yard buck and a pass from quarterback Skip Face to Irv Nikolai that traveled 38 yards.

Jerry Ard Leads Builders To Win Over City Club

Shortstop Jerry Ard's potent bat led the Billings-Hutchison Builders of Marin to an 11-4 victory over San Francisco Pet Market in semi-pro baseball action yesterday.

Ard cracked a 350-foot home run, double and single to lead the Builders' rousing 17-hit attack. Joe Hebel, Rich Schultze, Jerry Scott and Dick Spackman each contributed a double and single to the assault.

Bob DeRosa, Pete Noga and Dick Spackman shared pitching duties, each going three innings. Noga was credited with the win.

It was the Builder's seventh straight victory, including six in a row to capture the recent San Rafael Invitational Tournament.

Ongaro '9' Loses Season Opener To Jeffersons

Ongaro Plumbers semi-pro baseball team of San Anselmo lost its first game of the season yesterday, an 8-5 decision to the Jeffersons of San Francihco at Marin Catholic High School's diamond.

Bill Buffalow hit a triple and Ed Chavez, Dan Abballo, Jimmie Johnston and Dave Perlis each cracked a single for the losers.

Mike Telegin, Perlis and Johnston shared pitched duties for the Plumbers who play the Dons of Marin Thursday, 1:30 p.m., at Drake High School.

U.S. Team Is Fourth In World Basketball

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — The United States, with a chance to turn spoiler, failed in the final moments and Brazil won its second straight world basketball title.

Defending champion Brazil edged the United States 85-81 in the final game of the World Basketball Tournament Saturday and nailed down the team title with a 6-0 mark in the drawn-out seven-team round robin tournament.

Yugoslavia upset Russia 69-67 in the other game on the final night and took second with a 5-1 record. Russia was third at 4-2. The United States, beaten by Russia, Yugoslavia and Brazil, finished fourth at 3-3.

France was fifth at 2-4, Puerto Rico sixth at 1-5 and Italy last at 0.6.

Brazil took the lead after a 39-39 tie at intermission and stayed in front the rest of the way. The United States lost a chance for a final drive when six players fouled out in the closing minutes, including starters Walt Torrence, Don Kojis and Jerry Shipp and the two big men, Lucius Jackson and Willys Reed, each 6-foot-9.

Stan's Softball Team Scores Win

Stan's Sport Shop rallied for two runs in the sixth inning to nip Fairchild Corp. 4-3 Saturday night at Albert Field in a practice softball game.

Marin Wildcats Win Title

in its half of the seventh with four runs on three hits and some wildness from Beswick.

Minutoli started the seventh with an infield single, advanced to second on a past ball and got to third on a single to center by third sacker Terry Jarcik.

The bases were filled when Beswick walked second baseman Tom Gootherts. Then he hit Bill Kilcoyne, the next Redwood batter, on the arm and the first run of the inning trotted across the plate. Another walk, this time to catcher Jim Troppmann, gave the Giants another run.

With the bases still loaded, Curt Richardson, batting for Murphy, laced a single to right which knocked in Gootherts and Kilcoyne. On the play, Troppmann tried to reach third but was thrown out on a throw from John Odetto to cutoff man Ryan to Phil Ferris.

Beswick settled down and struck out the next two batters, Puccinelli and Steve White, to end the inning. After Marin Catholic tied the game up in the seventh, the teams battled through three scoreless innings before the Wildcats squeezed home the winning run.

Two Redwood runs were cut off at the plate on perfect throws from Wildcat center fielder Bob Redding, once in the sixth and again in the ninth.

Beswick allowed 11 hits and walked five. Murphy struck out five and walked one. Before being taken out after six innings, he allowed two runs and only one hit. Redwood's Scott Davi, who was stung for the loss, struck out five and walked two. He allowed three hits.

For Redwood and coach Al Endriss, their tournament jinx was stretched to four. In four tournament championship games, the Giants have failed to win once. They made it to the final game in 1959 but lost to Drake, then they lost the championship games to Tamalpais in 1960 and '62, then last the final Saturday to Marin Catholic.

In semi-final game action, Redwood nipped Terra Linda 1-0, although Trojan pitcher Bill Lee hurled a one-hitter. The lone run came in the fifth inning on four Terra Linda errors. Lee struck out 14 in the seven-inning game.

Marin Catholic advanced to the finales with a 3-2 verdict over Tam. It was a triple by Jim Langbehn in the fourth which scored what proved to be the winning run.

In consolation game action, Novato's Gary Fritz, Jim Mair and Chuck Overmyer teamed up to pitch a no-hitter against guest team San Rafael Military Academy as the Hornets won, 7-0.

In the other consolation game, MCAL champion Drake fell to San Rafael 4-3. Big hitter in that game was San Rafael's John Franzman who hit two doubles and a triple to knock in two runs.

Lindlow's New Cal 30 Sloop Captures All-Clubs Regatta

Peaceable, a new Cal 30 class sloop, defeated both Baruna and Orient, a pair of well-known craft, to become overall winner among all four Cruising Club divisions in yesterday's handicap section of the All-Clubs Regatta on the bay.

Peaceable raced the 15.7-mile course in 3:19.27, adjusted time. Designer Bill Lapworth was skippering for owner Bill Lindlow of St. Francis Yacht Club.

Baruna, Jim Michael's 72-foot flagship, won Cruising Club A with a corrected time of 6:49. Close behind was Tim Moseley's 63-foot cutter, Orient.

MIKE SHAFER QUALIFIES FOR STATE MEET

San Rafael's quarter-miler Mike Shafer will be in the state high school track meet, but Tamalpais High School's broadjumper Ellis Williams missed the classic by one and three-quarters inches.

Shafer placed third in the North Coast Section 440 Saturday in Pittsburg with a time of 49.7, one-tenth of a second behind the winner. Williams placed fifth in the broad jump with a leap of 22-8. The top three finishers in the meet qualified for the state meet and third place in the broad jump was 22-9¾.

It will be the second year in the state meet for Shafer who placed ninth last year. The meet will be held Friday and Saturday in Berkeley.

Marin's class B performers did not earn a place in the rough meet Saturday, but Drake's freshman sprinter Dean Lazzarini made it to the finals in the 75-yard dash.

Doc Jocoy Wins

It's good news to know that many of our schools are stepping up their physical education programs.
But the so-called "muscle gap" is still too big. Far too many of our children still aren't getting the daily, vigorous exercise needed to put and keep them in good physical condition.
You owe it to yourself—and your children—to support a vigorous school activity program.

TRACK AND FIELD

3 World Records Broken In West

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three world track and field records fell in the West this weekend with a fourth one doomed in a bizarre development because no one thought it would happen.

Two marks came at the California relays in Modesto, Calif., as Washington's Brian Sternberg pole vaulted 16 feet 7 inches and the Oregon State University two-mile relay team turned in a 7 minute 18.9 second performance.

At Tempe, Ariz., in the Western Athletic Conference meet, New Mexico's Adolph Plummer raced 440 yards in 44.9 seconds, breaking the world mark of 45.7 by Ohio State's Glenn Davis in 1958.

The most unexpected development came at the California Relays just minutes after New Zealand's Peter Snell raced a mile in 3 minutes 54.9 seconds for a new American record just one-half second off his world record. Marine Cary Weisiger was second at 3:57.3, his best time, and Jim Beatty a well beaten third at 3:58.

Then word flashed from the broad jumping pit that someone had leaped 27 feet 4 inches, a fraction farther than the world record held by the Soviet Union's Igor Ter-Ovanesyan. Was it Ralph Boston, the Olympic champion and former record holder?

No, the jumper was a University of Washington sophomore, Phil Shinnick, who earlier had failed even to qualify for the finals in the Big Six meet at Berkeley and then drove the 80 miles to Modesto and asked permission to compete.

WIND GAUGE

Thirty minutes after his long jump came word that because no one gave Shinnick a chance for a record jump, no one had been tending the wind machine to determine whether the aiding breeze was below the allowable maximum of 4.473 miles per hour.

Leon Glover, the gauge man, had been instructed he could time it only when Boston jumped. Meet referee Charlie Hunter said he could not sign a record application without wind certification.

Trojans Win Big 6, Eye NCAA Title Next

BERKELEY (UPI)—University of Southern California's Trojans, with some powerful help from a diminutive Costa Rican, held the Big Six track and field championship today — and pointed now for the NCAA championship.

Julio Marin, a powerful little runner from Costa Rica, defeated Stanford's Harry McCalla while running a 4:03 mile; and captured the three-mile event easily in 13:51.4.

That provided the victory margin as the Trojans wound up with 74 points against 63 for runner-up Stanford. California finished third with 28½ points. Washington State had 27, UCLA 24½ and Washington 23.

Brian Sternberg of the Huskies, who later in the day was to travel 90 miles to set a world record of 16 feet, 7 inches in the pole vault at the California Relays, captured his specialty here with a leap of 15 feet, 9 inches.

Stanford's Larry Questad won the 100 in 9.6 and the 220 in 21.5 for a fine double.

Winners for the Trojans included Lew Hoyt who cleared the bar at 6-10 in the high jump; Rex Cawley in the 440 with a 46.7 clocking; Brian Polkinghorne with a 14.2 in the high hurdles; and Larry Stuart in the javelin with a fine toss of 230 feet, 1½ inches.

Other winners included Dave Weill of Stanford in the discus, with a throw of 179 feet, 8½ inches; Bob Miltz of Stanford in the 800 in 1:53; Matt Baggett, California, with a throw of 56 feet, 8¼ inches in the shot; and Dan Moore, Stanford, with a leap of 24 feet, 5½ inches in the broad jump.

WEEKEND FIGHTS

MEXICO CITY—Jose Jiminez, 124¼, Mexico, outpointed Hermelindo Mondragon, 124½, Mexico, 10.

Chairman Announces Committee Members

Mrs. Frank Baumgarten of Fairfax, who is chairman of the 1963 Debutante Ball, has announced her committee chairmen and committee members for the Dec. 21 ball, which will again be a benefit for Marin General Hospital.

Chairman of operations is Mrs. Edgar Lindner, assisted by Mrs. William Bricca; Mrs. Harry D. Johnson III is chairman of activities with Mrs. William Niccolls assisting her; Raymond Hornby Jr. will again head the men's floor committee and Mrs. William Mosden and Mrs. Dewey Donnell are publicity chairmen.

MRS. BAUMGARTEN served as chairman of debutantes in 1962, with Mrs. Stratford of Ross and Mrs. Wallace Scott of Belvedere as ball chairmen.

The proceeds from the debutante Ball last year, amounting to over $9,000, were used to purchase an electronic cell counter and a photomicroscope for Marin General Hospital.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF the 1963 debutantes will usher in a round of social activities for the young ladies and their families which will begin with the introduction tea for debutantes and their mothers in June.

Throughout the summer and again in the winter season, debutantes will be honored at supper dances, teas and luncheons by family and friends. The "little season" will be suspended in September as the girls enter their freshmen year in colleges and universities both in the Bay Area and in other states, and the more formal winter season will open with the December holiday's whirl of receptions and dinner dances.

THE FESTIVITIES will culminate with the ball, which this year is scheduled to begin at 9:30 p.m., rather than 10 p.m. as last year. Promptly at 10:30 p.m. Ernest Mendenhall will step to the stage to begin presentation of each of the 26 girls, who will make her bow and descend the steps to the dance floor of the Country Club for the traditional dances with their escorts and then their fathers, ending the formal presentation ceremony.

Photographs of the debutantes are by Les Walsh of San Rafael and also by DuCharme Studio, Don Bosco Studio, Bernard's and Kee Coleman.

Andrea McLay Becomes Bride At Stinson Beach Chapel Rite

The Stinson Beach Community Presbyterian Chapel was the setting for the wedding Saturday of Andrea McLay of Mill Valley and Dennis Mayfield of Stinson Beach.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Marguerite Whittaker of Mill Valley and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Mayfield of Stinson Beach.

Best man was Gary Ray Wold of San Francisco and ushers were Roland Crotts of Bolinas and Harry Chet Wold of Sebastopol.

A reception at Whittakers' home followed the wedding. Among those present were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Colwell of Springfield, Ohio.

After a week's trip by car to Colorado the young couple will live in Fairfax. Both are graduates of Tamalpais High School and attended the College of Marin.

Dennis is employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. and the Sun-Check Glass Tinting Co. He is the brother of Mrs. R. J. Patskoski of Merritt Island, Fla., and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hill of Stinson Beach.

Novato Teen CYO To Hold 'Cow Pony Rag' On Saturday

The Novato Teen Catholic Youth Organization will transform the church parish hall in Novato into the "C Bar A Ranch" when they present the "Cow Pony Rag," from 7:30 to 11 p.m. on Saturday.

Jim Davidson, chairman, announced that dress will be casual school clothes. Ranch house variety refreshments are promised by the committee, headed by Susan McGinnie, assisted by Sandy Amaral, Chris Cromwell, Carol Davidson, Cheryl Hook, Norene Jordan, Rosemary Meehan, Judy McGinnis, Linda Trent, Marie San Filippo, Teresa Kane, Sharon Stevens, Bonnie Foley and Sheila Locke.

Decorating the hall will be ranch hands Lynn Askim, Judy Picchi, Jim Davidson, Dianne Loveland, Steve Davidson, Jack Kane, John Killian and Linda Trent.

Invitations have been mailed to all CYO Clubs in Marin, and Mrs. James Henderson, adviser, said the dance is open to all high school students of Novato. Chaperones are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Manthey and Mrs. Robert Greenwood.

New Fire Starter

A new fire starter briquette is made with wood-fibre base impregnated with paraffin. It is odorless, non-explosive and non-toxic, says the manufacturer, and especially good for lighting charcoal and logs. (Justrite).

Marin Women

A CHANGE OF COMMAND

The Meadow Club was the setting for the general meeting and luncheon of the Marin County Dental Auxiliary on Friday afternoon, when Mrs. Robert C. Taylor, left, turned over the president's gavel to Mrs. James E. Cermak of Novato, who will lead the group through the year. Installing officer was Dr. Berne J. Holman, past president of the Marin County Dental Society. (Independent-Journal photo)

Corte Maderan Elected Head Of Marin Inter-City Council

Mrs. Richard Allen Wunderlich of Corte Madera, a member of Beta Sigma Phi sorority since 1950, is the new president of the Sorority's Marin Inter-City Council. She was this year's recording secretary.

Holder of the exemplar degree in the social and cultural organization, she has been president, vice president, recording and corresponding secretary of Theta Delta chapter in San Francisco and is now a member of Mill Valley's Omicron Alpha Chapter. She has handled its publicity for the past two years, as well as the publicity for Marin Lutheran Church Women.

AS HEAD of the council she will be concerned with coordinating the activities of the six Marin chapters of the sorority: Omicron Alpha, Mill Valley; Phi Gamma Nu, San Rafael; Upsilon Gamma, Novato; Xi Alpha Xi, San Rafael; and Xi Kappa Psi, Novato.

Major events of the year will be the annual Valentine Ball and a fashion luncheon given to support charitable projects.

A native of Fullerton, Pa., Lorraine was graduated from the high school of commerce in San Francisco and attended San Francisco City College, where she was a business major.

BEFORE AND for some time after her marriage to her husband, a civil engineer, she was employed as a legal secretary.

The Wunderlichs have lived in Corte Madera for four and a half years and have three children. They are Richard, 6; Nancy, 4; and Karen, 2.

MRS. WUNDERLICH

Leslie Maxwell Becomes Bride

Lt. Col. and Mrs. O. K. Maxwell of Mill Valley announce the marriage of their daughter Leslie Ann to Stephen E. Cole.

The marriage took place on May 18 in Reno, and the newlyweds are living in Strawberry.

Stephen is the son of Mrs. Edith Cole of Nevada City, and a former resident of Novato. He has been making his home since last fall, after a tour of duty with the Air Force, with his stepfather and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore V. Cole of Kent Woodlands, and his sister Linda. His other sister, Cynthia, lives in Nevada City and is a frequent visitor to Kentfield. A family dinner to honor the couple is planned by the Coles.

SEW SIMPLE

Soft Suede Or Kid Leathers Are Suitable For Trimmings

By EUNICE FARMER

"I would like to try my hand at using small leather touches for my sports clothes but can't seem to find out where the leather is available." — Mrs. C.M.

Dear Mrs. C.M.:

If you live near a large city, look up leather supplies in your phone directory. You will need the soft suede or kidskin type leathers for trimmings.

In the meantime, check your supply of old kid gloves. Usually when the fingers have worn out, there is still plenty of good leather in the cuffs of the gloves. This can be cut in strips for buttonhole welts, pocket welts, covered buttons and many other small trims. Leather trim has become very popular on casual clothes.

A mixture of textures makes a garment interesting and fun to wear. With this original type of trimming, your friends won't believe you made the garment.

"Put a touch of red fingernail polish beside each spot that requires oiling on your sewing machine. Oiling (which I used to dread because I had to study the instruction booklet each time) now takes just a jiffy to do and my sewing machine works like a charm." Mrs. Edward A. Reid, Portland, Ore., receives this week's tailor trix pressing board award for this suggestion.

"I recently attended a fashion show of very expensive garments. Among them was a pair of slacks without side seams. I haven't seen any pattern like this and would like to know how to make them." —Mrs. M.M.

Dear Mrs. M.M.:

You are very observant. These new slacks often have a "flare" on the inseam at the hem, to resemble bell-bottom trousers the sailors wear.

You must begin with a pattern you have used before, so you'll be certain it fits perfectly. There is no way you can let out or take in these trousers after they have been cut. Be sure the crotch seam is short enough for good fit.

Lay the two side seams over each other as illustrated, and pin from the lower hem line up to the notch at the hip line. Allow the pattern to lie flat above this hip notch. You will notice that the space that spreads apart above this side seam is curved and tapers to nothing. This will be taken up as a dart.

If you care to add the "bell" on the in-seam, curve the seam out as you cut. It is always better to cut them wider than you would like them to be, then fit them to the width that will be most flattering to you.

"What do you recommend for lining cotton shorts and skirts for summer? I intend to wash these. Also, is it better to treat the two layers of material as one, or to make a separate lining and attach it at the waistband?" — Mrs. R.M. (mother of 4 girls)

Dear Mrs. R.M.:

I usually recommend lining cotton shorts and skirts with batiste, lawn, or any similar type fabric which is light weight and firmly woven. Be sure to wet any lining fabric with hot water, dry, and press before using.

Treating the two layers of fabric as one is easier, seems to keep the shape of the garment better, and is also easier to launder and iron. This means that the darts will be made in the two layers of fabric together, as well as all seams. When hemming the garment, attach the hem to the lining only.

Mrs. B.H.S. says: "A plastic container with a cake of beeswax is a sewing 'must.' Run your thread for all hand sewing through the beeswax before using it. It will strengthen and straighten the thread to make hand sewing a joy."

Please send your sewing tips to Sew Simple, in care of the Independent - Journal.

Dorcas To Mark 43 Years

Tomorrow at noon the women of the Dorcus Society of the Fairfax Community Church will hold their annual spring luncheon to commemorate their 43rd anniversary. Cards will be played during the afternoon.

Down through the years the name "Dorcus" has meant service. The first library in Fairfax, prior to the time the County Library opened a branch in this area, was started by this group. The first movies shown in Fairfax were a joint effort of Dorcus and the women of St. Rita's Catholic Church.

Two years prior to the Parent-Teacher Assn., these women were instrumental in forming a "Mother's Club" in the local school and worked to promote interest in the first Boy Scout troop in Fairfax.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Freezing Has Advantages Over Some Other Kinds Of Surgery

Cryogenic surgery is a method of destroying or removing tissue by freezing. The system opens up many possibilities, especially in eliminating tumors from the brain, endocrine organs, skin, rectum, and heart.

VAN DELLEN

According to Dr. Irving S. Cooper of New York City, freezing has the advantage of congealing tissue in a painless and bloodless way. The technic is not going to replace the traditional scalpel but it will compete with radiation, cauterization, and other means of destroying benign and malignant tumors.

DR. COOPER developed a special sharp pointed tube into which is placed liquid nitrogen with a temperature of —321 degrees F. (—196 C.). The instrument is insulated except at the tip. The liquid nitrogen passes to the noninsulated tip, which is used to freeze a limited area, without damage to adjacent tissue.

Much of Dr. Cooper's work in recent years has centered about the surgical treatment of parkinsonism (shaking palsy). He has relieved tremor and rigidity by injecting alcohol into or cauterizing small areas deep within the brain. For the last 18 months he has been utilizing cryogenic surgery and has treated 800 cases of parkinsonism in this way. The risk of complications proved low (less than 1 per cent) and improvement was prompt in suitable cases.

A SPECIAL rig is placed over the head to guide the tip of the cooling instrument. The individual is conscious and the response to cold is noted while the patient is on the operating table. If tremor and muscle rigidity are not helped, the area is thawed immediately and the tube is moved around slightly until the right spot is found.

The New York neurosurgeon has employed the cryosurgical instrument to freeze brain tumors prior to surgical dissection. The congealed lesion tends to shrink and is easier to take out. His colleagues have used the method to freeze visible tumors in the rectum and other passageways. Tonsilectomey has been carried out in laboratory monkeys. In addition, freezing therapy has been valuable in certain eye conditions.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

GUM AND INDIGESTION

C.R. writes: A friend who chews gum constantly often has an upset stomach. Do you think this could be caused by swallowing a lot of air with it?

REPLY

Gum chewing is not associated with air swallowing but indigestion could stem from this source if he is an air swallower. Other causes of digestive upsets include nervousness, peptic ulcer, and gall bladder disease.

SCIATICA STILL PRESENT

H.H. writes: I had a successful laminectomy last August but still have trouble with my back and sciatic nerve. This worries me. Do you think the discomfort will go away in time?

REPLY

Yes, although this operation to relieve the effects of a slipped disk fails to bring relief in approximately 15 per cent.

OPTIC NEURITIS

M.S. writes: Where does optic neuritis come from?

REPLY

It may follow infection such as syphillis, meningitis, or encephalitis, or lead poisoning, multiple sclerosis, alcoholism, or poor circulation to the brain. This form of neuritis leads to degeneration of the optic nerve and visual disorders.

JUMPING AT 65

REPLY

Yes, provided the knees, back, and heart can take it.

Today's Health Hint—If you have firearms, keep them locked up.

Name Change Due Planners

The San Rafael City Planning Commission will again tackle the problem of coming up with a new name for Blossom Court at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at city hall.

The postmaster and the fire chief have requested that the name be changed to avoid confusion with Blossom Drive, but residents of the area are against a change.

Commissioners also will consider a use permit sought by Howard Adams for a multiple family dwelling unit at the southwest corner of Fourth and Mary streets.

Apartment Plans Will Be Reviewed

Plans for the Uplands, 342 apartments on the south side of Paradise Drive east of Marin Country Day School, will be reviewed by the Corte Madera Town Board of Design at 7:30 p.m. today in town hall.

Guy Cole of Hillsborough plans the apartments in seven buildings.

The board will also consider an application by Douglas Oil Co. of Santa Clara for a gas station at the northeast corner of Corte Madera and Redwood avenues.

Presbyteens Plan Ice Cream Social

The Presbyteens of the Redwoods Presbyterian Church, Larkspur, will hold a fund raising ice cream social at 6 p.m. Saturday at the church. The Balladiers and Tina and Kanoe of Redwood High School will provide folk music.

Funds will be used to finance trips of two club members. Ken Larsen has been named to represent the group at the North American Presbyterian and Reformed Youth Alliance at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., in July, and Ann Paine has been chosen for work in Sitka, Alaska, during the summer.

Kentfield To Hire Summer Teachers

Teachers for summer school classes June 20 to July 19 will be hired by the Kentfield School District board at a meeting at 7:45 p.m. today in Wolfe Grade School Library.

Summer classes will be at Adaline E. Kent School, said Supt. Howard C. Harmon.

Jewish Community Summer Camp Set

Camp Rafa-El, the summer day camp of the Marin Jewish Community Center, starting operation June 24, will feature weekly bus excursions to Bay Area points of interest including Tilden Park, Berkeley; Frontierland, San Jose, and Hamilton Air Force Base.

The nine week summer season still has a few openings for children between eight and 12 years old.

Asthma, Bronchitis Will Be Discussed

Dr. Robert W. Clarke, county chest physician, will discuss asthma and chronic bronchitis, chest diseases which afflict seven million Americans, over KTIM tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. Clarke is advisor to the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn.

The association has also announced a 15 minute film, "Signposts," about respiratory disease symptoms, is available now and through June for showings by clubs and civic groups in Marin County. Reservations may be made by telephoning the association office.

Gets Science Degree

Lee Alan Bartl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Bartl of 203 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia, has been awarded an associate in science degree in electronic engineering technology from the Central Technical Institute, Kansas City, Mo., and is now working with the Collins Radio Co. of Cedar Rapids, Ia., as a technical illustrator.

Dominican College Graduation Slated —Biggest In History

The largest graduating class in the history of Dominican College of San Rafael will receive degrees in a ceremony beginning at 3 p.m. Wednesday in Angelico Hall.

The college will confer 87 bachelors degrees and five masters degrees. Twenty-five students will receive teaching credentials, 21 for teaching elementary school.

Overtime shall not be less than one and one-half (1½) times the above rates.

Sundays and holidays shall not be less than one and one-half (1½) times the above rates. The holidays upon which such rates shall be paid shall be all holidays recognized in the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the particular craft, classification or type of workman employed on the project.

It shall be mandatory upon the contractor to whom the Contract is awarded and upon any subcontractor under him to pay not less than the said specified rates to all laborers, workmen and mechanics employed by them in the execution of the contract.

Proposals will be considered for the complete job only. The proposal must be submitted on the form provided and must be accompanied by a Certified Check, Cash, Post Office Money Order or Bid Bond as a guarantee that the bidder will, if successful, promptly execute a satisfactory contract and furnish bonds as required by these specifications. The Certified Check, Cash, Post Office Money Order or Bid Bond shall be not less than ten (10) percent of the total amount of the bid and shall be made payable to the Treasurer of the Marin Municipal Water District.

The envelope enclosing the proposal must have stated thereon "Proposal for the Furnishing and Erecting of the Miller Creek 500,000 Gallon Steel Tank".

Specifications may be obtained at 220 Nellen Avenue, the office of the District. The $25.00 deposit required for each set of specifications will be refunded when specifications are returned to the District. It is requested that those Contractors wishing a Water District representative to accompany them on their first visit to the site of the work, notify the District sufficiently in advance so that necessary arrangements may be made.

Progress payments will be made.

CERTIFICATE OF COPARTNERS DOING BUSINESS UNDER FICTITIOUS NAME
No. 3296

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

We, the undersigned, Joseph V. Barker and William H. Hardsaw, do hereby certify:

That we are copartners transacting business in the State of California under the fictitious name and style of Command Seaplane Service; that the principal place of business of said copartnership is situated at 240 Redwood Highway in the city of: Mill Valley, County of Marin, State of California, and that the names in full of all the members of said copartnership, and their respective places of residence, are as follows, to-wit:

Joseph Vincent Barker,
2945 Marina Drive,
Alameda, California
William Henry Hardsaw,
545 Niantic Avenue,
Daly City, California

IN WITNESS WHEREOF we have hereunto set our hands this 9th day of May, 1963.
/s/ JOSEPH VINCENT BARKER
/s/ WILLIAM H. HARDSAW
STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
County of San Francisco—ss.

On this 9th day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and sixty three before me, Lottie S. Mineau, a Notary Public, State of California, duly commissioned and sworn, personally appeared Joseph Vincent Barker and William Henry Hardsaw, known to me to be the persons whose names are subscribed to the foregoing instrument and acknowledge to me that they executed the same.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal in the City and County of San Francisco the day and year in this certificate first above written.

NOTICE OF GUARDIAN'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE AT PRIVATE SALE
No. 11407

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that CHARLES VERNON WHITLATCH, guardian of the persons and estates of CHARLES VERNON WHITLATCH, JR. and JOHN ARTHUR WHITLATCH, minors, will sell, on or after Monday, the 10th day of June, 1963, in the county of Marin, state of California, to the highest and best bidder, and upon the terms and conditions hereinafter mentioned, at private sale, subject to confirmation by said Superior Court, the following described real property, a one-third interest in which belongs to the estate of each of said minors and the remaining one-third interest to the Guardian herein:

PARCEL ONE: BEGINNING at the point of intersection of the westerly line of D Street with the southerly line of Ross Street, said point being the northeast corner of Lot 1, Block 4, Shorts Addition to the Town of San Rafael, running thence along said line of Ross Street N. 83° 10′ W. 61.15 feet, thence leaving Ross Street S. 07° 09′ W. 70.0 feet, thence S. 83° 10′ E. 61.64 feet to the westerly line of said D Street, thence along said last mentioned line N. 06° 45′ E 70.0 feet to the point of beginning.

PARCEL TWO: BEGINNING at a point on the southerly line of Ross Street, distant thereon N. 83° 10′ W. 61.15 feet from its intersection with the westerly line of D Street, as said streets are shown on the Map of Shorts Addition to the Town of San Rafael, and running thence S. 07° 09′ W. 70.0 feet, thence N. 83° 10′ W. 38.36 feet, thence N. 06° 45° E. 70.0 feet to the southerly line of Ross Street, thence along said last mentioned line S. 83° 10′ E. 38.85 feet to the point of beginning.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE: Cash in lawful money of the United States; ten percent (10%) of the purchase price to be paid at the time of sale, balance on confirmation of sale. Deed and abstract at the expense of the purchaser. The purchaser to assume the payment of and take the property purchased by him subject to all of the State and County taxes and all assessments of whatsoever name or nature which are now or may become hereafter chargeable to or a lien against the property purchased by him.

All bids or offers must be in writing and may be left at the office of GARDINER, RIEDE & ELLIOTT, attorneys for said Guardian, at Room 418 Albert Building, San Rafael, California, at any time after the first publication of this notice and before the making of a sale. The Guardian reserves the right to reject any or all offers.

Dated this 22nd day of May, 1963.

Hy Silver Says:
I've been sitting in my office wondering why more people don't come in to buy our good used cars. It occurred to me that a lot of people don't know we're in business. Then it occurred to me that a lot of people do know and don't care. So it naturally follows that we've got to give people a reason to come to our lot, and here it is: If you come to our lot in Novato, I will personally guarantee that no one will spit in your eye! I mean that literally and figuratively. We won't try to insult your intelligence with a bunch of ridiculous claims. If you try out one of our cars and find something wrong with it, we'll try to fix it for you. If you are worried about payments or not having enough money to put down, or not having any money to put down, come in and talk over your problems. We can't work miracles, but we've had years of experience in financing cars and we can put this experience to work for you. Even if you don't want to buy a car, come on in and chin a little. We get mighty lonely sometimes. You'll find us at Hy Silver Used Cars, 1119 Grant Ave., Novato.

10 Marinites To Take Rafts Down Rivers

Ten Marin County residents will be drifting along on vacation next month taking raft cruises, the Sierra Club reported.

Taking a 146-mile cruise down the Colorado River starting June 18 will be Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fletcher of 392 Richardson Way, Mill Valley, and their children, Peter and Eric, 10-year-old twins, Clyde, 9, and Elizabeth, 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rogers Jr. and their son, Joe, 7, of 111 Stetson Avenue, Kentfield, also will take the Colorado River trip.

In north-central Oregon, Mrs. M. G. Ferrin and her son, Ricky, 13, of 456 Woodland Road, Kentfield, will take the club's John Day River cruise beginning June 10. This cruise consists of a 100-mile drift down the river.

Five Marinites Pass State Bar

Five Marin County residents are among the 304 persons who passed the 1963 spring state bar examination, the Committee of Bar Examiners announced today.

They will be certified for admission to practice law at ceremonies June 12 at the State Supreme Court, San Francisco.

Tiburon Art Show Set

The Artist's Guild, 50 artists from the Bay Area, will have its outdoor art exhibit at the boardwalk in Tiburon June 15 and 16 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. More than 250 paintings will be displayed.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

Too Many Small Business Firms Are Doomed Before They Start

Too many small business firms are doomed to failure before they get started. Reason: The new businessman fails to consider all the factors besides his own initiative that determine his chances for success. Often he is too carried away by his own enthusiasm to take into account the importance of sufficient capital, location and lease arrangements, taxes and licenses, promotion and advertising, credit policy, bookkeeping and personnel.

We have just been going over a very fine bulletin published by the Bank of America on "Starting a Retail or Service Business" dealing with all these things and other pitfalls. We understand it is available for the asking at the bank's branches — definitely at the San Rafael office. Recommended for thorough study by anyone contemplating the opening of a new business.

CONSULTING CHEF Paul H. Debes of Los Ranchitos has developed an India curry sauce from an old India formula in his San Francisco professional kitchen. Through Juillard Fancy Foods Co. it has been placed on the shelves of the three United Market Stores in Marin.

Next Friday and Saturday will be "India Curry Day" at United's San Rafael market. A charming, turbaned gentleman from India by the name of Karter S. Sehgal will officiate at a demonstration of preparing a shrimp curry in 10 minutes. A similar demonstration will be held later in United's San Anselmo market.

A NEW CIGARETTE HOLDER introduced by Tar Gard Co., backed by a group of Bay Area businessmen, will appear in Marin County stores soon. The holder adapts the aerodynamic principle of the Venturi tube to accelerate smoke to a speed of 200 miles per hour, separating high and low temperature tars, and is said to reduce harsh irritants in the smoke. Northern California sales distribution will be directed by H. R. Plate and Co., manufacturer's representative.

McQuinn

W. J. McQUINN of San Anselmo has been named foreign staff manager for Standard Oil Co. of California. Prior to the appointment his assignments have been as supervising engineer and assistant manager of the company's foreign staff. He joined Standard in 1946 as a design engineer.

Notary Commissioned

Gloria J. Shortridge, P.O. Box 900, San Rafael, has been issued a notary public commission, Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan announced today.

Ex-Marinites Hunted In $300,000 Diamond Swindle

Two ex-Marin County men are subjects of a worldwide search involving what a Rio de Janeiro man claims is a swindle of $300,000 in diamonds.

A number of Bay Area firms also are seeking the two men, one of whom, Bernard E. de-Senan, was promoter of a Polynesian restaurant which never opened in the Jack Tar Hotel in San Francisco.

San Francisco detective Frank Baroni said today his office is familiar with both de-Senan and Percy Herman, who was once manager of Sally Stanford's Valhalla Inn in Sausalito.

Herman was once convicted by the federal government of the $318,000 swindle of a Georgia widow who was his bride for one day.

San Francisco police, district attorney's office and the Federal Bureau of Investigation have all been quietly looking into the matter for about a month, largely because the gems were bought with a pair of $125,000 checks on an account in a San Francisco bank.

But no criminal complaint has been filed, with local authorities claiming Brazilian police officials will have to act.

Jules R. Sauer of Brazil reported the two men arranged to purchase the gems from him in Rio, but that he did not have the cut of diamonds required, and had to send to Amsterdam for them.

The men arranged to pick up the jewels in Hong Kong. There, two $125,000 checks were given to a courier, Sauer said, but payment was stopped before the checks arrived at the First Western Bank's Fillmore branch in San Francisco.

Private Detective Harold Lipset, who has been handling the case for Sauer from San Francisco, claims there was only $48 in the account when the checks were written.

Sauer claimed he phoned the bank from Rio de Janeiro to check on the account of the two men before going through with the deal, and was told the account could cover the checks.

Bank Manager Frank Macchia has since claimed that he said only that he knew of the

Road Deaths Double Those Of Last Year

Charles Adolph Quagelli Jr. of 360 Oak Avenue was dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital at 11:30 p.m.

His death raised the toll of traffic deaths in Marin County this year to 14, double last year's count at this time.

Quagelli, according to Corte Madera police, was on the wrong side of Paradise Drive near the Madera Pet Hospital east of Highway 101 when his car collided with one driven by Charles Frederick Mack, 18, of 51 Lomita Drive, Mill Valley, at 11:10 p.m.

Mack, a student at Tamalpais High School, was treated for forehead and knee bruises at Marin General Hospital. Police said he was returning from a baseball game.

Quagelli died of internal injuries, according to William Bradley, assistant county coroner. His abdomen was pierced by the steering wheel, which broke in the crash.

Police Officer Charles Rester noted that Quagelli probably would not have died if he had been wearing a seat belt.

Quagelli was an investigator for the Retail Credit Co. of San Francisco.

Besides his step-sister, he is known to be survived only by an uncle in San Francisco.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo.

AT LAST HE CAN SET THE SUNDIAL

All last week, Melvin H. Klyce tried daily to set the new sundial in front of the Greyhound Bus station in Mill Valley's Lytton Square, which was installed by the Rotary Club. You have to have sunshine to set a sundial. All week, no luck. Today, with the sun out, Klyce was prompt on hand to start the sundial working (on daylight saving time.) (Independent-Journal photo)

Hemorrhage Weakens Pope; Kennedy's Visit Is Canceled

A Vatican source said plans for President John F. Kennedy to see the 81-year-old Roman Catholic pontiff had been suspended. Kennedy was due here about June 22.

Belgian-born Bishop Pierre van Lierde, the Pope's sacristan and vicar-general for Vatican City, canceled several engagements in Rome. He was reported remaining in or near the Pope's apartment constantly to be ready to administer extreme unction.

The Vatican switchboard received hundreds of phone calls about the Pope. Operators replied: "A little better."

At the Vatican press office there was no statement on his condition.

Informants said the Pope had a restful night.

His personal physician, Dr. Antonio Gasbarrini, who was called here urgently yesterday from his home in Bologna, saw the Pope again at noon today.

Another papal doctor, Piero Mazzoni, kept vigil near the Pope's bedside throughout the night. It was the sixth successive night Mazzoni had spent in the apostolic palace.

All through the night, the lights were off in the Pope's third floor apartment overlooking St. Peter's Square. This indicated he did not need attention.

Mazzoni left the palace shortly after dawn and Gasbarrini did not call until noon. This was taken to mean that at the least there was no worsening in the pontiff's condition.

L'Osservatore Romano, the Vatican newspaper, said the Pope's condition last night "showed general improvement —above all subjective," meaning that the Pope felt better.

The Pope's doctor found further improvement in his condition this morning, the paper added.

The daily also reported Pope John saw his secretary of state, Amleto Cardinal Cicognani last night and again today.

Apparently Cardinal Cicognani and Bishop Van Lierde were among the few prelates allowed in the Pope's apartment. The bishop would be the prelate to administer sacraments to the Pope.

Cardinal Cicognani is the Pope's closest collaborator in Church affairs. Today was the third successive morning that the Pope had received him, despite strict orders from his doctors that he must have absolute rest.

This precaution was taken following another hemorrhage yesterday, perhaps the worst setback the Pope has had since he was stricken in November with a stomach disorder said to be an ulcer or cancer. He also had suffered a hemorrhage Saturday.

The doctors told the Pope he must not get out of bed, or he would risk further hemorrhages.

He sat up in an arm chair yesterday for his 45-minute talk with his secretary of state and there were reports that this had provoked the Pope's most recent hemorrhage.

Merchants Rip Mill Valley's License Plan

More than 100 Mill Valley merchants today voiced opposition to a proposed increase in city business license fees, in a signed petition which is to be given to the city council.

"We are unalterably opposed," the petition reads, "to an increase in the business license fees on the premise that it would be inequitable and impose an undue hardship on many small Mill Valley firms."

The president of the chamber of commerce also spoke out against any across-the-board raise. Said Leonard Blakely: "The chamber is against a straight across-the-board raise. We have checked with various chambers in the county and find most licenses are on a graduated scale according to volume of business generated. We are going to advocate some type of sliding scale for license fees."

Chamber directors were to meet this noon with councilmen Michael Wornum and George D. Monardo to discuss the fee hike. Saturday at a

Bordenave Dies At 72; Marin Baker

Frank Bordenave, 72, owner of Bordenave's San Rafael French Bakery a 1553 Fourth Street, died today in a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

Bordenave started in the bakery business in his native France at the age of 10. He came to Marin County in 1910, bringing with him the formula for French bread which has been used ever since by his bakery.

He first worked for the old Parisian Bakery on B Street, then opened his own bakery at Second and D streets in 1917. The present bakery was opened in 1924.

Bordenave had not been active in the bakery business for the last two years. The bakery has 12 employees and is the largest French bakery in the county.

Bordenave was a member of the Odd Fellows Lodge of San Rafael and the San Rafael Volunteer Fire Department.

He is survived by his wife, Honorine; one daughter, Mrs. Gabrielle Gillette of San Rafael, one granddaughter and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. The bakery will be closed for retail trade the day of the funeral.

Food Poisoning Strikes 50 Airmen

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—Fifty airmen have been admitted to the base hospital with food poisoning traced to the noon meal at a dining hall Saturday.

The Air Force said cause of the poisoning would not be known until laboratory tests now under way have been completed.

Bill Outlawing Lie Detector Test Gains

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill making it illegal for a private business to require its employees or applicants for jobs to submit to a lie detector test was approved today by a Senate committee.

The labor committee sent the measure to the upper house floor for final legislative consideration. The bill was passed by the assembly earlier this month.

Assemblyman John T. Knox (D-Richmond), the author of the plan, said there was "serious doubt as to the reliability of this test."

He said that unless the bill becomes law "a man, as a result of a mechanical test, could be blacklisted for the rest of his life."

But opponents of the bill claimed that lie detector, or polygraph, tests were more reliable than aptitude tests or personal interviews as grounds for hiring or refusing to hire an employee.

Death Of Ex-Marinite Is Probed In Alaska

An inquest was slated today in Juneau, Alaska, in the shotgun death of Lawrence Tabor, 35, a former San Rafael resident, aboard a commercial fishing boat there last Monday.

Tabor's death was reported by his partner, Jack Pederson, as an accident.

But, said Mrs. William Currie of 145 Woodside Drive, San Rafael, the victim's sister, Tabor and Pederson had quarreled aboard the boat, which was anchored near an island off Juneau. She said a third man also was aboard.

Tabor and Pederson purchased the boat, Sitka, from Clarence Cain of San Rafael, had it outfitted in Sausalito, and sailed for Alaska early this year, Mrs. Currie said. Tabor had made his home with his sister for two years in about 1958-59.

Tabor, a native of Eureka, had been a commercial fisherman most of his adult life.

The body is being brought to San Rafael for funeral services Wednesday at 11 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

Besides his sister, Tabor leaves a brother and half-brother, Charles Tabor, with the U. S. Army in Germany, and Norman J. Gorden of Oakland, and his mother, Mrs. Martha F. Tabor of Wyoming.

Four Navy Fliers Lost In Crash

HONOLULU (AP) — A twin-engine Navy plane flying a search mission for the aircraft carrier Kearsarge crashed in the Pacific south of Hawaii yesterday and the four men aboard are presumed lost.

A Pearl Harbor spokesman said the S2-F plane went down while searching for a crashed helicopter whose crew later was rescued.

Revenue Move

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Assembly today approved, over Republican protests, a bill to decrease the state's gift tax exemption from $4,000 to $3,000 —and raise $500,000 a year in new revenue.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Arlene Francis Injured In Accident

NEW YORK (AP)—Actress Arlene Francis, a panelist on the television program "What's My Line?", was reported in satisfactory condition today after an automobile collision in which she was injured and another woman was killed.

Francis

The Boston-born actress was replaced on "What's My Line?" last night by singer Kitty Carlisle.

Miss Francis, 55, was en route to Manhattan to appear on the show, when her auto skidded on wet pavement and collided head on with another auto. Police said she apparently had tried to stop her car because of a minor accident ahead of her.

Killed in the collision with the actress' car was Rose Arcos, 34, of Brooklyn. Her husband, Joseph, also 34, who was driving, and three other passengers in his car were injured, two of them critically.

Africa Nations Unite

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (UPI)—Thirty African nations, united for the first time in the Organization of African Unity, promised yesterday to fight to end white rule in colonies but stay out of U.S. racial troubles.

President Sekou Toure of Guinea outlined OAU policy in a news conference following the signature of the organization's charter. He said Africa condemns discrimination against Negroes in Alabama, but he praised President John F. Kennedy's efforts at protecting civil rights.

"We are backing this government in its struggle but we cannot intervene in the struggle," he said.

Dinah Shore Marries Contractor

REDLANDS (UPI) — Television star Dinah Shore was married yesterday to Palm Springs contractor Maurice F. Smith—only two days after the blonde singer picked up the final divorce from her first marriage to George Montgomery.

Shore

The wedding, attended by Miss Shore's two children was a surprise to her friends in Hollywood.

The quiet civil ceremony was performed at the home of Superior Judge Joseph Ciano here. Besides Miss Shore's children, Melissa Ann, 15, and John David, 10, others attending were Smith's two sons, Dexter, 12, and Dana, 5.

Korea Strongman Nominated

SEOUL (UPI) — Military strongman Gen. Park Chung Hee today was nominated as a presidential candidate in the elections his junta has promised to hold this year.

Park, who came to power two years ago this month in a military coup, said he is willing to run but will withhold formal candidacy for the present.

Mountaineers Are Brought Down

KATMANDU, Nepal (UPI)—Two American mountaineers were brought down off Mount Everest by helicopter today for emergency treatment of frostbitten toes.

William Unsoeld, 36, of Corvallis, Ore., and Barry C. Bishop, 30, of Washington, D.C., were set down gently on a pad near the hospital and were welcomed by their anxious wives.

Meredith's View

WASHINGTON (UPI) — James Meredith, the first Negro to enroll in the University of Mississippi, today urged Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy to press for stronger civil rights legislation.

Meredith met with the attorney general for about 10 minutes today and said "we discussed the Mississippi situation in general."

Meredith said the meeting was arranged by Kennedy after the Negro student appeared on television's meet the press last night.

Miles Of Freeways

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California now has 2,584 miles of multi-lane highways, State Highway Engineer J. C. Womack reports. He said in a study released Saturday that 214 more miles of freeways opened last year, and another 400 are under construction. The freeway system saves 100 lives a day, he estimated.

Congress Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate faces a three-day flurry of activity before closing down late Wednesday for an extended Memorial Day weekend. The pace in the House will be more leisurely.

An 840-million-dollar program dealing with the problems of mental illnesses and mental retardation heads the Senate's list today.

The House has a light schedule for the week. Its only announced business is a bill to extend the Mexican farm labor program for two years.

Ballots Place Sen. Goldwater Way Out Front

Ballots were mailed in mid-April to 1,331 delegates and 707 replies were received.

The poll by the Phoenix afternoon daily asked the delegates to list the candidates they would support in the next election. The results showed:

Goldwater 339 votes for 48 per cent.

Michigan Gov. George Romney 24, 3.4 per cent.

Sen. Thruston B. Morton (R-Ky.), 5, .9 per cent.

Oregon Gov. Mark Hatfield, 4, .6 per cent.

Those receiving one vote each were former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Henry Ford II, Robert Hutchins and former Sen. William Knowland of California.

The ballots were distributed a few weeks before Rockefeller's remarriage. About 100 of the ballots were returned, however, well after the event.

Siamese Twin Rodney Brodie Dies At 11

FERRIS, Ill. (AP) — Rodney D. Brodie, who was separated from his Siamese twin brother in a historic operation more than a decade ago, died yesterday at his home at the age of 11.

His grandmother, Mrs. Will Brodie of Burnside, Ill., said the boy had been in a slow decline for about eight months.

Dr. J. D. Trotter of Carthage, Ill., who treated the boy, said death was due to an abnormal condition existing at birth, but inability to swallow food was the immediate cause.

Rodney and his brother, Roger Lee Brodie, were joined at the head when they were born Sept. 16, 1961, at Rock Island, Ill.

They were separated in an operation at Chicago Research Hospital when they were 15 months old.

Consumer Measure

Brown issued the plea yesterday for support of a bill to set up a state natural gas coordinator who would represent the public before the Federal Power Commission and State Public Utilities Commission.

Priest 70 Years

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The Most Rev. Edmund F. Gibbons, at 94 the oldest Roman Catholic prelate living in the United States, observed today the 70th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

St. Peter's Hospital, where he lives, said it was to be a quiet and routine day for the retired bishop of the Albany diocese.

Birmingham Schools Ruling Due Amidst Racial Unrest

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A federal court ruling is due today or tomorrow on Negro efforts to desegregate schools in Birmingham, largest city in Alabama and focal point of racial unrest for weeks.

U.S. Dist. Judge Seybourne H. Lynne said yesterday he will announce his decision by tomorrow. It will be the fifth court ruling within a week on Birmingham issues.

It will come just three weeks before two Negroes, backed by orders of another federal judge, plan to present themselves for admission into white units of the University of Alabama system—one at the main university campus at Tuscaloosa, the other at a branch at Huntsville.

Gov. George C. Wallace has vowed a stand-in-the-door policy to maintain segregation in Alabama's schools. He has said he will be on hand personally to block admission of a Negro at the university for the term beginning June 10.

Two suits are involved in the public school litigation before Lynne. The first, filed in 1960, attacks Alabama's pupil placement law, which has been upheld on its face by the U.S. Supreme Court. The law gives local school boards broad authority in assigning pupils to schools.

The second, filed last year, seeks an injunction wiping out the entire segregation system in Birmingham schools. Both are class actions, which means they seek relief on behalf of all Negroes.

About 500 riot-trained federal soldiers have been pulled out of a Montgomery base, 90 miles south of Birmingham, but 2,500 federal troops remain at Anniston, 60 miles east.

In developments elsewhere:

An estimated 35,000 persons packed Wrigley Field at Los Angeles for a three-hour rally for civil rights. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Southern integration leader, shared the stage with several Hollywood stars. King urged that President John F. Kennedy personally escort the two Negro students to the white university units.

Ku Klux Klan Wizard Robert Shelton of Tuscaloosa, Ala., said at an Atlanta rally of the robed order that the KKK will join Gov. Wallace in standing in the door to prevent integration of the university.

The Louisiana Legislature gave final approval to a vote of censure for what it called a federal threat of "government by bayonet" in Alabama.

A parade of about 12,000 persons, most of them Negroes, was staged Sunday along San Francisco's Market Street in a demonstration demanding an end to Birmingham's troubles, and calling for an end to racial bias in the California city.

Attorney Paul Zuber, a Negro who has been active in integration moves, said in New York he was withdrawing from such efforts and called for a merger of all Negro action groups, except the Black Muslims.

A Negro spokesman in Greensboro, N.C., said integration leaders are trying to be "as open minded as we possibly can" in that city's racial troubles. He said a 48-hour no-demonstrations truce might be extended past its deadline of 4 p.m. today.

In Albany, Ga., a major integration target last year, 16 persons jailed for demonstrations have pledged a hunger strike.

Senators Offer Test-Ban Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) teamed up in a surprise move today in suggesting the United States offer the Soviet Union an agreement to ban atmospheric and underwater nuclear tests.

The two Democrats, who differ sharply over the adequacy of Kennedy administration proposals for a comprehensive treaty banning all nuclear weapons testing, found common ground on a first-step proposal.

They proposed a resolution asking Washington to offer Moscow an agreement to halt tests that "contaminate the atmosphere or the oceans." Twenty-two other Democrats and six Republican senators signed the resolution with them for introduction in the Senate.

Humphrey and Dodd emphasized the resolution would impose no restrictions on underground testing or on testing in outer space which would not contaminate the atmosphere.

Dodd, in a speech prepared for Senate delivery, paid high tribute to Humphrey, assistant Senate Democratic leader, as "a champion of peace and disarmament." He called the Minnesotan "the logical candidate" for the next Nobel Peace Prize.

The resolution stipulates that if the Soviet Union refuses to sign the first-step agreement, "we commit ourselves before the world to conduct no nuclear tests in the atmosphere or underwater so long as the Soviet Union abstains from them."

But it specifies that in committing the United States to such a moratorium this government should bear in mind the Soviet record of "deceit and bad faith" and maintain its testing facilities in a state of constant readiness so it will not be caught napping if the Soviets should "suddenly resume nuclear testing in the atmosphere or underwater."

Emmy For Shirley Booth

Even the President John F. got one.

CBS' courtroom drama, "The Defenders," was top winner with five awards. Its star, E. G. Marshall, encored as outstanding actor in a dramatic series. The show also picked up Emmies for dramatic writing, directing and film editing.

It was the second time around for Shirley Booth's bossy maid, "Hazel," the best series actress, and Don Knott's bumbling deputy Barney Fife in "The Andy Griffith Show," best actor in a supporting role.

"The Tunnel," NBC's controversial documentary showing East Berliners digging their way to freedom beneath the Berlin wall, was named program of the year. It also took honors as best documentary and for its narrator, NBC Berlin correspondent Piers Anderton, for international reporting.

Actress June Allyson dissolved in tears when the Television Academy presented a posthumous Television Academy Trustee Award to her late husband actor-producer Dick Powell for his contributions to the industry. Powell died last year of cancer. The award was accepted by his former partners in Four-Star Productions, actor David Niven and Charles Boyer.

The trustees also presented an award to President Kennedy for "his willingness to expose his thoughts and feelings to his fellow countrymen" in his regular news conferences. Mrs. Kennedy won an Emmy last year for her "Tour of the White House."

Another special award was presented to American Telephone and Telegraph Co. which launched the Telestar communications satellite last year.

Newlywed comedienne Carol Burnett got a wedding present in a golden Emmy for the outstanding performance in a variety show, "Julie and Carol at Carnegie Hall." She also won the award last year. The program, in which Miss Burnett co-starred with singer Julie Andrews, was named the year's outstanding musical program.

"The Dick Van Dyke Show" nosed out the favored "Beverly Hillbillies" as the year's funniest series. Its writer, Carl Reiner, and director, John Rich, also won Emmies. It was the fifth Emmy for Reiner, onetime second banana on the Sid Caesar show.

Two of the winners haven't been renewed—"David Brinkley's Journal," which won, as it did last year, the prize as outstanding public affairs program, and "The Andy Williams Show," named best variety program.

A Ben Casey segment, "A Cardinal Act of Mercy," picked up awards for its star, Kim Stanley, for the best single performances by an actress, and for veteran Glenda Farrell, as best supporting actress. Miss Stanley played a woman lawyer addicted to narcotics, and Miss Farrell, a nurse.

British actor Trevor Howard's portrayal as "The Invincible Mr. Disraeli" won laurels for the outstanding single performance by an actor. The show, produced by Hallmark Hall of Fame, also won a prize for its camera work.

NBC swept the news and special events divisions. For the fifth year in a row, the team of Chet Huntley and David Brinkley was cited the best news show.

Hawk's Eggs Hunter Injured In Fall From Marin Cliff

A Daly City man plunged 150 feet from a Point Reyes Peninsula cliff Saturday while searching for hawk's eggs, but escaped only with a possible cracked pelvis, bruised arm, and scratches.

Kenneth Gammon, 31, was in satisfactory condition today at Marin General Hospital where he was taken after the 2:30 p.m. accident.

Gammon was hunting eggs near Kehoe Beach, halfway out on Pierce Point, with a rope tied to one wrist. According to sheriff's deputies, he peered over the edge of the cliff into a hawk's nest and slipped.

He was held by the rope for 10 minutes, while dangling over the rocky beach. The rope parted and he fell.

Gammon lay on the beach while County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom and firemen Howard Lee and Lloyd Mery worked their way down to him. He was brought back up by stretcher.

A friend of Gammon's, Ed Ng of San Francisco, ran to the Kehoe ranch to summon help when Gammon fell.

San Anselmo Council To Name New City Fire Chief Tomorrow

San Anselmo City Council will appoint a new fire chief tomorrow night to succeed retiring Chief Nello Marcucci.

Tomorrow's regular meeting of the city council is set for 8 p.m. in the city hall.

Of the three men who are eligible for the chief's job, Asst. Fire Chief Francis Sousa appears to be the likeliest to be picked for the top post. The other two are Capt. William Rawlins and Capt. Richard McLaran.

A public hearing will be held on Robert Ryan's request for rezoning of 10 acres at the end of Sonoma Avenue from multiple residential to planned development zone. Thirty apartment units are planned there. The city planning commission has recommended approval of the rezoning.

The council will consider a petition that open understructure of a new home at 14 Island Drive be enclosed.

Migrants From Mountains Aided

BEREA, Ky. (AP)—The Council of the Southern Mountains is establishing an office in Chicago to help migrants from mountain communities adjust to city life.

The office is part of a multipurpose program the council is developing for people of economically depressed mountain regions.

The council will encourage mountain people to develop skills and job opportunties that will enable them to make a contribution to their new community and will offer them advice on their move to the city.

Another part of the program will encourage creation of employment facilities in the Appalachian South to make good use of natural and personal resources of the region.

Graduating Youth To Be Commissioned

Robert M. Weber, son of Patricia Weber of 2421 Fifth Avenue and the late Lt. Com. Robert L. Weber, USNR, will graduate Friday from Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, and will be commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Force after his training in the school's Reserve Officers Training Corps unit.

He will be based at Francis E. Warren Air Force Base, Cheyenne, Wyo.

Larkspur Meeting

The Larkspur City Council, Planning Commission and Park and Recreation Commission will discuss a general plan program and zoning ordinance procedures at the city hall June 4 at 8 p.m.

Library Money Raised At Sale

The San Rafael City Library raised "close to $700" during its book sale Friday and Saturday, Mrs. Vivian Smith, chief librarian, reported today.

The money will go toward starting a library record collection that will be available for circulation this fall, Mrs. Smith said.

The library also added about 100 books to its shelves from among the books donated for the sale. About 1,500 books were sold.

Girl To Graduate

Paula Jane Merret, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Russell Merret, 75 Rock Road, Kentfield, will receive a bachelor of science degree in health and physical education Sunday at commencement exercises at Lewis and Clark College, Portland, Ore.

To Language Institute

Erwin Peterson of San Francisco, a teacher of French at Tamalpais High School, Mill Valley, will attend a language institute at the College of St. Teresa, Winona, Minn., June 17-Aug. 2. under the National Defense Education Act.

Two Sent To Hospital After Woodacre Brawl

A brawl at a Woodacre party sent Mr. and Mrs. Jose A. Silva to a hospital Saturday night, she with a deep cut in the left arm and he with head injuries.

Deputy Sheriff Robert Bertrand said the fight started at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bohman on Railroad Avenue in Woodacre, but the exact cause of the flare-up was not learned.

Two young boys, who watched the melee from the patio, told Deputy Bertrand "everybody was fighting," and one person was hit with a portable phonograph and another with a wash tub with ice in it.

Silva, who is in his 40s, said he did not know what the fight was about, but all of a sudden he was knocked to the ground and a mass of young men beat him up. Silva is a heavy equipment operator.

Mrs. Helen Clare Bohman told the officer she and her husband, Roy, were giving a party for their son, John, who got married a few weeks ago. Everyone was having a good time. Mrs. Bohman said Mrs. Silva began using nasty language, and slaped Mrs. Robert B. Moore of Lagunitas several times.

All of a sudden, Robert Moore hit Joe Silva, Mrs. Bohman recalled, and the fight was on. Mrs. Bohman said Mrs. Silva jumped into the middle of the fighting.

Mrs. Silva was hospitalized at Marin General Hospital with a deep cut in the left arm. The extent of injury to Silva was not known.

Woman Dies Swallowing Vegetables

A 55-year-old Sausalito woman died Saturday night after a piece of lettuce and tomato, which she swallowed while preparing dinner on a boat, stuck in her throat.

Mrs. Lucretya Smith Henry, 55, of 86 Bulkley Avenue was pronounced dead by a doctor at 7:45 p.m. shortly after she swallowed the lettuce and tomato.

Mrs. Henry, a bookkeeper, was preparing dinner for herself and her husband when she collapsed on a bunk in their boat, tied to a berth at the Sausalito Yacht Harbor.

William Bradley, assistant county coroner, said the food blocked Mrs. Henry's respiratory system.

Mrs. Henry, a resident of Marin for six years, is survived by her husband, Theodore, sales representative for a law book distributor, and a son and daughter, Richard Gurley and Mrs. James Thornhill of Phoenix, Ariz.

"We will set up an emergency meeting at which all chamber members will be invited to attend," Blakely said.

The council has proposed hiking business licenses one-third, which means that the majority of merchants would pay $48 instead of $36 per year. Those outside the city would pay $54. The increases would mean about $9,000 more in the city's coffers.

"Why does a small business like mine or a shoe store have to pay the same as one such as Safeway?" asked Harriet Wilton, owner of Wilton's pet supplies, today. "A lot of truck drivers come into town and don't even have a license. They should check on those.

"The city should have parking meters in the Locust district, too," Mrs. Wilton added.

De Anza Sarcophagus Marble Flown Out

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two Army planes took off today for Arizpe, Sonora, Mexico, with carved marble slabs which will become the sarcophagus of Juan Bautista de Anza, founder of San Francisco.

As a Spanish captain, de Anza led the first exploration party into Northern California and camped March 27, 1776, on a site overlooking the Golden Gate. He named the site Presidio de San Francisco.

Freeway Bids

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The State Division of Highways today announced it would call for bids this week on a 7.2-million-dollar freeway project in Riverside and San Bernardino counties.

men and that the account was at the bank.

Lipset said he could not understand why the bank manager would not say more about a $48 account if a phone check was made all the way from Brazil.

Since the check was stopped, and therefore did not bounce, San Francisco authorities have filed no complaint.

Sauer is now on his way to Paris to contact Interpol, the international police organization, to try to track down the pair, last reported heading from Rome to Venezuela or Mexico.

Meanwhile, locally, several creditors are considering what they can do about deSenan's promotion, the Tar Island Corp., which was supposd to open a restaurant

DeSenan reportedly moved from Kentfield about two years ago.

Sauer said he recovered $11,000 worth of jewels from another associate of deSenan's, who claims he was also taken for $15,000 in the operation.

According to Sauer, the pair arrived in Brazil, passing out $2 cigars and appearing to be generally well to do, and purchased $42,800 worth of gems, which they paid for with a postdated check, also stopped before it reached the bank.

Four Cars Stolen During 11 Days In Mill Valley

Four cars, three of them reportedly locked and one with keys left in it, were stolen in Mill Valley over the past 11 days, police said today.

Ina Sashsa of 390 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley, reported her 1956 Chevrolet taken Saturday from the Jolly stores parking lot. Elmer J. Basey, 490 Edgewood Avenue, reported his 1959 blue Rambler taken Friday from 127 Throckmorton Avenue, and Robert E. Peterson of 30 Magee Avenue said his 1960 gray Morris Minor was taken Tuesday from in front of his home.

Carol Newton of 105 La Pasado, San Rafael, reported her 1954 Ford two-door sedan stolen May 16 from the Purity Store lot in Mill Valley. Miss Newton said the keys had been left in the car.

1,500 Attend Terra Linda World Fair

More than 1,500 people turned out Saturday for the second annual Terra Linda High School fair to assure at least a dozen $100 scholarships for Terra Linda seniors next year.

"We collected at least as much money this year as we did for the first fair," said Vince La Porte of the high school Parent-Teacher Assn. which sponsored the fair. "The weather was good, and we had a great crowd."

Proceeds from the fair will be shared by school service clubs and the P-TA scholarship fund. This year, a dozen $100 scholarships were given to outstanding seniors from money collected last year.

Nancy Palacio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matias D. Palacio of 100 Garden Avenue, Santa Venetia, was crowned "My Fair Lady," queen of the fair Saturday afternoon. She was one of five queen contestants. She reigned during the afternoon and at the aquacade in the evening.

One of the most popular games at the fair, according to La Porte, was a "dunking" game in which Terra High principal Webster Wilson volunteered as a target.

Bill Schallock President At Tam High

Junior officers will be Sandy Norush, vice president; Laurie Lacey, secretary and Joyce Williams, treasurer.

The Man Behind Machine Blamed

Data-processing equipment is being used more and more widely by the public schools to make class assignments, keep grade records and the like. But sometimes the machines slip up, as they did at Myers Park High School in Charlotte, N.C.

The result, according to the National Education Assn. publication, "Education U.S.A.":

One girl received a monotonous schedule with several lunch periods; another had only one lunch period, but it was at 8:45 a.m.; a student who had flunked French I three times found himself promoted to French IV; and another student almost got away with a restful semester—three study halls.

Some 15 per cent of the 92 million persons counted in the 1910 census were foreign-born as against only 5 per cent of the 179.3 million counted in 1960.

Salk Institute Gets Land At San Diego

By WALTER GRAY

SAN DIEGO (AP)—The Salk Institute for Biological Studies is under construction on a cliffside overlooking a stretch of chalk beach where the blue and emerald waters of the Pacific came to rest and roll back out to sea.

Situated atop Torrey Pines Mesa, the institute will tower above a grove of gnarled dwarf pines which cling to the face of a crumbling, yellowish sandstone cliff.

The spot has attracted others, notably a group of millionaires who vied with Dr. Jonas Salk for it.

They offered to pay 2.5 million dollars for a 50-year lease of the property and intended to convert it into an executive golf course. A spokesman for the group told the San Diego City Council: "Top pros have said it would make it one of the finest golf courses in the world."

Typically, Dr. Salk took no part in public discussion of contending proposals for use of the one million dollar plot of land and eventually it was awarded to his sponsor —the National Foundation.

Dr. Salk, who developed the antipolio vaccine 10 years ago, has been quoted as having called the site "Utopia." But in an interview he said he hadn't.

The institute will be a 15-million-dollar plant with two deluxe laboratories where a body of bio-chemists will begin their research not later than July 1964. One of Dr. Salk's aides said some of the scientists will start to work in a temporary laboratory at the institute within three months.

Later on, philosophers, historians of science and others will join the staff.

Research at the institute will be unhampered by pressure. There will be no crash projects undertaken to lick a single, devastating disease, for instance, cancer, or to develop a particular thing, such as an atom bomb.

Dr. Salk at present is experimenting with viruses and predicts that it will one day be possible to control as many as 100 diseases with a single, over-all antivirus vaccine.

"The way to fight cancer is to immunize man from all viruses that affect him," he said. "It may be a shotgun approach but it may be the only way."

On the road to such a discovery, however, it is possible that the very roots of nature will be tapped—with far-reaching effects.

For instance, scientists probing the biological nature of man could turn up a method of altering personality patterns, potentially a contribution to the mental and spiritual well-being of man.

But such a discovery, if it falls into the laps of evil-doers or even well-intentioned bunglers, could sound the death knell for some of the most cherished values of Western civilization: uniqueness of character and individual freedom.

How could such a discovery be controlled?

Seated in a black swivel chair behind a neat, modern desk, Dr. Salk said in carefully measured words that there is a difference between the workings of the minds of scientists and laymen, such as newsmen.

"Your focus is prospective, you are looking ahead to discover what might happen—what might be news," he said. "Mine is perspective—looking at what has gone before."

OBITUARIES

Charles J. Pedroli Dies At 84

Charles J. Pedroli, 84, a retired carpenter of 123 Union Street, San Rafael, died at his home yesterday after a six-month illness.

Pedroli had worked for the Northwestern Pacific Railroad for 40 years before he retired 19 years ago.

A native of Italy, he had lived in Marin County 50 years.

He is survived by a daughter, Mary Pedroli, with whom he mad his home; a brother, Pasqualino Pedroli of Italy, and a granddaughter.

Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Keaton's Mortuary Chapel, San Rafael. A Requiem Mass will be celebrated at St. Raphael's church at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

MARTHA GREEN

Funeral for Martha Domrowe Green, San Anselmo, 32-year resident of Marin County who died Saturday in a local hospital after a short illness, will be held Wednesday at 11 a.m. at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

Burial will be in Cypress Lawn Memorial Park, Colma.

Mrs. Green, 70, was the widow of Stanley Green, retired superintendent of inspection for the California Inspection Rating Bureau. She lived at 11 Sturdivant Avenue.

She was a native of San Francisco.

MARIE RICKETS

A Requiem Mass for Mrs. Marie A. Rickets of 321 Greenfield Avenue, San Anselmo, will be said tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at St. Anselm's Church, San Anselmo.

Mrs. Rickets, 53, a resident of Marin County for 14 years, died in her home Saturday after a short illness. She had complained of being tired and was taking diet pills, according to William Bradley, assistant county coroner.

An autopsy was performed yesterday. Pathologist's reports will be available in about a week, Bradley said.

Mrs. Rickets, a native of San Jose, was a member of the Auxiliary to San Rafael Aerie 256, Fraternal Order of Eagles.

She is survived by her husband, William, an electrician; two sons and two daughters, William E. Rickets Jr. of Fairfax, Donald F. Rickets and Linda Rickets of San Anselmo and Mrs. Rose Marie Kilpatrick of San Rafael; her mother, Mrs. Emma Schaefer, and a brother, Carl Schaefer, both of San Jose, and one grandchild.

Eagle Auxiliary memorial services will be held at 7:30 p.m. today. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Interment will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

College War Memorial Tomorrow

Memorial services for College of Marin students who died in World War II and the Korean War will be held on the campus lawn by the flag pole at 12:15 p.m. tomorrow.

Rear Adm. John I. Kinert retired, of San Francisco, commander of a South Pacific submarine task force, will give the opening address. He will be flanked by an honor guard from the Marin Marines.

Three awards will be presented.

College Vice President Paul Clymer will present the Bud Sullivan award, a gold medal, to the most inspirational athlete, in memory of a student killed in World War II.

Dean of students Irwin P. Diamond will present the Dick Signorelli award, the student's name inscribed in a trophy, to the most talented baseball player, in memory of a 1952 baseball team member killed in a accident en route to a game.

Diamond will present a second Signorelli award, a $100 scholarship, to the student with the most outstanding citizenship and scholastic record.

If farmers today used 1940 equipment and methods, it would add more than $5 a week to each U.S. family's bill for farm products.

Marinite Elected To Players Board

Boris Lakusta of San Rafael has been elected to the board of the San Francisco Players Guild, Arthur B. Poole, president, reported today.

The guild presented 234 performances of the "Wonderful Wizard of Oz" for school children in the season just completed, Poole said.

Coins Stolen

A coin dispensing machine in a 24-hour laundromat at 265 Shoreline Highway was pried open Thursday between noon and 10:10 p.m. and $72 in quarters were taken, Woodley B. Smith, laundromat operator, reported to sheriff's deputies Friday.

Wallet Stolen

Theft of $64 from a wallet in a locked locker at Vic Tanny Gym, 823 Fourth Street, San Rafael, was reported to San Rafael police by William Wesley Holt of 6 Bank Street, San Anselmo, Saturday at 2:11 p.m. Police noted that lockers could easily be forced open.

An old-style country fair, complete with noisy livestock, baked goods, prancing horses, and an outdoor barbecue, drew throngs Saturday to Rancho Nicasio.

The Nicasio 4-H Club Fair included home dressmaking, woodworking and forestry exhibits, showmanship and breed hibits; showmanship and breed cattle; a tractor driving contest, booths selling everything from homemade "white elephants" to feathers and "warpaint" for would-be Indian braves, and a horse show. Lunch was an outdoor chicken barbecue.

Trophy winners were:

Three Sleepy Hollow Boys Capture Rattler

Steve Hale, 9, of 35 Garden Rock Road, Sleepy Hollow, has five rattles from a snake's tail to prove he killed a two-foot rattler yesterday afternoon in his back yard.

Steve had help from two buddies, Randy Fitch of 25 Garden Rock Road and Peter Van Arnum of 101 Van Winkle Drive, also 9 years old.

The boys stoned the rattler into submission about 3 p.m. yesterday in an open hill above the Garden Rock Road cul-de-sac. Peter first spotted the snake, which dashed into a crevice.

"A little while later, I saw a head bobbing up and down," said Steve. "Then the full body was almost out. I threw a rock and missed. Randy then hit him in the tail."

Steve said the snake was still twitching when he picked it up by the tail and delivered it to Randy's father, Charles Fitch, who cut off the head.

"I kept the tail; it has five rattles," Steve announced proudly.

Steve's mother, Mrs. H. F. Hale, was able to laugh about the incident this morning, but she said she was horrified at the time.

Police and sheriff's deputies have warned that there are rattlers in the county, and children should be advised of the danger.

They're Studying History Of Russia At Tamalpais High

By BRUCE COLEMAN

"Ten years ago you wouldn't have found kids talking this way. Things were so negative concerning the Soviet Union. Now I think it's more reasonable."

C. E. (Si) Beattie was speaking of his students in Russian history which he teaches at Tamalpais High School. In one semester, the students go from prehistoric Russia through Ivan the Terrible and to the present day.

Students Friday discussed an article "The Failure of Communism—and What it Portends" written by Oscar Handlin, Harvard history professor, for the Atlantic Monthly.

Beattie first asked a panel of four, headed by Bill Nelson, each a question on the article, then it was thrown open to class discussion. For the last five minutes Beattie summed up. A test will follow.

The panel, in the main, agreed that the 1961 party draft, as the 1936 new constitution, was to cover up economic failures in the Soviet Union. Students were candid in their opinions.

"I dislike this article," commented Vagadu Varda, "because it tries to compare modern day Russia with the West . . . I don't like his (Handlin's) use of words. They are too dramatic. The failure of Communism . . . it sounds as though they were on the rocks completely."

"I feel Communism has failed regardless of how the factory worker has gained," said Ken Robin. "The communists have to compromise to achieve these gains and compromise, according to Marx, is an impossibility."

Said Guy Howard: "The Russian government gives an excuse for whatever it does. They have compromised. The Chinese consider themselves pure Marxists."

"Failure is a pretty strong word," claimed one student. "If you say Communism has failed because they have deviated from some of their basic premises you can say the same for Democracy. I don't think either has completely failed."

"They (Russians) have failed to do what they say should be done," said Robin.

"This is a trivial argument," commented Carole Kitchens. "Obviously they have in some ways compromised but I don't think that's the essence of the issue. The main thing right now is economic.

"It doesn't seem," she continued, "that there is anyone (in Russia) with any real initiative. It's so mechanical. They are not thinking this thing out. They wouldn't build a hotel in Burma that really looks like it would fit in Moscow. There doesn't seem to be anybody steering."

Allison Hood suggested Russia is number one in space power but doesn't care much about consumer goods. "You can't say the Soviet Union has failed on the world scene . . . they live for working. They live for their country. They don't care how they dress as long as they are first in everything."

"I don't think there is such a vast difference between the U.S. and Russia," commented Howard. Chuck Collins concurred saying "the two societies are leaning toward each other. I doubt if their society would be able to survive at all if their average living standard comes up to us."

"It will be interesting to see what occurs as Russia's standard of living rises," Beattie said.

TAIL TWISTER FOR CHAMARITA

Tony Brazil of Muir Beach, littlest cowboy in Sausalito Saturday, was in training for his own version of "bull-dogging" as he helped keep order among the livestock at IDESST auction to raise funds for the Chamarita, Portuguese festival of the Holy Ghost which will be held next Saturday and Sunday. One calf was auctioned over and over again at the event, with some cattle donated to be butchered for the dinner that will be a part of the festival. A parade at 9:30 a.m. Sunday from IDESST Hall will highlight the celebration, followed by 10:30 a.m. Mass at Star of the Sea Church. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

Large Crowd At Holy Ghost Fete In Novato

The largest crowd in the history of the Novato Holy Ghost celebration attended the festival yesterday, said Manuel Brazil, president of the Portuguese Society in Novato. More than 1,000 meals were served.

People came from all over Marin, Sonoma and Contra Costa counties, and some from as far away as Santa Clara, Brazil said.

The parade formed at the IDESI Hall on Sweetzer Avenue at 9:30 a.m. and marched up to Our Lady of Loretto church on Novato Boulevard, where the queens were crowned. Refreshments and dancing were held all day at the IDESI Hall.

"I want to thank all the people who assisted in making this the bigegst celebration yet," Brazil said.

Panel Truck Stolen At Marin City Home

Honor Jackson of 231 Drake Avenue, Marin City, reported to sheriff's deputies yesterday the theft of his 1951 Chevrolet panel truck, parked in front of his home.

Jackson said the truck was taken between 7 p.m. Saturday and 7:45 a.m. yesterday. In the truck was $1,094 worth of cleaning supplies and equipment, he said.

Education Board Will Discuss San Rafael High School Needs

A report on future needs of high schools in San Rafael will be heard when the San Rafael Board of Education meets at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the San Rafael schools administration building at 215 Mission Avenue, San Rafael.

Architects Carl Gromme and Ralph Priestly will make recommendations for the renovation of San Rafael High School. The board will also review a five year projection of required financing for improvements and expansion in both San Rafael and Terra Linda high schools.

Several requests from parents for the board to declare a legal holiday May 31 will be considered. A revised preliminary budget will be discussed by the board, and a policy on senior graduation parties will be presented.

The board will also act on several resignations and appointments, including the resignation of Mrs. Eva Longley, who is retiring after 20 years with the elementary district.

Wrong-way Car: 3 Hurt

A 17-year old motorist was cited for driving on the wrong side of the road after a head-on auto crash yesterday on Highway 101 south of the San Rafael Overhead which sent three persons to hospitals.

Cited in the San Rafael accident was Louis Joseph Boss of 1228 Grand Avenue, San Rafael. He suffered forehead cuts, received emergency treatment at San Rafael General Hospital and was released from Kaiser Foundation Hospital in San Francisco after further treatment there.

Also injured were Joseph C. Granville, 64, and Elizabeth Lupp, 76, both of 15 Maple Avenue, Kentfield. She was reported in fair to good condition today at San Rafael General Hospital, with face cuts and other injuries. Granville was sent home after examination.

The California Highway Patrol reported Boss, southbound in a pickup truck, crossed the center line and slammed into Granville's northbound car, sending it slithering onto the island between the highway and the San Rafael turnoff, where it slammed into a light standard.

A chain-reaction three-car accident on highway 101 about one-half mile south of the blackpoint cutoff injured three persons about 7:25 p.m. yesterday.

A southbound car driven by Phyllis Ehrlich, 35, of Daly City hit the stopped car of Marley E. Tavenner, 53, of 157 Tumboldt Street, San Rafael. It in turn, hit a stopped car driven by Leandro J. Molinari, 60, of San Francisco.

Three in the Ehrlich car were to be treated by a private physician: Jules, 11, with mouth injuries, and Marla, 7, with a forehead bump, children of Mrs. Ehrlich, and Isaac Pritikin, 69, of San Francisco, with an injured right elbow.

A San Rafael woman was dragged by the car her husband was driving for at least 65 feet Saturday before he could stop the vehicle, according to San Rafael police.

Mrs. Earlene Chupco of the Wilkins Hotel was taken to San Rafael General Hospital but then refused treatment for skin burns and bruises, according to hospital officials.

James Leroy Chupco told police he was driving out of the city parking lot at Third and A streets at 1:20 p.m. when his wife ran in front of his car to attempt to stop him. He said they had just argued in their hotel room.

His wife's dress caught in the front chrome strip of the car, he said. Police estimated that he drove from 65 to 100 feet before stopping.

John Mollett Gallagher, 42, of 412 Jewell Street, San Rafael, was treated for a cut chin at San Rafael General Hospital last night after an automobile accident on the Miracle Mile and then booked in county jail by San Rafael police on a charge of drunken driving.

Gallagher, was driving west on Fourth Street when he hit the parked car of Willard Roswell Cox Jr., in front of Cox's home at 2036 Fourth Street at 9:22 p.m., police reported.

A 16-year-old San Rafael girl was injured yesterday at 11:55 a.m. when the car she was driving hit a power pole on Grand Avenue between Locust and Mountain View avenues.

Belinda Fries of 1654 Grand Avenue told police that she lost control of her car when she leaned down to pick somethink up off the floor.

She was in "satisfactory" condition today at San Rafael General Hospital with a cut face, scraped knee and bruised jaw and chest.

Vernon Allen Friend III, 11, of 12 Charlotte Drive, San Rafael, was treated for a broken collar bone Saturday at San Rafael General Hospital after the bicycle he was riding collided with a car at Canal and Sonoma streets in San Rafael at 2:43 p.m.

San Rafael police said the boy had trouble shifting gears on his new bicycle and headed into the intersection where a car driven by Daniel Basaric of 28 Gomez Way, Mill Valley, struck him.

Lois Mae Fisherbaugh, 25, of 78 Novato Street, San Rafael, was treated for a cut right knee yesterday at San Rafael General Hospital after the car she was driving hit an air compressor at Canal and Medway Road, San Rafael, at 3:47 a.m.

Mrs. Fisherbaugh told police she fell asleep at the wheel. She was cited for driving on the wrong side of the road and for not having her driver's license in her possession.

James Reynolds, 18, of 2111 Centro East Street, Tiburon, suffered a cut knee about 6:24 p.m. Saturday in the head-on collision of his motorcycle with a car in Corte Madera.

Lloyd Christie, 59, of 21 Morningside Drive, San Anselmo, suffered face cuts early today when his car hit a parked car on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, causing it to damage two other parked cars.

Christie was treated at Marin General Hospital after the crash about 4:15 a.m.

He was eastbound when he drove into the parked car of Arthur Erman of 1033 Sir Francis Drake, Kentfield, said California highway patrolmen Vincent Weimer and Richard Treadwell. The Erman car hit the car of Lawrence Wilson, 116 Jordan Avenue, San Anselmo, and it hit the car of Barbara Hofmann, 1031 Sir Francis Drake, Kentfield.

Sergeant Hurt In Auto Accident

S/Sgt. Jack M. White, 22, of the 78th Supply Squadron, was unconscious in Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital this morning from injuries received in an accident about 5 a.m. in Petaluma.

White, who lives in Petaluma, was driving south on Petaluma Boulevard about 290 feet south of Petaluma Creek when his car rolled for 250 feet, the California Highway Patrol reported.

White was taken to Petaluma General Hospital and transferred to Hamilton Air Force Base hospital. The CHP said details of why White's car overturned and left the road were lacking.

Hub Mother To Hospital

Mrs. Katherine Baylis, 22, of San Anselmo, mother of two, was taken to Napa State Hospital for 72-hour observation yesterday.

Deputy Sheriff Arthur V. Menjou said she suffered minor wrist slashes, apparently self-inflicted.

Mrs. Baylis, who lives with her husband and children at 404 San Francisco Boulevard, called San Anselmo police, who in turn notified the sheriff because the home is outside the city limits.

Radio System Is Cut From Novato Budget

A two-way radio system for the city of Novato was cut from the proposed 1963-64 budget last night by the Novato City Council.

City Administrator J. Julien Baget asked $3,225 to set up a radio system for the city. The council cut the request to $1,000.

Baget afterward said the city may be able to tie in with the North Marin County Water District's two-way radio.

The council cut the estimate of cost of heat and lights for new city buildings from $3,500 to $3,000.

Although former Mayor Wayne Womack, now president of the chamber of commerce, had asked for an increase to $7,500 in the city's budget for the chamber, it was left at $4,550. The garden club was allotted $360 a year to water the trees on Grant Avenue.

The Monte Maria Community Services District budget was tentatively approved as submitted last week by E. D. King, president of the Monte Maria Improvement Assn. It calls for a cut from $1840 to $1,630. This will make a reduction in the tax rate for that district from 45 to 35 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

The building inspection department budget was cut from $37,050 requested to $33,965. Biggest single cut here came in eliminating one car. The council approved an assistant building inspector at $7,170 per year.

The council adjourned to its regular meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

Ex-Rail Agent Found Dead

Edward Elijah Bower, 74, a retired passenger agent for Canadian National Railways, was found dead this morning in bed at his Kentfield home.

A bachelor, Bower was a resident of Marin County for 25 years and made his home at 4 Acacia Avenue.

Coroner Frank J. Keaton said Bower had complained of severe abdominal pains for the past two days but refused to see a doctor. He may have been suffering from cancer of the intestine, the coroner reported. An autopsy was to be performed today at Chapel of the Hills in San Anselmo, where the body was taken.

A neighbor, Louis Cheesewright, of 6 Acacia Avenue called the sheriff at 7 a.m. today. Sgt. Joseph E. Mooney and Deputy Raymond Tschirgi found Bower in bed with a magazine on the bed as if the victim had been reading. The light next to the bed was still burning.

Cheesewright told officers he saw Bower alive about 11:30 last night.

Showman Presides Over The Pumps

Coburn packs a pistol most of the time while at work. He explains that it's a hobby with him. A former professional marksman, Coburn keeps pistols handy at his station so he can practice shooting during idle moments.

"Too many people fail in business because they don't mix showmanship with it," he adds.

SUPERVISORS TO TAKE UP FAIR HOUSING PROPOSAL

Fair housing, a transportation study and completion of the Civic Center are among recommended programs which will be proposed tomorrow to the Marin County Board of Supervisors by members of the Citizens' Advisory Committee on Development of Marin County.

The committee was created in 1957, under fereral regulations for eligibility for redevlopment funds, with the purpose of reporting to the board on "matters which may affect Marin County, with particular attention to prevention of blight."

Since its last report in 1962, only two meetings have been held.

"This inadequate performance is due to repeated failure of the majority of the membership to participate actively," members Ernest Schallinger and Helen R. Anderson stated in a letter to the board.

Although deploring the committee's inability to make an official report, Schallinger and Mrs. Anderson said these matters need "serious" attention:

Fair housing opportunities for all Marin Citizens, with the suggested reactivation of the Marin County committee on Racial Discrimination.

Adoption as soon as possible of a time-table for completion of all phases of the Civic Center.

The board, which meets at 9 a.m. in the Civic Center, will also hear reports from the county medical department on responsibilities involving hospital and nursing home patients and from administrator Alan Bruce on current county costs for mental health programs.

A report on regional planning will be heard at 11 a.m. from the Assn. of Bay Area Governments.

The supervisors will meet again Wednesday to interview applicants for the job of chief county building inspector.

They will discuss the 1962 grand jury report Wednesday afternoon.

Five Due Interviews For Inspection Post

Five applicants, all out-of-county residents, will be interviewed Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. by the Marin County Board of Supervisors for the job of chief county building inspector.

The top five men were selected last Thursday by a personnel interview board. They were among 11 applicants semi-finalists of a total 45 who applied for the job.

Applicants who will be interviewed by the Board of Supervisors are Hans Berge of Oakland, C. Robert Bowman of Hayward, John Atkins of Merced, and William Hess and Robert Krueger of Fresno.

They will be competing for the job vacated by Otto H. Meyer, who resigned two months ago. Salary range for the new position will be from $871 to $955 a month.

The finalists were selected by a board including Norman B. Campbell, business representative of the Marin Council of Carpenters; E. Douglas Roberts of the Marin Builders Exchange; Ernest Friberg of the Associated Home Builders of Marin; Michael Scimens, chief of building services for Sacramento County, and R. J. Kraintz, Contra Costa County building inspector.

Wisconsin Plans For Big Cheese

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — The Wisconsin Cheesemakers Assn. has asked the legislature to spend $35,000 to help pay for a 24,000-pound cheddar cheese for display at the World's Fair in New York next year.

The cheese—nine and one-half feet in diameter and seven feet high—would be billed as the world's largest.

It would be made in Denmark—Wisconsin, that is.

Good Customers

CHICAGO (UPI) — In 1961, railroads used 3,382,000,000 gallons of diesel oil, 93,570,000 gallons of fuel oil, and 1,625,000,000 kilowatt hours of electricity to power their locomotives, reports the Assn. of Western Railways.

Marinites Becoming School Teachers

Albert D. Mahood, 104 Garden Avenue, and Claude P. Joyce Jr., 2160 Elderberry Lane, both of San Rafael, will be among 69 new public school teachers and administrators taking the state oath of allegiance tomorrow evening at the University of San Francisco.

Subdivision Maps On Tap In Novato

Subdivision maps will be the main items before the Novato Planning Commission when it meets at 8 p.m. today in the community house.

A tentative map of Jade Gardens of six lots on two acres north of Vallejo Avenue has been submitted by McGillicuddy, Inc. Gus Ravetz is asking approval for a tentative map of Redwood Gardens of four lots on five acres between Cerro Vista Unit 3 and Highway 101. A tentative map for Holiday Park Unit 1 of 37 lots on 14 acres has been submitted for the area adjacent to Forest Park Unit 3, by Sequoia Savings and Loan Assn.

L. J. Peterson is asking approval to divide three acres at 752 McClay Road into three lots. Harte Construction Co. is submitting a preliminary map of two lots on 22,000 square feet on Hayden Avenue.

Edgar J. Garavatti seeks rezoning from limited agricultural to multiple family of one and one-half acres on Dusel Court across from Hamilton Air Force Base. George Schilling seeks rezoning from administrative-professional to general commercial of one acre at Court Road and George Avenue.

Youths Hit Sheriff's Car With Bottles

Between 10 and 15 Marin City youths pelted a sheriff's office car Saturday at 11:30 p.m. with bottles and rocks when it pulled up at Drake Avenue and Cole Drive to disperse a crowd.

Occupants of the car, Deputy James L. Current and Reserve Deputy David Salkeld, said the car was not damaged. They were unable to catch the youths.

Watch Your Money

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Secret Service reports the public lost more than a half million dollars because of counterfeit money in fiscal 1962. The T-men say $20 bills are currently the most frequently counterfeited.

Memphis Told To Desegregate Parks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court today ordered the city of Memphis to immediately begin desegregating its parks, libraries and museums. It also said in strong language that Southern communities are moving too slowly in integrating their schools.

The unanimous decision rejected a Memphis proposal for gradually opening its park and recreation facilities to white and Negroes alike. The city had claimed this was permissible under the "all deliberate speed" doctrine set out by the court in its keystone 1955 school edict.

Speaking for the court, Justice Arthur J. Goldberg held that Constitutional rights of Negroes were being violated by the delay and that desegregation should be started "promptly."

Goldberg then used the Memphis case as a springboard to prod states which maintain segregated schools on the theory that integration can be achieved gradually under the "deliberate speed" policy.

He said the high court in using those words in its 1955 decision "never contemplated" that they would allow "indefinite delay in elimination of racial barriers in schools."

In other major actions today, the court:

Rejected a claim by Gov. George C. Wallace that President John F. Kennedy had acted illegally by sending federal troops into Alabama during the recent racial violence in Birmingham. The court issued a one-paragraph opinion dismissing the governor's complaint that Kennedy had violated the federal and Alabama state constitutions.

Granted a hearing to Dion T. Diamond, who was convicted of disturbing the peace when he encouraged students at Southern University at East Baton Rouge, La., to boycott their classes in 1962.

Let stand a lower court ruling that allows Negroes suing for integrated schools in Clarendon County, S.C., to act as a group rather than individually.

Denied a hearing to Carlos Marcello, New Orleans racketeer, who has been fighting deportation for more than 10 years.

Agreed to decide next term whether acquisition of Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corp. by El Paso Natural Gas Co. is permissible under the antitrust laws.

In rejecting the Wallace suit, the court said the governor's complaint showed "no more than that the President has made ready to exercise the authority conferred on him by (federal law) by alerting and stationing military personnel in the Birmingham area."

"Such purely preparatory measures . . . afford no basis for the granting of any relief," the court said.

In the Memphis case, Goldberg flatly turned down the city's argument that the "deliberate speed" doctrine for schools could be extended to other desegregation areas.

Man Suspected Of Beating Wife

Howard Smith, 25, of 240 Liberty Road, Petaluma, was booked in Marin County Jail last night on suspicion of beating his wife at the Spaletta Ranch in North Marin.

Mrs. Helen Margaret Smith told sheriff's deputies they had a spat last Friday. Yesterday she took her two children and went to the home of her mother, Edith Spaletta, at 6701 Redhill Road.

She said Smith came to the ranch and beat her. Her brother, John Paul Spaletta, 19, ran out with an unloaded rifle in an effort to stop the fight, then called the sheriff at 9:15 last night.

Smith was freed on $472 bail.

Road Foggy But 'Tamalpa' In Sun

Playgoers used their car lights to find their way through fog to attend yesterday's 50th Mountain Play, "Tamalpa," at Sidney Cushing Memorial Theater on Mount Tamalpais. Then, walking down over the razor back, they found themselves in bright sunshine to picnic and view the play.

There were 4,600 people attending, according to David Ohman, publicity chairman, or 600 above that of the previous Sunday's production.

Only oddity that Ohman witnessed, he said, was that during the intermission names of 18 people were called out who had left their car lights on at the foggy mountain parking space.

Boy, 11, Treated For Burned Hands

Lee Shepherd, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Shepherd of 229 Clorinda Avenue, San Rafael, was treated for second and third degree burns on his hands yesterday at San Rafael General Hospital.

Mrs. Shepherd said her son fell from a tall tree he was climbing in their yard shortly after 11 a.m. and grabbed an electric wire on his way down.

Will CTA Turn Sanctions Into Just Election Gimmick?

In the May 10 issue of "CTA Action," publication of the California Teachers Association, an editorial hails the "ousting" of two trustees in the Little Lake Elementary School District of Southern California as a "victory for teachers everywhere."

Perhaps it was; we don't know. But we do recall that Little Lake is where the CTA has invoked a year or so ago its new sanctions policy in which it blackballs a school district with all teacher-hiring agencies and thus, so the claim goes, forces a district to improve the teaching situation in the schools.

The editorial said this:

"The Little Lake vote proved that when teachers have a legitimate grievance and effectively explain it to the community, they can win their battle.

"It proved that parents knew top education could not be offered in a strife-ridden system and that they would listen to teachers (and courageous principals, too, in Little Lake), who were willing to put jobs and future on the line to spotlight their problem.

"It proved that CTA's sanction policy can be a powerful instrument in calling national attention to a shameful situation and in rallying local forces to solve it.

"It proved that sanctions will be effective only when the local teachers association and community join forces to alleviate the problem. Despite charges from the defeated trustees, CTA's stand was always one of pointing out the need for better conditions, but letting the community take action.

"It proved that teachers now have a potent method of drawing attention to intolerable conditions while continuing to meet their prime responsibilities in the classrooms, not disrupting children's education."

But what it proved most of all, in our estimation, is that the democratic method of solving a problem is to go to the voters with it, not to cut off the supply of teachers.

From the tone of the editorial, the CTA seems to be turning to sanctions, which they call more "professional" than the strike, as an election gimmick, a device to call attention to a situation rather than to cure it.

If so, that is all to the good. A short-lived sanctions, used only to call attention to a situation for political purposes, is one thing. A lengthy sanctions, designed to deplete the teaching staff to a point where poor education will bring a demand for a change, is something else again.

Now that the CTA has won in Little Lake, we wonder how many years it will take to counteract all the bad publicity the sanctions have brought on that school district?

And, incidentally, have the sanctions been lifted?

BETTER MENUS FOR PETS

Pet food sales have zoomed to a present 580 million dollars a year as against 160 million dollars in 1960.

This extraordinary rise has taken place even though the dog and cat population of 51 million has increased less than 5 per cent over the same period.

Manufacturers are actively competing for the ever-growing market with a variety of new products. The pet foods they feature are made from horse meat, beef and pork trimmings, fish, vitamins, grains and many other ingredients.

Never before in history have so many animals been so well fed. And few would begrudge them this advantage.

God expects us to make an even greater effort to provide the necessities of life for countless hungry people here and over the world.

Most of them have no one to plead their cause. You can do it for them.

"I was hungry and you gave Me to eat."
(Matthew 25:35)

Teach us, O Lord, to show a practical concern for those who suffer from chronic hunger.

Careful Preparations Safely Carried Astronaut Cooper To Second Floor

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)—In addition to having the astronauts to cheer about, we also can be proud of the dedicated young men who operate the elevators in the U.S. Capitol.

If such statistics were available, I believe they would show that your chances of getting where you want to go in a Capitol elevator are almost as good as they are in a space capsule.

When astronaut L. Gordon Cooper visited the Capitol to address a joint meeting of Congress, elaborate precautions were taken to make certain the elevator he rode in was functioning properly.

You can imagine the embarrassment it would have caused if his spectacular 22-orbit mission into space had been climaxed by Cooper getting stalled in an elevator.

The Russians would never have let us forget it.

The elevator countdown began several hours before Cooper was scheduled to arrive. Technicians carefully checked over the engine room equipment and then stood by in case trouble developed. Approximately T-minus-20, an inspector from the elevator company rode up and down several times to make certain that everything was shipshape in the capsule.

The mission of lifting Cooper from the street level to the second floor, a vertical distance of some 15 feet, was carried out by David Muchow, 18, of Winter Haven, Fla.

DAVID RUNS an elevator to help pay his expenses at Georgetown University here. He has only been in training since last August, but it is generally agreed that he is one of the most skilled and reliable operators at the Capitol.

"I wanted to take him up," Muchow told me in an exclusive interview, "so Gene let me substitute for him."

Eugene Buccelli, who normally runs the elevator at that hour, handed over the controls to Muchow and assumed the role of back-up operator.

AT ABOUT T-minus-5, a Secret Service man told Muchow to "freeze" the elevator on the street level and cut off the buzzer and signal lights. When the lift-up finally came, Muchow was ready.

"It was a real smooth ride," he said. "There wasn't a hitch at all."

"Were your nervous?" I asked.

"Not really," he said. "The Secret Service had thoroughly briefed me on the procedure. I never had any doubts that the mission would be a success."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Independent-Journal:

I seem to recall having read that people deserve the type of government they get. After what has happened in Novato I am sure of the truth of this statement. The City Council of Novato refused in the aftermath of a small child almost drowning to exercise the police powers available. There was no action taken against those responsible for permitting the hazardous conditions to exist and nothing to indicate that future conditions of this type would be acted upon in a manner to protect the public.

Like many of my neighbors I had no knowledge of those persons running for City Council nor did I attempt to find out who or what they stood for. I just voted for those names that seemed most familiar and were incumbents on the Council. I had no problems and the city appeared to be running smoothly.

Now it appears that we have no representation in the operation of the city of Novato. Repeated attempts to have city employees responsible for the protection and safety of the residents to take action failed to have any result in correcting the hazards to the health and safety of the children in St. Francis Heights left by the construction work of John Novak. The fact that in a matter of half an hour these conditions were corrected to remove the immediate hazard shows that our complaints were not unreasonable and only what was absolutely necessary was asked.

After attending my first (but definitely not my last) City Council meeting I was appalled at the "do nothing" attitude encountered. I urge every person in Novato who does not know exactly "who or what" is representing him to attend the Novato City Council meeting on May 28 and find out. From the experience of the residents of our tract you may learn that you also are not being represented in the City and that your protection under the police powers would be as nonexistent as ours proved to be. Any condition such as has existed and continues to exist in our tract can likewise suddenly appear in your own back yard. This is what has aroused the anger of residents in St. Francis Heights and what is needed in Novato is several thousand additional angry people in order to secure the protection and action of our elected officials. Be the city's guests on May 28 and get angry.

Tam Student Vote Is Not Forced

Independent-Journal:

Recently there have been two articles in the Independent-Journal which stipulated that voting in student government elections at Tamalpais High School has been compulsory or "forced." I think that this illusion should be corrected.

The first article to appear was on Friday, May 10 and used excerpts and quotations from the article submitted to the Independent-Journal by the high school. The student who originally wrote the article used the word "forced" in quotation marks. It is unfortunate that one of our students who was fully familiar with our voting system would imply that voting was "forced," but it should be noted that the true semantics of the word are not to be taken for granted.

The second article to appear in the Independent-Journal used the word "compulsory," and I seriously doubt that one of our students used that word.

To clarify the whole matter, never has any student been forced to vote; i.e., no one has ever stood over any other student and made him fill out a ballot and submit said ballot to be counted. In the past, everyone has been given a ballot and those individuals who wish to vote have been given an opportunity during class time to do so.

This semester's polling system was altered to the extent that the poll was not taken during regular class time and only those students who wished to vote were given a ballot. It was found that this new system worked much better with the tally being taken and the results published within an hour and a half. Over 87 per cent of the student body voted.

To reiterate what I have already said, never has any Tamalpais High School student been forced to vote in any election. The choice to vote or not has always been left up to the student.

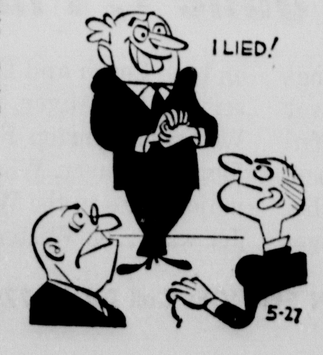
TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

It was the great Jewish humorist, Sholom Aleichem, who observed, "The only chance a poor man has for rejoicing is when he loses one of his pitiful possessions — then finds it again." He tells of one such character who recounted to a group of sympathizers how his wife and children were pursued by wolves over an icy lake, how the ice cracked, and sleigh and passengers sank without a trace. "Thanks to the Lord," concluded the narrator with a sigh, "there is one good feature to the story. It's a lie from beginning to end!"

The Missouri Bureau of Health has been looking into the death certificates filed by some of its registered doctors in the past year, and has come up with some weird notations therein. One doctor, for instance, solemnly gave as "cause of death," "The deceased went to bed feeling fine, but woke up dead." Another explained a patient's demise even more tersely. "He died suddenly; nothing serious." A third doctor had this to report: "Death induced by blow on the head with an axe. Contributory cause: another man's wife."



I J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

It's Tiburon Incorporation Time Again; Less Chance Than Usual

Last year, Tiburon's incorporation effort lacked the vitality to get to the point of an election—as it had been similarly lacking in previous attempts.

This year, it may get no chance. A "secret weapon" that was held in abeyance last time has already been brought out: the threat of annexation of the heart of Tiburon's future business district to the City of Belvedere.

WHEN BELVEDERE'S annexation proposal came before the county boundary commission, County Planning Director B. D. Dobbs objected. The effect of such annexations should be carefully studied before boundaries are approved, he contended. Annexations to cities are interfering with proper county planning, he claimed.

It would appear entirely possible that incorporation of Tiburon might be objectionable to Dobbs on the same grounds.

EITHER ANNEXATION or incorporation might have its benefits to the county, however.

Biggest headache in local government in California is created by its multiplicity of special districts serving unincorporated areas. In few other states, if any, will one find so many communities with populations in the thousands trying to govern themselves through their county boards plus a hodge-podge of special districts.

National City, a new publication of the National Municipal League, has some figures on this in its first issue. Within the last five years, it reports, 42 municipalities have incorporated in California, to bring the state's total to 373 cities. But during the same period, 312 special districts have been added, to hike the number of them to 1,962. (And this despite a statewide effort to reduce the number of school districts!)

IT WOULD BE interesting if the figures went farther to show the number of special districts eliminated by the 42 new cities. It might not be many. Only a county lighting district vanished when Novato incorporated, sanitary, water and fire districts remaining intact.

Only through either incorporation or annexation, however, would it appear possible to get rid of many of the special districts which now burden taxpayers with a species of government inefficiency by its very character.

THERE ARE THOSE who would do away with special districts and cities all at one fell swoop, creating "super" combined city-county governments.

Strangely, this idea is quite popular in Marin, despite the example across the Bay. The one such setup in the United States is the City and County of San Francisco. Its efficiency may be gauged from the fact that, although its assessed valuation per capita exceeds that to be found anywhere in Marin, its tax rate is nevertheless higher than the average total in this county.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Senate Is Obstacle To Test Ban Accord

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

In fact, they probably could reach an understanding without undue difficulty but for one towering obstacle — the certainty that such a treaty would encounter prolonged and bitter opposition in the Senate.

At present it is extremely doubtful whether the President could muster the two-thirds majority necessary to ratify a treaty along the lines of the draft under consideration in the White House for submission to the Soviet at the Geneva conference, that is now in recess.

Prominent in this critical group are Senator Richard Russell (D-Ga.), chairman of the Armed Services Committee; Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) and Sen. Henry Jackson (D-Wash.), chairman of the Interior Affairs Committee.

In a recent exchange of letters, the President indicated willingness to meet Khrushchev this summer on condition that a nuclear test ban agreement would be concluded.

While Khrushchev's reply left the door open for a summit conference, he raised the question of whether any pact that could be reached could gain the acquiescence of "your Congress." The Kremlin ruler made it clear he had strong misgivings on that.

This challenge explains the speeches that lately have suddenly erupted in the Senate vigorously urging a test agreement with the Soviet, and defending the administration's efforts and proposals to reach one.

Kennedy and Khrushchev have conducted an extended correspondence on the test ban issue. Revealing details are contained in a memorandum prepared by Ambassador Charles Stelle, chief U.S. negotiator at the Geneva conference. This backstage paper is circulating among senators favoring an accord with Russia.

Among the most significant disclosures is the assertion that as a result of the exchange of letters between the President and Khrushchev, "There now exists a new basis for agreement."

The memorandum gives no hint as to the contents of these letters—none of which has been made public. But Stelle spells out in some detail the complicated inspection formulas the U.S. is prepared to offer the Soviet.

The memorandum says:

"Each nuclear side would place reliance on its national detection station for the collection of seismic data, supplemented by the use of automatic seismic stations (blackboxes) . . . Under certain conditions related to the conduct of inspection, we would accept an annual quota (the number to be negotiated) of on-site inspections in the territory of each nuclear power."

A country would have up to 60 days from the time a seismic event occurred to designate it as an event "which it may later wish to inspect." The country whose territory would be inspected would have a week to volunteer any data on the suspected seismic event.

The government asking for the inspection could, during the same week, receive and examine data collected in the sealed boxes of automatic seismic stations on the territory of the country to be inspected. The U.S. wants eight such automatic seismic stations; Russia so far has held adamantly to not more than three.

Chorus Brings Out An Exalted Mood

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

A program of predominantly sacred music made up Saturday night's spring concert of the Marin Community Chorus directed by Dr. S. Drummond Wolff.

Despite its length and unvarying exalted mood, it seemed to hold the large audience at Marin Catholic High School enthralled from the opening coronation anthems by Handel through Mozart's Mass No. 1 in C and Vivaldi's "Gloria" to Wolff's own "Festival Te Deum Laudamus."

The explanation may have been partly the colorful sonority composed of a 90-voice chorus backed by percussion, trumpets, and organ played by Wolff, plus a superb quartet.

Especially in Wolff's concluding "Festival Te Deum Laudamus" — an inspiring work—did the whole chorus come alive. Possibly this was a psychological rising to the honor of presenting the American premier of the composition.

A successful blend was achieved in the quartet by the four voices of solo stature—no mean feat—but soprano Carole Bogard was outstanding because of her lovely vocal quality and consummate musicianship. The others singing well in duet combinations as well as quartet or solo were contralto Alice Taylor, tenor Kenneth Rowland and bass Byron Jones.

Soprano and altos were well balanced, but with 21 basses against 12 tenors, it was surprising that in the first half of the concert the bass part did not hold its own at times. In the last half this situation was improved.

Though Wolff is both a master organist and skilled choral director and his playing enhances the sonorous texture, his effectiveness as a director was doubled when he served this function. This was most noticeable in the heightened sensitivity of the chorus's response to his direction in the unaccompanied portions of Vivaldi's "Gloria" and his own work.

The trumpets added to the tonal color, but performance was of an uneven level.

Joe Kennedy Resting

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)— Former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy, the President's father, rested at his home today from minor weekend surgery and the extraction of two teeth. Kennedy, 74, had a small skin growth removed from his arm at Cape Cod Hospital in Hyannis Saturday.

The average cost of a day in school for a pupil in 18 of the nation's largest school districts was $2.32, according to a survey of the National Education Association.

Six Die As 14 Vehicles Hit On Turnpike

ELIZABETH, N.J. (AP) — Six persons perished early today when 14 vehicles piled up in dense fog on the New Jersey Turnpike.

Five of the victims were dead at the scene. A sixth died three hours later at St. James Hospital in Newark.

About 10 persons were injured, one of them critically.

Police would not speculate on the cause of the accidents beyond blaming the fog.

Gauthier, driving a truckload of fish from Detroit to New York, said he never saw the wreckage in front of him.

He told newsmen he drove into a fog bank and the last thing he saw was the brake lights of another truck just before plowing into the pile. He suffered minor head and hand cuts and was released after treatment.

The pileup occurred about 3:15 a.m. in the northbound lanes. Traffic was tied up for several hours.

Twelve trucks and two cars were involved in the smashups.

Hydrant Turned Off

San Rafael firemen turned off a fire hydrant at 3:20 a.m. yesterday which police said had been turned on by vandals near 13 Deer Park Road. Water partially flooded the street.

Art, Concert Program Set In Ross On Thursday

The Marin Art and Garden Center will join with the Festival of Performing Arts in presenting an extensive program of entertainment by Marin County's many artists in dance, music and drama at the center in Ross on Memorial Day, Thursday.

For the past two years the center has sponsored an all-day "open house" starting with Memorial Day observances and including entertainment by the center's founder and affiliate groups.

This year, the Festival of Performing Arts, will be in the Art and Garden Center for the first time and its program will be combined and synchronized with that of the Center.

"The day will serve to point up the cultural purposes of the center as a community project," Mrs. Norman B. Livermore, center president said today.

The gates will open at 9:30 a.m. The entrance fee will include concerts and performances by both the center's groups and the Festival of Performing Arts.

Flag raising ceremonies, followed by the dedication of the center's dawn redwood tree, will be held at 10:30 a.m.

Continuous entertainment from 11:45 a.m. until 5 p.m. will include the Winifred Baker Boys' Choir, and the Girls' Choir; Mimi Janislawski and Gene Malin, Flamenco dancer and classical guitarist; a "dance potpourri for children" directed by Dick Ford; the Magana Baptiste Dance Troups; excerpts from "Hit the Deck" by the Ross Valley Players; the Modern Dance Club of Palo Alto; the Stuart Highlanders Bagpipe Band, a concert by William Clark, pianist; Mia Phoebus, soprano; and Eugene Ramey, pianist; and Frank Oznowicz, puppeteer.

On Wednesday at 8 p.m. The Festival of Performing Arts will present a concert in the Barn at the center. Tickets will be available at the door.

Purse Stolen

Theft of a purse, containing $15 and a $25 pin, from a car parked at Muir Woods National Monument was reported Friday to sheriff's deputies. Mrs. Georgianna Seal Cox of South Bend, Ind., said the purse was taken between 4:30 and 5:45 p.m.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

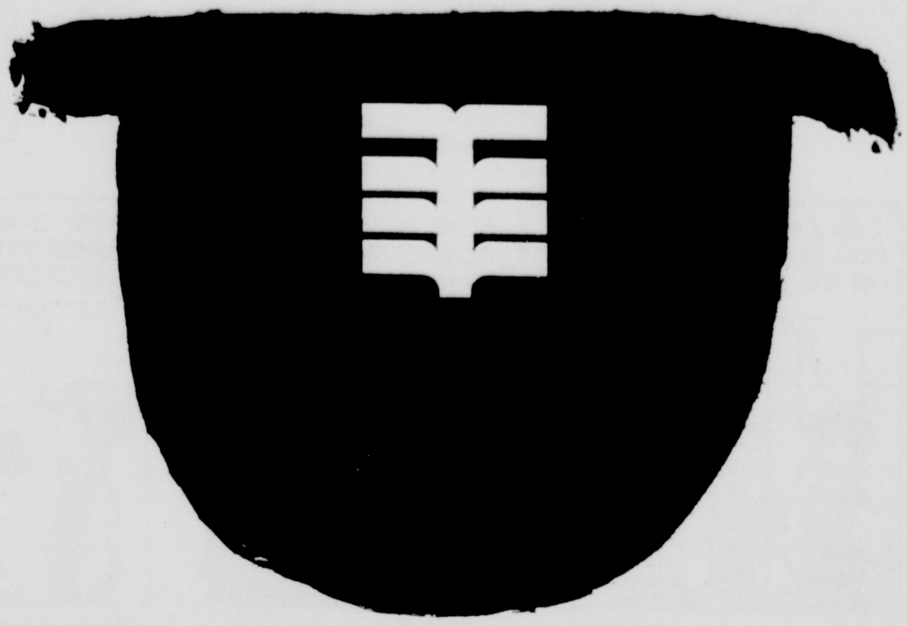
"WE'VE GOT OUR HAT IN OUR HANDS"



We're what's known in the business as a "small independent bank." That means we thrive on service, and must prove we really do care about what's going on in this community. Much like any small business you may know. Except our business is money. And people. And bringing them together. Our business is helping the county itself thrive. So we spend a lot of time thinking about how to do that best. We recently announced our newest way. Home improvement loans (to depositors) of upwards of $1500.00, at the county's lowest rate, 5%. If you are now a depositor, or are about to become one, then we can probably work out a loan that will save you at least 15% of your interest charges. (Most banks in the area are charging around 6% for home improvement loans.) It's another way we can show that we know what it's like to call for support once in a while. Our hat will always be in our hands. No matter what your financial need, stop in at Redwood for a few minutes. It's like, well, money in the bank.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

You Can't Weight Skill In Pounds At Bridge Table

We tend to associate fighting quality with weight, so it's always a surprise when a slip of a girl bowls you over and dances a jig on your teeth.

Today's hand was bid to four spades at most tables of the national tournament in St. Louis a couple of months ago. West usually led a low heart, and East won.

If East returned a heart, dummy's queen became established and declarer could eventually discard a diamond on it.

If East shifted to the jack of diamonds at the second trick, South covered with the queen to force out the ace. Then East's ten of diamonds was trapped.

The best defense was found by Mrs. Toddy Ruther, of Chicago, who tips the scales at about 90 pounds and wouldn't hurt a fly unless it happened to be playing bridge against her. Mrs. Ruther returned the low diamond at the second trick.

South put up the king of diamonds, expecting the trumps to break 3-2. If so, he could afford to lose the ace of diamonds, for he could win the diamond return and draw trumps.

Then he would discard two diamonds from dummy on his extra clubs.

West won with the ace of diamonds and returned a diamond to the ten and queen. Now Mrs. Ruther's jack of diamonds was set up—exactly the reason for leading the low diamond at the second trick.

South then discovered that the trumps did not break normally. He had to lose a second diamond trick as well as the two hearts.

Yes, children, South could have played his low diamond at the second trick to force out West's ace.

But South didn't know this.

The moon is approaching first quarter. The morning stars are Venus, Jupiter and Saturn. The evening star is Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1860, Giuseppe Garibaldi invaded Sicily with 1,000 "Red Shirts" and captured Palermo in his drive to take over the Kingdom of Naples.

Giants Invade Cincy Tomorrow In Road Trip Opener

"A bad day . . . a bad day." Thus did Jose Pagan, the San Francisco Giants' usually reliable shortstop, sum up the three errors he committed yesterday to help the Los Angeles Dodgers pull out a 4-3 victory in 10 innings.

"My arm dosn't hurt," the sturdy little Puerto Rican added. "But I wasn't picking the ball up right to make the throws."

After committing two wild heaves during the first nine frames, Pagan uncorked another in the 10th on a routine grounder hit by Jim Gilliam. The latter sped to second base on the miscue then scored on Tommy Davis' single to center.

All told, Davis drove in three runs. He had batted a pair across in the fourth inning with a hard double that rolled to the left centerfield fence.

The Giants, who defeated Los Angeles 6-2 Saturday, now lead the Dodgers by two games as both teams head for the midwest. Juan Marichal of the Giants is slated to open against Jim O'Toole Tuesday night at Cincinnati while Sandy Koufax squares off against Milwaukee's Bob Hendley.

Both West Coast clubs are idle today.

Don Drysdale, now 6-4, went the route for Los Angeles yesterday while Manager Alvin Dark of the Giants used four hurlers. The final man to come on, Don Larsen, was the loser. His record dropped to 0-2 after he had taken over in the eighth inning and retired the side with the bases loaded by fanning pinchhitter Frank Howard on three pitches.

A crowd of 41,668, the largest at Candlestick Park this season, watched Jim Davenport open the Giants' first inning with a home run and then pick up three more hits, including a double before Drysdale made him ground out in the 10th to end the game.

Felipe Alou's 10th circuit smash of the year, a liner that skipped over the top of the left field fence, gave the Giants a 2-2 tie in the fourth after Davis had clubbed his two-run double.

Then a sacrifice fly by Tom Haller boosted the Giants into a 3-2 lead in the sixth but Los Angeles tied the game in the seventh when John Roseboro, who had doubled, scored on Pagan's throwing error.

The play was something of a mess. With Roseboro on second, pinchhitter Lee Walls hit back to relief pitcher Gaylord Perry who had come to the rescue of starter Jack Sanford. Perry threw the ball to second base instead of third. Pagan grabbed the toss and fired it past Davenport at third in a vain attempt to nail Roseboro who went all the way.

Drysdale gave up eight hits but didn't allow a score after the sixth frame and retired the last nine men to face him.

BATTING AROUND: Tommy Davis was thrown out trying to steal home in the fourth inning and joined coach Pete Reiser in beefing over umpire Ed Vargo's call . . . Drysdale pulled Davis away from the ump, softly explaining, "we need you, Tommy." . . . Billy Hoeft, the Giants' disabled lefthander, tried to loosen up his injured shoulder yesterday by pitching balls from the dressing room into the shower . . . "that's right," Willie Mays hollered, looking up from his reading, "break the place up . . ."

Chuck Dressen, a member of the Dodgers' brain trust, is about to scout American League games and see if there is anybody worth trading before the June 15 deadline . . . yesterday's turnout of 41,668 brought the total for the Dodgers-Giants three-game series to 122,202 . . . The two clubs have drawn a total of 266,380 this season for six games at Dodgers Stadium and Candlestick Flats . . . Second baseman Chuck Hiller, still recovering from a broken left hand, hurled batting practice for the Giants yesterday . . . Drysdale has no beefs about pitching in gusty Candlestick Park . . . "The breeze keeps me fresh," he said. "But the tough part is that you bear down to stop hitters like Mays, Cepeda and McCovey and then Davenport belts a homer off you . . . Jim is a good hitter, too."

Giants Prove They're The Best, Should Coast To Another Pennant

CONNOLLY

Wrap it up — The 1963 National League championship for the San Francisco Giants. Betwixt and between now and next October they may stammer, stumble and fumble but just as sure as little green apples they'll be on top in October.

All of the contending teams have appeared at Candlestick Park and anyone with a half an ounce of baseball intelligence has to admit the Giants are head and heels over the field.

They may not be the smartest club in the National League but in all around ability they are the best. They give away more games than they lose, but they overpower the field and makeup in sheer power for what they lack in brightness.

The Giants may not have the best balanced pitching staff but it is good enough, with the kind of hitting they get, to overcome all of their short comings in other departments.

If anybody analyzed Candlestick Park and then tried to pick out a club to fit the layout, they couldn't do a better job.

Travelling on two cylinders, lacking the help of their ace hitter, Willie Mays, the Giants, without a competent second hacker, have still been able to keep in front of the pack. With the return soon of Chuck Hiller and the fond hopes that Willie Mays will catch on fire, the team really has proved itself as a fighting, hustling and daring aggregation.

ALVIN DARK, the sometimes misunderstood skipper, has been sharp and alert in the past two weeks. He has distinguished himself in the moves he makes and the changes he insists upon as a true manager. I sometimes have disagreed with Alvin but I'm forced to shake his duke and say he has done a good job.

But to get back to fielding a team that fits Candlestick Park. Where could anybody want for a nicer outfielding layout with Felipe Alou rating as tops of all rightfielders; Willie Mays being the ace of centerfielders and Willie McCovey as the sluggingest leftfielder in the business with a study, reliable and smart backstop in Harvey Kuenn. That outfield combination belongs in windy Candlestick Park. They're tops.

McCOVEY MAY not be impressive in leftfield, especially when he has to handle ground balls, but he is ample on fly balls and his bat offsets any misgivings he might have in a fielding way.

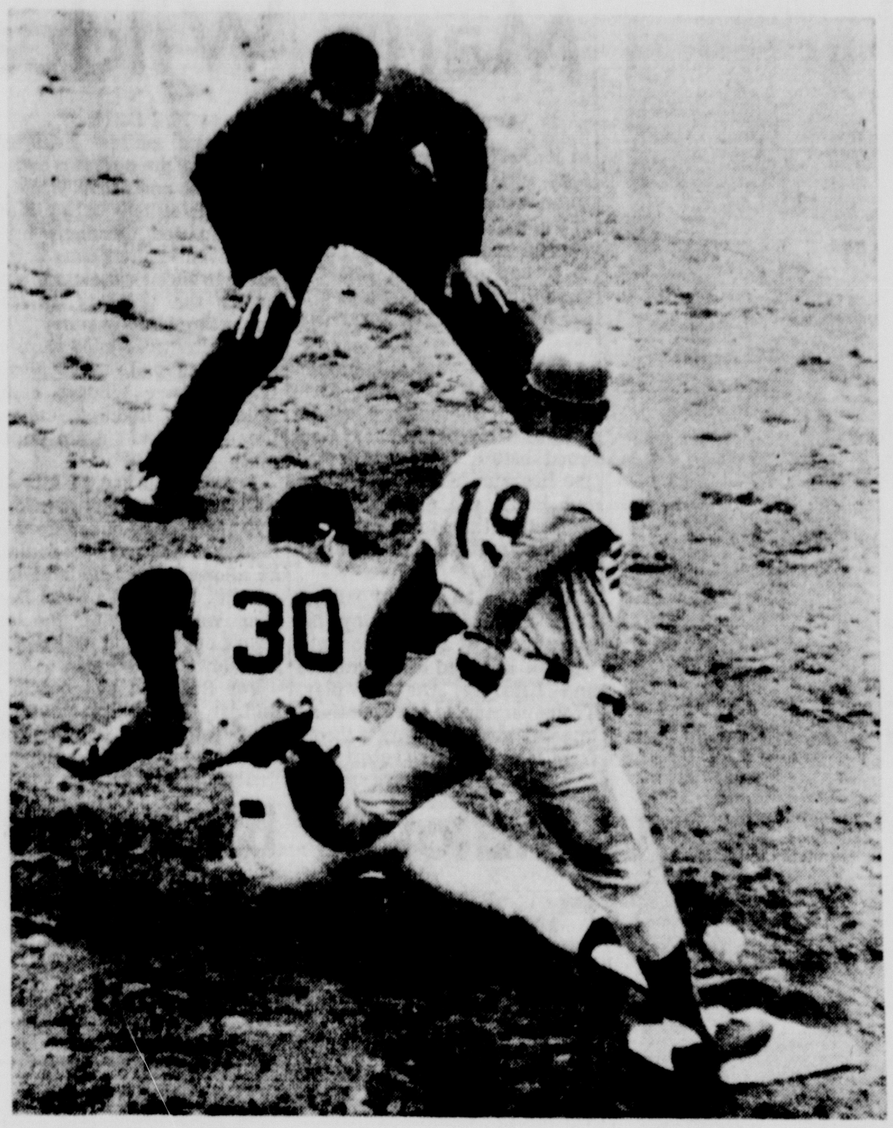
Go on down the infield from first base to third base and tuck in Chuck Hiller at second and I'm sure you'll admit there is no other setup in the league better equipped.

You have to give Willie Mays a minus batting mark as of NOW but he'll recover pretty soon. I'll admit Jose Pagan has made more errors in the first 40 games than he did all last year. Where he was strong last season—throwing—he is weak now. But they're fiddling around with that infield and it makes a big difference.

Even with two sick performers like Mays and Hiller the Giants have sparkled at times, and looked awful on occasions.

LOSING THE odd game to the Dodgers yesterday was an accident. And it just proves that you may take the boy out of the country, but you can't take the hick out of the boy. Gaylord Perry proved that in helping give the final game away to the Dodgers. He pitched brilliantly and deserved to win but he made an elementary mistake that cost the game. The Giants should have been in the barn with a 3 to 2 score but woundup losing 4 to 3. Yet they got a big break by a stupid call when Tommy Davis stole home and was called out.

Today the Giants leave for a 15-day road schedule that finds them meeting Cincy, St. Louis, Chicago, Houston and L.A. in a 15-game spread. They should come home at least five games in front and then coast the rest of the way to their second straight championship.



STRETCHES, MISSES — Giant first baseman Orlando Cepeda stretches and misses wide throw from shortstop Jose Pagan as Dodgers' Jim Gilliam races across bag in fourth inning. Three Pagan errors enabled Dodgers to score 4-3 victory yesterday. (AP Wirephoto)

By RALPH CHATOIAN

The Marin Catholic baseball team has the Marin Athletic League Tournament championship flag safely tucked away today, but it took quite a fight to get it.

By way of a successful squeeze play in the bottom of the 11th inning Saturday night, the Wildcats nipped the Redwood High School nine 5-4 in the tourney championship tom of the sixth with two runs.

Then Redwood came back in the top of the seventh with four big runs and it looked like all was over. But the Wildcats, with their backs to the door in the last inning with a runner on first and two down, cashed in on a double play by second baseman Jim Langbehn and a single by left fielder Pat Murray to knot the game at 4-4 and send it into extra innings.

In the bottom of the 11th, Beswick led off the inning with a fly ball that bounced past Redwood right fielder Steve Minutoli for a double. He was trying to stretch it into a triple and stumbled between second and third, but a high relay throw from shortstop Pat Puccinelli to the third sacker enabled Beswick to slide safely into third.

Mike Pometta was sent in to run for Beswick who had gone the entire route for the Wildcats on the mound, striking out 19 Giant batters. Then the next batter, first baseman Hank Ryan, laid down a perfect bunt and Pometta raced home for the winning run.

Marin Catholic scored its first two runs on a single by Langbehn, a sacrifice by Murray, and errors by Murphy and Puccinelli. But Redwood came back

Maury Wills To Remain Out Of Dodger Lineup

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Maury Wills, the record-breaking base burglar of last season, has come up with a nearly literal "Achilles heel" that will keep him out of the lineup for a while.

The Los Angeles Dodger shortstop who stole 104 bases last year remained here for deep X-ray therapy today as his club winged toward Milwaukee for a 12-game road trip.

Dodger physician Dr. Robert Kerlan said Wills has "a calcification of a joint in his second toe of his left foot." Kerlan said it will depend on how well the treatment takes to tell when Wills can play again.

Wills turned his left ankle on opening day this season and he slowly returned to his basestealing form after being caught stealing once. He swiped 11 consecutive sacks before being nabbed.

Kerlan said the player's recent condition didn't respond to injections, so the X-ray treatment was begun yesterday.

Fastest Field Set For 500-Mile Race

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The field is so fast for the 500-mile auto race Thursday that former winner Troy Ruttman will start in last place in the 33-car field.

Two weekends of wind-swept qualifying produced a line-up of 28 veterans and five newcomers who averaged 149.028 miles per hour in the 10-mile runs, against a record of 147.330 last year and 145.302 in '61.

Parnelli Jones' May 18 record of 151.153 never was seriously challenged.

The trials that ended yesterday brought out a seven-car challenge to the old reliable Offenhausers which have won all of the Memorial Day Classics since Maury Rose took the checkered flag in a Blue Crown Offy in 1947.

It was an Offy that powered Jones to his record, however.

Al Miller, a 39-year-old Indianapolis Motor Speedway rookie from Roseville, Mich., was the fastest of three drivers who made the line-up in the final session. He put a rear-engine Thompson-Harvey Titanium Special into the field at 149.603 and had one lap at 150.401.

Mickey Thompson of Long Beach, Calif., American land speed record holder, entered five of his tiny Chevrolet-powered cars and got two of them into the field. One was qualified by 50-year-old Duane Carter of Indianapolis early in the trials.

Masten Gregory, American living in Paris, also qualified one of Thompson's beetle-shaped cars but he was bumped from the field when the final listing of the best speeds left him 36th—three spots out of the line-up.

Ruttman joined three other former winners, Rodger Ward of Indianapolis, Jim Rathmann of Miami and A. J. Foyt of Houston, in the field.

The well-known drivers who failed to qualify included Len Sutton of Portland, Ore., who finished second to teammate Ward by only 11 seconds last year.

Paul Rosso of Indianapolis, only active driver who raced before World War II, failed to qualify in his "Spirit Of St. Louis" after 15 starts in the 500.

Spoon-Fed Mediocrity

In an age of scientific achievements in medicine, space exploration, and development of ever greater weapons of destruction, there exists a gnawing incongruity of mediocrity in our day-to-day pursuits. This trend toward retrogression is a concerted one, definitely not accidental or incidental. Unless awareness stems the tide, stagnation will surely force complete capitulation to the computers, which will carry on for us toward more scientific progress.

No popeyed mystic am I. Nor are my protruding optics due to goiter problems. They are, rather, a point-making manifestation of my concern over a cancerous lethargy that permits us to tolerate substandard efforts in work, entertainment, and the arts.

Too often we find a job applicant who is more concerned over hours, pay scale, and benefits than he is in impressing the prospective employer with his qualifications. And, if he is hired in desperation by the boss, tired of a monotonous sameness in interviews, he is careful to limit his efforts to preserve his strength. Coffee breaks increase, and complaints over working conditions, small pay, and greener pastures elsewhere dominate the coffee-klatch confabs.

There was a time when an entertainer was not considered unique if he labored diligently over a routine, polishing each movement, each word, each gesture, until he was "almost" completely satisfied that his effort would be well received. Even then, he suffered the torment of the damned in fear his public would yawn indifferently.

Now, too often, the buffoon or singer enters stage grandly or casually, with whiskey glass in hand, glares at his audience in obvious defiance, daring them not to be completely enthralled at the mere sight of him. His routine has a repetitious triteness about it, and yet he has the guts to wait expectantly and arrogantly for a thunderous ovation. The pitiful aspect of it is the idiots give him this adulation. Making faces in the mirror would be more entertaining.

Next comes the artist who has created something of note some time ago. His reputation is made, so why not ride the crest for awhile? After all, when the spirit moves him wondrous things will belch forth and the fountain is deep. In the meantime let's feed the peasants a liberal diet of garbage. Oops, that tube of paint spilled on the canvas. Well, let's spread it around a little. There. A little more. Call it sunset. Or, sunrise. The idiots won't know the difference. And blue ribbons are bought in gross lots in this day of bigness.

This decadent thinking can be halted only with a resurgence of a real personal self-criticism. Unless and until man cares enough to please himself before he pleases others, he will never again enjoy the exultation his father felt with that pat on the back and the word, "well done!" ringing in his ears.

I'll let you in on a little secret. I'd work harder and longer hours for Ames Ford for a bouquet than for money. But don't tell Doug Cowan.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Alvin O'Neal McBean is a man whose short but successful baseball career has had some very strange twists.

He hooked on with the Pittsburgh Pirates through a quirk of fate. He dropped from start-status to bullpen duty this season and has built up one of the best records in the National League in the unfamiliar role of reliever. And he is finding that the home run can be a pitcher's best friend.

McBean won again yesterday as the Pirates beat Milwaukee 5-2 on bonus rookie Bob Bailey's three-run homer in the 11th inning. The victory was the slender right-hander's third in as many relief decisions—and in all three home runs have been decisive factors.

Also in the N.L., the Los Angeles Dodgers nipped front-running San Francisco 4-3 in 10 innings, cashing in three high-flying Baltimore made it runs on three throwing errors by Jose Pagan; the Philadelphia Phillies swept their first doubleheader in Cincinnati since 1950, 10-4 and 3-0; the New York Mets snapped a seven-game losing string, edging St. Louis 3-2 in 11 innings after losing the opener to the Cards 7-4 on Charlie James' three-run pinch homer; and the Chicago Cubs whipped Houston 5-1.

In the American League, eight in a row by clipping Cleveland twice 10-6 and 6-1; New York and Washington split, the Yankees winning the first game 7-1, the Senators the second 7-6; Boston shaded Detroit 6-5 after being belted 12-3 by the Tigers; Minneapolis' streaking Twins downed the Chicago White Sox 5-2; and Los Angeles beat Kansas City 6-4.

McBean, now in his second full season with Pittsburgh and his sixth in pro baseball, went to cover a Pirate tryout in his native Virgin Islands as a photographer for a local newspaper and wound up with a contract. He became a member of the varsity last year, with a 15-10 record as a starter. With four straight victories he is 5-1 this season.

McBean went in against Milwaukee in the eighth inning with the Braves leading 2-1, but Bill Mazeroski's homer in the ninth tied it up. Then in the 11th, Bailey connected against Hank Fischer, Milwaukee's sixth pitcher, after a single by Roberto Clemente and a walk.

Veteran slugger Roy Sievers and rookie pitcher Jack Culp keyed the Phils' sweep over the Reds. Sievers cracked a pinch hit grand slam homer in the eighth inning that put the opener out of reach. Culp fired a three-hit shutout in the second game, striking out 12 and allowing only one runner as far as second base.

Two errors gave the Mets an 11th inning run and their victory over St. Louis. Duke Carmel, defensive replacement for Stan Musial in left field, dropped Charlie Neale's fly for a two-base error, and Neale raced in when pitcher Bob Gibson threw wildly on Chico Fernandez' sacrifice bunt.

In the opener, Ken Boyer sent in the tying run in the eighth with his fifth straight hit, a single, and James followed with his clinching three-run pinch homer. Dick Groat of the Cards took over the league batting lead at .351, going 5-for-10 in the two games.

The Cubs beat ex-teammate Dick Drott on Bob Buhl's nine-hit pitching and the batting of Ron Santo, Ken Hubbs and Lou Brock. These three had all seven Chicago hits and drove in all five Cub runs.

HAWAII SUN TAN

Woe For Bo; He's Sent To Minors

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Woe is Bo.

The minor-league bound Robert (Bo) Belinsky no longer is with the Los Angeles Angels with whom he made a flashy start last year by running off a string of victories and hurling a no-hit game.

He was told before Saturday's game that he would be sent down to the Angels' chief farm club, the Hawaii Islanders of the Pacific Coast League, after compiling a whopping 6.39 earned run average and a 1-7 record this season.

Belinsky amazed sports writers and fans with his comments in his rookie season and drew headlines during his major-league tenure by keeping late hours and night clubbing with Hollywood personalities.

During spring training this year (Bo was the last player to report) the southpaw became engaged to blonde actress Mamie Van Doren.

But the American League may not have seen the last of the 26-year-old hurler.

Angel Manager Bill Rigney said, "it isn't the end of the world to be sent to Hawaii. In a few weeks we could take another look at the situation and might make other decisions."

"Belinsky ran into a little bad luck and then started fighting himself," Rigney said. "We know he can pitch and if he would quit worrying and start throwing like he did at the start of the season he could help us."

Belinsky, who complained loudly in the spring training of his rookie year that he wasn't getting paid enough, was apparently consoled to his relegation to the minors.

GOOD SUNTAN

"I guess I'm going to get me a good suntan," he said.

His fiance, Mamie Van Doren after learning of Bo's fate, chimed in, "Hawaii is one of my favorite spots." She said she is going to be in New York City working on a play, so they would have trouble seeing much of each other even if he were still with the Angels.

Belinsky will join the Hawaii club in a few days, probably in Salt Lake City, according to Rigney.

Hawaii Manager Irv Noren figures the lefthander will be "a lot of help to the ball club."

"I'll pitch him as much as possible and use him as a starter," Noren said. "I figure Bo knows the only way to get back up on top is to prove he can pitch major league ball down here."

SAN RAFAEL STAR PITCHES ONE-HITTER

Skip Rush, ace hurler for San Rafael High, pitched a brilliant one-hitter, striking out 17, but his Bermuda Palms semi-pro baseball team had to settle for a scoreless tie with Oceania yesterday afternoon.

The game was called at the end of the 10th inning due to a time limit.

The Palms team was held to two hits—singles by Mike Gordon and Leon Center—in its opening game of the season.

The San Rafael team will compete in San Francisco League action this summer.

Stanford Has Surplus Of Quarterbacks

Ralston has too many quarterbacks, he believes, and one of them at least must play halfback.

Dick Ragsdale may have won the honor with his running performance Saturday, as the varsity defeated the alumni, 26-13.

Ragsdale twice ran punts back within the alumni 25-yard line and set up touchdowns. Fullback Pete Middlekauff scored first on a 7-yard burst and Ray Handley went over for another six points from the 4.

The other varsity touchdown came on a twisting 33-yard run by quarterback Clark Weacer, hero of the 1962 Big Game against California.

The alumni scored on Al Harrington's 1-yard buck and a pass from quarterback Skip Face to Irv Nikolai that traveled 38 yards.

Jerry Ard Leads Builders To Win Over City Club

Shortstop Jerry Ard's potent bat led the Billings-Hutchison Builders of Marin to an 11-4 victory over San Francisco Pet Market in semi-pro baseball action yesterday.

Ard cracked a 350-foot home run, double and single to lead the Builders' rousing 17-hit attack. Joe Hebel, Rich Schultze, Jerry Scott and Dick Spackman each contributed a double and single to the assault.

Bob DeRosa, Pete Noga and Dick Spackman shared pitching duties, each going three innings. Noga was credited with the win.

It was the Builder's seventh straight victory, including six in a row to capture the recent San Rafael Invitational Tournament.

Ongaro '9' Loses Season Opener To Jeffersons

Ongaro Plumbers semi-pro baseball team of San Anselmo lost its first game of the season yesterday, an 8-5 decision to the Jeffersons of San Francihco at Marin Catholic High School's diamond.

U.S. Team Is Fourth In World Basketball

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — The United States, with a chance to turn spoiler, failed in the final moments and Brazil won its second straight world basketball title.

Defending champion Brazil edged the United States 85-81 in the final game of the World Basketball Tournament Saturday and nailed down the team title with a 6-0 mark in the drawn-out seven-team round robin tournament.

Yugoslavia upset Russia 69-67 in the other game on the final night and took second with a 5-1 record. Russia was third at 4-2. The United States, beaten by Russia, Yugoslavia and Brazil, finished fourth at 3-3.

France was fifth at 2-4, Puerto Rico sixth at 1-5 and Italy last at 0.6.

Brazil took the lead after a 39-39 tie at intermission and stayed in front the rest of the way. The United States lost a chance for a final drive when six players fouled out in the closing minutes, including starters Walt Torrence, Don Kojis and Jerry Shipp and the two big men, Lucius Jackson and Willys Reed, each 6-foot-9.

Stan's Softball Team Scores Win

Stan's Sport Shop rallied for two runs in the sixth inning to nip Fairchild Corp. 4-3 Saturday night at Albert Field in a practice softball game.

Marin Wildcats Win Title

in its half of the seventh with four runs on three hits and some wildness from Beswick.

Minutoli started the seventh with an infield single, advanced to second on a past ball and got to third on a single to center by third sacker Terry Jarcik.

The bases were filled when Beswick walked second baseman Tom Gootherts. Then he hit Bill Kilcoyne, the next Redwood batter, on the arm and the first run of the inning trotted across the plate. Another walk, this time to catcher Jim Troppmann, gave the Giants another run.

With the bases still loaded, Curt Richardson, batting for Murphy, laced a single to right which knocked in Gootherts and Kilcoyne. On the play, Troppmann tried to reach third but was thrown out on a throw from John Odetto to cutoff man Ryan to Phil Ferris.

Beswick settled down and struck out the next two batters, Puccinelli and Steve White, to end the inning. After Marin Catholic tied the game up in the seventh, the teams battled through three scoreless innings before the Wildcats squeezed home the winning run.

Two Redwood runs were cut off at the plate on perfect throws from Wildcat center fielder Bob Redding, once in the sixth and again in the ninth.

Beswick allowed 11 hits and walked five. Murphy struck out five and walked one. Before being taken out after six innings, he allowed two runs and only one hit. Redwood's Scott Davi, who was stung for the loss, struck out five and walked two. He allowed three hits.

For Redwood and coach Al Endriss, their tournament jinx was stretched to four. In four tournament championship games, the Giants have failed to win once. They made it to the final game in 1959 but lost to Drake, then they lost the championship games to Tamalpais in 1960 and '62, then last the final Saturday to Marin Catholic.

In semi-final game action, Redwood nipped Terra Linda 1-0, although Trojan pitcher Bill Lee hurled a one-hitter. The lone run came in the fifth inning on four Terra Linda errors. Lee struck out 14 in the seven-inning game.

Marin Catholic advanced to the finales with a 3-2 verdict over Tam. It was a triple by Jim Langbehn in the fourth which scored what proved to be the winning run.

In consolation game action, Novato's Gary Fritz, Jim Mair and Chuck Overmyer teamed up to pitch a no-hitter against guest team San Rafael Military Academy as the Hornets won, 7-0.

In the other consolation game, MCAL champion Drake fell to San Rafael 4-3. Big hitter in that game was San Rafael's John Franzman who hit two doubles and a triple to knock in two runs.

MIKE SHAFER QUALIFIES FOR STATE MEET

San Rafael's quarter-miler Mike Shafer will be in the state high school track meet, but Tamalpais High School's broadjumper Ellis Williams missed the classic by one and three-quarters inches.

Shafer placed third in the North Coast Section 440 Saturday in Pittsburg with a time of 49.7, one-tenth of a second behind the winner. Williams placed fifth in the broad jump with a leap of 22-8. The top three finishers in the meet qualified for the state meet and third place in the broad jump was 22-9¾.

It will be the second year in the state meet for Shafer who placed ninth last year. The meet will be held Friday and Saturday in Berkeley.

Marin's class B performers did not earn a place in the rough meet Saturday, but Drake's freshman sprinter Dean Lazzarini made it to the finals in the 75-yard dash.

Doc Jocoy Wins

TRACK AND FIELD

3 World Records Broken In West

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three world track and field records fell in the West this weekend with a fourth one doomed in a bizarre development because no one thought it would happen.

Two marks came at the California relays in Modesto, Calif., as Washington's Brian Sternberg pole vaulted 16 feet 7 inches and the Oregon State University two-mile relay team turned in a 7 minute 18.9 second performance.

At Tempe, Ariz., in the Western Athletic Conference meet, New Mexico's Adolph Plummer raced 440 yards in 44.9 seconds, breaking the world mark of 45.7 by Ohio State's Glenn Davis in 1958.

The most unexpected development came at the California Relays just minutes after New Zealand's Peter Snell raced a mile in 3 minutes 54.9 seconds for a new American record just one-half second off his world record. Marine Cary Weisiger was second at 3:57.3, his best time, and Jim Beatty a well beaten third at 3:58.

Then word flashed from the broad jumping pit that someone had leaped 27 feet 4 inches, a fraction farther than the world record held by the Soviet Union's Igor Ter-Ovanesyan. Was it Ralph Boston, the Olympic champion and former record holder?

No, the jumper was a University of Washington sophomore, Phil Shinnick, who earlier had failed even to qualify for the finals in the Big Six meet at Berkeley and then drove the 80 miles to Modesto and asked permission to compete.

WIND GAUGE

Thirty minutes after his long jump came word that because no one gave Shinnick a chance for a record jump, no one had been tending the wind machine to determine whether the aiding breeze was below the allowable maximum of 4.473 miles per hour.

Leon Glover, the gauge man, had been instructed he could time it only when Boston jumped. Meet referee Charlie Hunter said he could not sign a record application without wind certification.

Trojans Win Big 6, Eye NCAA Title Next

BERKELEY (UPI)—University of Southern California's Trojans, with some powerful help from a diminutive Costa Rican, held the Big Six track and field championship today — and pointed now for the NCAA championship.

Julio Marin, a powerful little runner from Costa Rica, defeated Stanford's Harry McCalla while running a 4:03 mile; and captured the three-mile event easily in 13:51.4.

That provided the victory margin as the Trojans wound up with 74 points against 63 for runner-up Stanford. California finished third with 28½ points. Washington State had 27, UCLA 24½ and Washington 23.

Brian Sternberg of the Huskies, who later in the day was to travel 90 miles to set a world record of 16 feet, 7 inches in the pole vault at the California Relays, captured his specialty here with a leap of 15 feet, 9 inches.

Stanford's Larry Questad won the 100 in 9.6 and the 220 in 21.5 for a fine double.

Winners for the Trojans included Lew Hoyt who cleared the bar at 6-10 in the high jump; Rex Cawley in the 440 with a 46.7 clocking; Brian Polkinghorne with a 14.2 in the high hurdles; and Larry Stuart in the javelin with a fine toss of 230 feet, 1½ inches.

The Trojans also won the mile relay in 3:13.1.

of the Debutante Ball Branch of the Marin General Hospital Auxiliary.

MRS. BAUMGARTEN served as chairman of debutantes in 1962, with Mrs. Stratford of Ross and Mrs. Wallace Scott of Belvedere as ball chairmen.

The proceeds from the debutante Ball last year, amounting to over $9,000, were used to purchase an electronic cell counter and a photomicroscope for Marin General Hospital.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF the 1963 debutantes will usher in a round of social activities for the young ladies and their families which will begin with the introduction tea for debutantes and their mothers in June.

Throughout the summer and again in the winter season, debutantes will be honored at supper dances, teas and luncheons by family and friends. The "little season" will be suspended in September as the girls enter their freshmen year in colleges and universities both in the Bay Area and in other states, and the more formal winter season will open with the December holiday's whirl of receptions and dinner dances.

THE FESTIVITIES will culminate with the ball, which this year is scheduled to begin at 9:30 p.m., rather than 10 p.m. as last year. Promptly at 10:30 p.m. Ernest Mendenhall will step to the stage to begin presentation of each of the 26 girls, who will make her bow and descend the steps to the dance floor of the Country Club for the traditional dances with their escorts and then their fathers, ending the formal presentation ceremony.

Photographs of the debutantes are by Les Walsh of San Rafael and also by DuCharme Studio, Don Bosco Studio, Bernard's and Kee Coleman.

Andrea McLay Becomes Bride At Stinson Beach Chapel Rite

The Stinson Beach Community Presbyterian Chapel was the setting for the wedding Saturday of Andrea McLay of Mill Valley and Dennis Mayfield of Stinson Beach.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Marguerite Whittaker of Mill Valley and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Mayfield of Stinson Beach.

Best man was Gary Ray Wold of San Francisco and ushers were Roland Crotts of Bolinas and Harry Chet Wold of Sebastopol.

A reception at Whittakers' home followed the wedding. Among those present were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Colwell of Springfield, Ohio.

After a week's trip by car to Colorado the young couple will live in Fairfax. Both are graduates of Tamalpais High School and attended the College of Marin.

Dennis is employed by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. and the Sun-Check Glass Tinting Co. He is the brother of Mrs. R. J. Patskoski of Merritt Island, Fla., and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hill of Stinson Beach.

Novato Teen CYO To Hold 'Cow Pony Rag' On Saturday

The Novato Teen Catholic Youth Organization will transform the church parish hall in Novato into the "C Bar A Ranch" when they present the "Cow Pony Rag," from 7:30 to 11 p.m. on Saturday.

Jim Davidson, chairman, announced that dress will be casual school clothes. Ranch house variety refreshments are promised by the committee, headed by Susan McGinnie, assisted by Sandy Amaral, Chris Cromwell, Carol Davidson, Cheryl Hook, Norene Jordan, Rosemary Meehan, Judy McGinnis, Linda Trent, Marie San Filippo, Teresa Kane, Sharon Stevens, Bonnie Foley and Sheila Locke.

Decorating the hall will be ranch hands Lynn Askim, Judy Picchi, Jim Davidson, Dianne Loveland, Steve Davidson, Jack Kane, John Killian and Linda Trent.

Invitations have been mailed to all CYO Clubs in Marin, and Mrs. James Henderson, adviser, said the dance is open to all high school students of Novato. Chaperones are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Manthey and Mrs. Robert Greenwood.

New Fire Starter

A new fire starter briquette is made with wood-fibre base impregnated with paraffin. It is odorless, non-explosive and non-toxic, says the manufacturer, and especially good for lighting charcoal and logs. (Justrite).

A CHANGE OF COMMAND

The Meadow Club was the setting for the general meeting and luncheon of the Marin County Dental Auxiliary on Friday afternoon, when Mrs. Robert C. Taylor, left, turned over the president's gavel to Mrs. James E. Cermak of Novato, who will lead the group through the year. Installing officer was Dr. Berne J. Holman, past president of the Marin County Dental Society. (Independent-Journal photo)

Marin Women

Corte Maderan Elected Head Of Marin Inter-City Council

Mrs. Richard Allen Wunderlich of Corte Madera, a member of Beta Sigma Phi sorority since 1950, is the new president of the Sorority's Marin Inter-City Council. She was this year's recording secretary.

Holder of the exemplar degree in the social and cultural organization, she has been president, vice president, recording and corresponding secretary of Theta Delta chapter in San Francisco and is now a member of Mill Valley's Omicron Alpha Chapter. She has handled its publicity for the past two years, as well as the publicity for Marin Lutheran Church Women.

AS HEAD of the council she will be concerned with coordinating the activities of the six Marin chapters of the sorority: Omicron Alpha, Mill Valley; Phi Gamma Nu, San Rafael; Upsilon Gamma, Novato; Xi Alpha Xi, San Rafael; and Xi Kappa Psi, Novato.

Major events of the year will be the annual Valentine Ball and a fashion luncheon given to support charitable projects.

A native of Fullerton, Pa., Lorraine was graduated from the high school of commerce in San Francisco and attended San Francisco City College, where she was a business major.

BEFORE AND for some time after her marriage to her husband, a civil engineer, she was employed as a legal secretary.

The Wunderlichs have lived in Corte Madera for four and a half years and have three children. They are Richard, 6; Nancy, 4; and Karen, 2.

MRS. WUNDERLICH

Leslie Maxwell Becomes Bride

The marriage took place on May 18 in Reno, and the newlyweds are living in Strawberry.

Stephen is the son of Mrs. Edith Cole of Nevada City, and a former resident of Novato. He has been making his home since last fall, after a tour of duty with the Air Force, with his stepfather and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore V. Cole of Kent Woodlands, and his sister Linda. His other sister, Cynthia, lives in Nevada City and is a frequent visitor to Kentfield. A family dinner to honor the couple is planned by the Coles.

SEW SIMPLE

Soft Suede Or Kid Leathers Are Suitable For Trimmings

By EUNICE FARMER

"I would like to try my hand at using small leather touches for my sports clothes but can't seem to find out where the leather is available." — Mrs. C.M.

Dear Mrs. C.M.:

If you live near a large city, look up leather supplies in your phone directory. You will need the soft suede or kidskin type leathers for trimmings.

In the meantime, check your supply of old kid gloves. Usually when the fingers have worn out, there is still plenty of good leather in the cuffs of the gloves. This can be cut in strips for buttonhole welts, pocket welts, covered buttons and many other small trims. Leather trim has become very popular on casual clothes.

A mixture of textures makes a garment interesting and fun to wear. With this original type of trimming, your friends won't believe you made the garment.

"Put a touch of red fingernail polish beside each spot that requires oiling on your sewing machine. Oiling (which I used to dread because I had to study the instruction booklet each time) now takes just a jiffy to do and my sewing machine works like a charm." Mrs. Edward A. Reid, Portland, Ore., receives this week's tailor trix pressing board award for this suggestion.

"I recently attended a fashion show of very expensive garments. Among them was a pair of slacks without side seams. I haven't seen any pattern like this and would like to know how to make them." —Mrs. M.M.

Dear Mrs. M.M.:

You are very observant. These new slacks often have a "flare" on the inseam at the hem, to resemble bell-bottom trousers the sailors wear.

You must begin with a pattern you have used before, so you'll be certain it fits perfectly. There is no way you can let out or take in these trousers after they have been cut. Be sure the crotch seam is short enough for good fit.

Lay the two side seams over each other as illustrated, and pin from the lower hem line up to the notch at the hip line. Allow the pattern to lie flat above this hip notch. You will notice that the space that spreads apart above this side seam is curved and tapers to nothing. This will be taken up as a dart.

If you care to add the "bell" on the in-seam, curve the seam out as you cut. It is always better to cut them wider than you would like them to be, then fit them to the width that will be most flattering to you.

"What do you recommend for lining cotton shorts and skirts for summer? I intend to wash these. Also, is it better to treat the two layers of material as one, or to make a separate lining and attach it at the waistband?" — Mrs. R.M. (mother of 4 girls)

Dear Mrs. R.M.:

I usually recommend lining cotton shorts and skirts with batiste, lawn, or any similar type fabric which is light weight and firmly woven. Be sure to wet any lining fabric with hot water, dry, and press before using.

Treating the two layers of fabric as one is easier, seems to keep the shape of the garment better, and is also easier to launder and iron. This means that the darts will be made in the two layers of fabric together, as well as all seams. When hemming the garment, attach the hem to the lining only.

Mrs. B.H.S. says: "A plastic container with a cake of beeswax is a sewing 'must.' Run your thread for all hand sewing through the beeswax before using it. It will strengthen and straighten the thread to make hand sewing a joy."

Please send your sewing tips to Sew Simple, in care of the Independent - Journal.

Dorcas To Mark 43 Years

Tomorrow at noon the women of the Dorcus Society of the Fairfax Community Church will hold their annual spring luncheon to commemorate their 43rd anniversary. Cards will be played during the afternoon.

Down through the years the name "Dorcus" has meant service. The first library in Fairfax, prior to the time the County Library opened a branch in this area, was started by this group. The first movies shown in Fairfax were a joint effort of Dorcus and the women of St. Rita's Catholic Church.

Two years prior to the Parent-Teacher Assn., these women were instrumental in forming a "Mother's Club" in the local school and worked to promote interest in the first Boy Scout troop in Fairfax.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Freezing Has Advantages Over Some Other Kinds Of Surgery

Cryogenic surgery is a method of destroying or removing tissue by freezing. The system opens up many possibilities, especially in eliminating tumors from the brain, endocrine organs, skin, rectum, and heart.

VAN DELLEN

According to Dr. Irving S. Cooper of New York City, freezing has the advantage of congealing tissue in a painless and bloodless way. The technic is not going to replace the traditional scalpel but it will compete with radiation, cauterization, and other means of destroying benign and malignant tumors.

DR. COOPER developed a special sharp pointed tube into which is placed liquid nitrogen with a temperature of —321 degrees F. (—196 C.). The instrument is insulated except at the tip. The liquid nitrogen passes to the noninsulated tip, which is used to freeze a limited area, without damage to adjacent tissue.

Much of Dr. Cooper's work in recent years has centered about the surgical treatment of parkinsonism (shaking palsy). He has relieved tremor and rigidity by injecting alcohol into or cauterizing small areas deep within the brain. For the last 18 months he has been utilizing cryogenic surgery and has treated 800 cases of parkinsonism in this way. The risk of complications proved low (less than 1 per cent) and improvement was prompt in suitable cases.

A SPECIAL rig is placed over the head to guide the tip of the cooling instrument. The individual is conscious and the response to cold is noted while the patient is on the operating table. If tremor and muscle rigidity are not helped, the area is thawed immediately and the tube is moved around slightly until the right spot is found.

The New York neurosurgeon has employed the cryosurgical instrument to freeze brain tumors prior to surgical dissection. The congealed lesion tends to shrink and is easier to take out. His colleagues have used the method to freeze visible tumors in the rectum and other passageways. Tonsilectomey has been carried out in laboratory monkeys. In addition, freezing therapy has been valuable in certain eye conditions.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

GUM AND INDIGESTION

C.R. writes: A friend who chews gum constantly often has an upset stomach. Do you think this could be caused by swallowing a lot of air with it?

REPLY

Gum chewing is not associated with air swallowing but indigestion could stem from this source if he is an air swallower. Other causes of digestive upsets include nervousness, peptic ulcer, and gall bladder disease.

SCIATICA STILL PRESENT

H.H. writes: I had a successful laminectomy last August but still have trouble with my back and sciatic nerve. This worries me. Do you think the discomfort will go away in time?

REPLY

Yes, although this operation to relieve the effects of a slipped disk fails to bring relief in approximately 15 per cent.

OPTIC NEURITIS

M.S. writes: Where does optic neuritis come from?

REPLY

It may follow infection such as syphillis, meningitis, or encephalitis, or lead poisoning, multiple sclerosis, alcoholism, or poor circulation to the brain. This form of neuritis leads to degeneration of the optic nerve and visual disorders.

JUMPING AT 65

REPLY

Yes, provided the knees, back, and heart can take it.

Today's Health Hint—If you have firearms, keep them locked up.

Name Change Due Planners

The San Rafael City Planning Commission will again tackle the problem of coming up with a new name for Blossom Court at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at city hall.

The postmaster and the fire chief have requested that the name be changed to avoid confusion with Blossom Drive, but residents of the area are against a change.

Commissioners also will consider a use permit sought by Howard Adams for a multiple family dwelling unit at the southwest corner of Fourth and Mary streets.

Apartment Plans Will Be Reviewed

Plans for the Uplands, 342 apartments on the south side of Paradise Drive east of Marin Country Day School, will be reviewed by the Corte Madera Town Board of Design at 7:30 p.m. today in town hall.

Guy Cole of Hillsborough plans the apartments in seven buildings.

The board will also consider an application by Douglas Oil Co. of Santa Clara for a gas station at the northeast corner of Corte Madera and Redwood avenues.

Presbyteens Plan Ice Cream Social

The Presbyteens of the Redwoods Presbyterian Church, Larkspur, will hold a fund raising ice cream social at 6 p.m. Saturday at the church. The Balladiers and Tina and Kanoe of Redwood High School will provide folk music.

Funds will be used to finance trips of two club members. Ken Larsen has been named to represent the group at the North American Presbyterian and Reformed Youth Alliance at Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., in July, and Ann Paine has been chosen for work in Sitka, Alaska, during the summer.

Kentfield To Hire Summer Teachers

Teachers for summer school classes June 20 to July 19 will be hired by the Kentfield School District board at a meeting at 7:45 p.m. today in Wolfe Grade School Library.

Summer classes will be at Adaline E. Kent School, said Supt. Howard C. Harmon.

Jewish Community Summer Camp Set

Camp Rafa-El, the summer day camp of the Marin Jewish Community Center, starting operation June 24, will feature weekly bus excursions to Bay Area points of interest including Tilden Park, Berkeley; Frontierland, San Jose, and Hamilton Air Force Base.

The nine week summer season still has a few openings for children between eight and 12 years old.

Asthma, Bronchitis Will Be Discussed

Dr. Robert W. Clarke, county chest physician, will discuss asthma and chronic bronchitis, chest diseases which afflict seven million Americans, over KTIM tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. Clarke is advisor to the Marin Tuberculosis and Health Assn.

The association has also announced a 15 minute film, "Signposts," about respiratory disease symptoms, is available now and through June for showings by clubs and civic groups in Marin County. Reservations may be made by telephoning the association office.

Gets Science Degree

Lee Alan Bartl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Bartl of 203 Vendola Drive, Santa Venetia, has been awarded an associate in science degree in electronic engineering technology from the Central Technical Institute, Kansas City, Mo., and is now working with the Collins Radio Co. of Cedar Rapids, Ia., as a technical illustrator.

INVITATION FOR PROPOSAL

Sealed bids will be received at the office of the Marin Municipal Water District, 220 Nellen Avenue, Corte Madera, California until 1:30 P.M., Wednesday, June 12, 1963, and will be opened at that hour for the furnishing and erecting of one 500,000 gallon welded steel water tank.

The contractor shall furnish all necessary labor, equipment, and materials necessary to be incorporated into the job.

The general prevailing rate of wages in the locality in which work is to be performed has been ascertained by the District, under the provisions of Section 1770 of the Labor Code, to be as follows:

Classification	Rate Per Hour
Boilermakers
Journeyman	$4.75
Helpers	4.45
Ironworkers
Journeyman	4.75
Ornamental	4.75
Laborers
Group I	3.575
Group II	3.425
Group III	3.325
Painters (7 Hour Day)	4.07
Teamsters
Pickup Trucks	3.46
Flat Racks Under 10,500 Lbs.	3.523
Flat Racks 10,500 Lbs. and over	3.72
Winch Trucks (A-Frame)	3.835

Overtime shall not be less than one and one-half (1½) times the above rates.

Sundays and holidays shall not be less than one and one-half (1½) times the above rates. The holidays upon which such rates shall be paid shall be all holidays recognized in the collective bargaining agreement applicable to the particular craft, classification or type of workman employed on the project.

It shall be mandatory upon the contractor to whom the Contract is awarded and upon any subcontractor under him to pay not less than the said specified rates to all laborers, workmen and mechanics employed by them in the execution of the contract.

Proposals will be considered for the complete job only. The proposal must be submitted on the form provided and must be accompanied by a Certified Check, Cash, Post Office Money Order or Bid Bond as a guarantee that the bidder will, if successful, promptly execute a satisfactory contract and furnish bonds as required by these specifications. The Certified Check, Cash, Post Office Money Order or Bid Bond shall be not less than ten (10) percent of the total amount of the bid and shall be made payable to the Treasurer of the Marin Municipal Water District.

The envelope enclosing the proposal must have stated thereon "Proposal for the Furnishing and Erecting of the Miller Creek 500,000 Gallon Steel Tank".

Specifications may be obtained at 220 Nellen Avenue, the office of the District. The $25.00 deposit required for each set of specifications will be refunded when specifications are returned to the District. It is requested that those Contractors wishing a Water District representative to accompany them on their first visit to the site of the work, notify the District sufficiently in advance so that necessary arrangements may be made.

Progress payments will be made.

Hy Silver Says:
I've been sitting in my office wondering why more people don't come in to buy our good used cars. It occurred to me that a lot of people don't know we're in business. Then it occurred to me that a lot of people do know and don't care. So it naturally follows that we've got to give people a reason to come to our lot, and here it is: If you come to our lot in Novato, I will personally guarantee that no one will spit in your eye! I mean that literally and figuratively. We won't try to insult your intelligence with a bunch of ridiculous claims. If you try out one of our cars and find something wrong with it, we'll try to fix it for you. If you are worried about payments or not having enough money to put down, or not having any money to put down, come in and talk over your problems. We can't work miracles, but we've had years of experience in financing cars and we can put this experience to work for you. Even if you don't want to buy a car, come on in and chin a little. We get mighty lonely sometimes. You'll find us at Hy Silver Used Cars, 1119 Grant Ave., Novato.

10 Marinites To Take Rafts Down Rivers

Ten Marin County residents will be drifting along on vacation next month taking raft cruises, the Sierra Club reported.

Taking a 146-mile cruise down the Colorado River starting June 18 will be Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fletcher of 392 Richardson Way, Mill Valley, and their children, Peter and Eric, 10-year-old twins, Clyde, 9, and Elizabeth, 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rogers Jr. and their son, Joe, 7, of 111 Stetson Avenue, Kentfield, also will take the Colorado River trip.

In north-central Oregon, Mrs. M. G. Ferrin and her son, Ricky, 13, of 456 Woodland Road, Kentfield, will take the club's John Day River cruise beginning June 10. This cruise consists of a 100-mile drift down the river.

Five Marinites Pass State Bar

Five Marin County residents are among the 304 persons who passed the 1963 spring state bar examination, the Committee of Bar Examiners announced today.

They will be certified for admission to practice law at ceremonies June 12 at the State Supreme Court, San Francisco.

Tiburon Art Show Set

The Artist's Guild, 50 artists from the Bay Area, will have its outdoor art exhibit at the boardwalk in Tiburon June 15 and 16 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. More than 250 paintings will be displayed.

Art Scholarship Won By Student

Peter Freitas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Freitas, 50 Bret Harte Road, San Rafael, has won a nine-week scholarship at Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture at Skowhegan, Me.

The art student has studied a year at College of Marin and two years at San Francisco Art Institute. The faculty of the institute recommended him for the award.

Turkey Will Be Topic Of Mill Valley Talk

Turkey, the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus will be discussed Wednesday by San Francisco State College professor Louis Wasserman at the Outdoor Art Club, Mill Valley.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m. Tickets are available at Strawbridge's in Mill Valley.

The second law passed by the first United States Congress was a tarrif act. Congress first prescribed the form of oaths to be taken by public officials.

Summer School Set In Novato

The Novato High School summer school will open its doors on June 24 for students who have 14 courses from which to choose.

The summer session will last until Aug. 2. Classes will meet from 8 to 10:05 a.m. and from 10:15 a.m. to 12:20 p.m. There will be a short break in between classes.

The courses offered are: science, English, mathematics, social studies, anthropology, clothing construction, arts and crafts, driver training, drama, mechanical drawing, metal shop, marine biology, typing and driver safety education.

Fund Campaign Starts For Foreign Student

A fund raising campaign is underway to bring a foreign student to the United States for a year of study at Sir Francis Drake High School and to send a local boy abroad under the American Field Service program.

The drive to sell bonds ranging from 50 cents to $10 will continue to June 2, with hopes of raising $1,200, according to fund raising chairman Mrs. Gerald Barron.

Tam Sophomore Gets Music Scholarship

Cathy Crain, Tamalpais High School sophomore and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Crain, 112 Ferndale Avenue, Mill Valley, has been named winner of a summer music scholarship at San Francisco State College.

A soprano singer, Miss Crain will attend a six week work session at the college starting June 24.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

Too many small business firms are doomed to failure before they get started. Reason: The new businessman fails to consider all the factors besides his own initiative that determine his chances for success. Often he is too carried away by his own enthusiasm to take into account the importance of sufficient capital, location and lease arrangements, taxes and licenses, promotion and advertising, credit policy, bookkeeping and personnel.

We have just been going over a very fine bulletin published by the Bank of America on "Starting a Retail or Service Business" dealing with all these things and other pitfalls. We understand it is available for the asking at the bank's branches — definitely at the San Rafael office. Recommended for thorough study by anyone contemplating the opening of a new business.

CONSULTING CHEF Paul H. Debes of Los Ranchitos has developed an India curry sauce from an old India formula in his San Francisco professional kitchen. Through Juillard Fancy Foods Co. it has been placed on the shelves of the three United Market Stores in Marin.

Next Friday and Saturday will be "India Curry Day" at United's San Rafael market. A charming, turbaned gentleman from India by the name of Karter S. Sehgal will officiate at a demonstration of preparing a shrimp curry in 10 minutes. A similar demonstration will be held later in United's San Anselmo market.

A NEW CIGARETTE HOLDER introduced by Tar Gard Co., backed by a group of Bay Area businessmen, will appear in Marin County stores soon. The holder adapts the aerodynamic principle of the Venturi tube to accelerate smoke to a speed of 200 miles per hour, separating high and low temperature tars, and is said to reduce harsh irritants in the smoke. Northern California sales distribution will be directed by H. R. Plate and Co., manufacturer's representative.

McQuinn

W. J. McQUINN of San Anselmo has been named foreign staff manager for Standard Oil Co. of California. Prior to the appointment his assignments have been as supervising engineer and assistant manager of the company's foreign staff. He joined Standard in 1946 as a design engineer.

Notary Commissioned

Gloria J. Shortridge, P.O. Box 900, San Rafael, has been issued a notary public commission, Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan announced today.
